THE PAPOOSE

NINETEEN FORTY-NINE EDITION

Published By The
SENIOR CLASS

POCOMOKE HIGH SCHOOL

POCOMOKE CITY,

MARYLAND

Dedicated to

The memory of a loyal friend and former member of the class of 1949. For seven years she was a member of our class; she was an active member of our glee club and dancing club. In addition she was a typist on the staff of the year book. With sincere admiration and a deep sense of loss we proudly dedicate this edition of "The Papoose" to Doris Mae Dykes.

Class History

The year 1938 held a new experience for us. Our first year of school was one that none of us shall ever forget. As we look back through our past years, our minds are flooded with memories of things we have done and of things we shouldn't have done.

The Freshman year was very progressive and our class was joined by five new members: Pauline Lambertson, Harrison Lambertson, Mary Ellen Payne, Bob Wilson and Orland Howard.

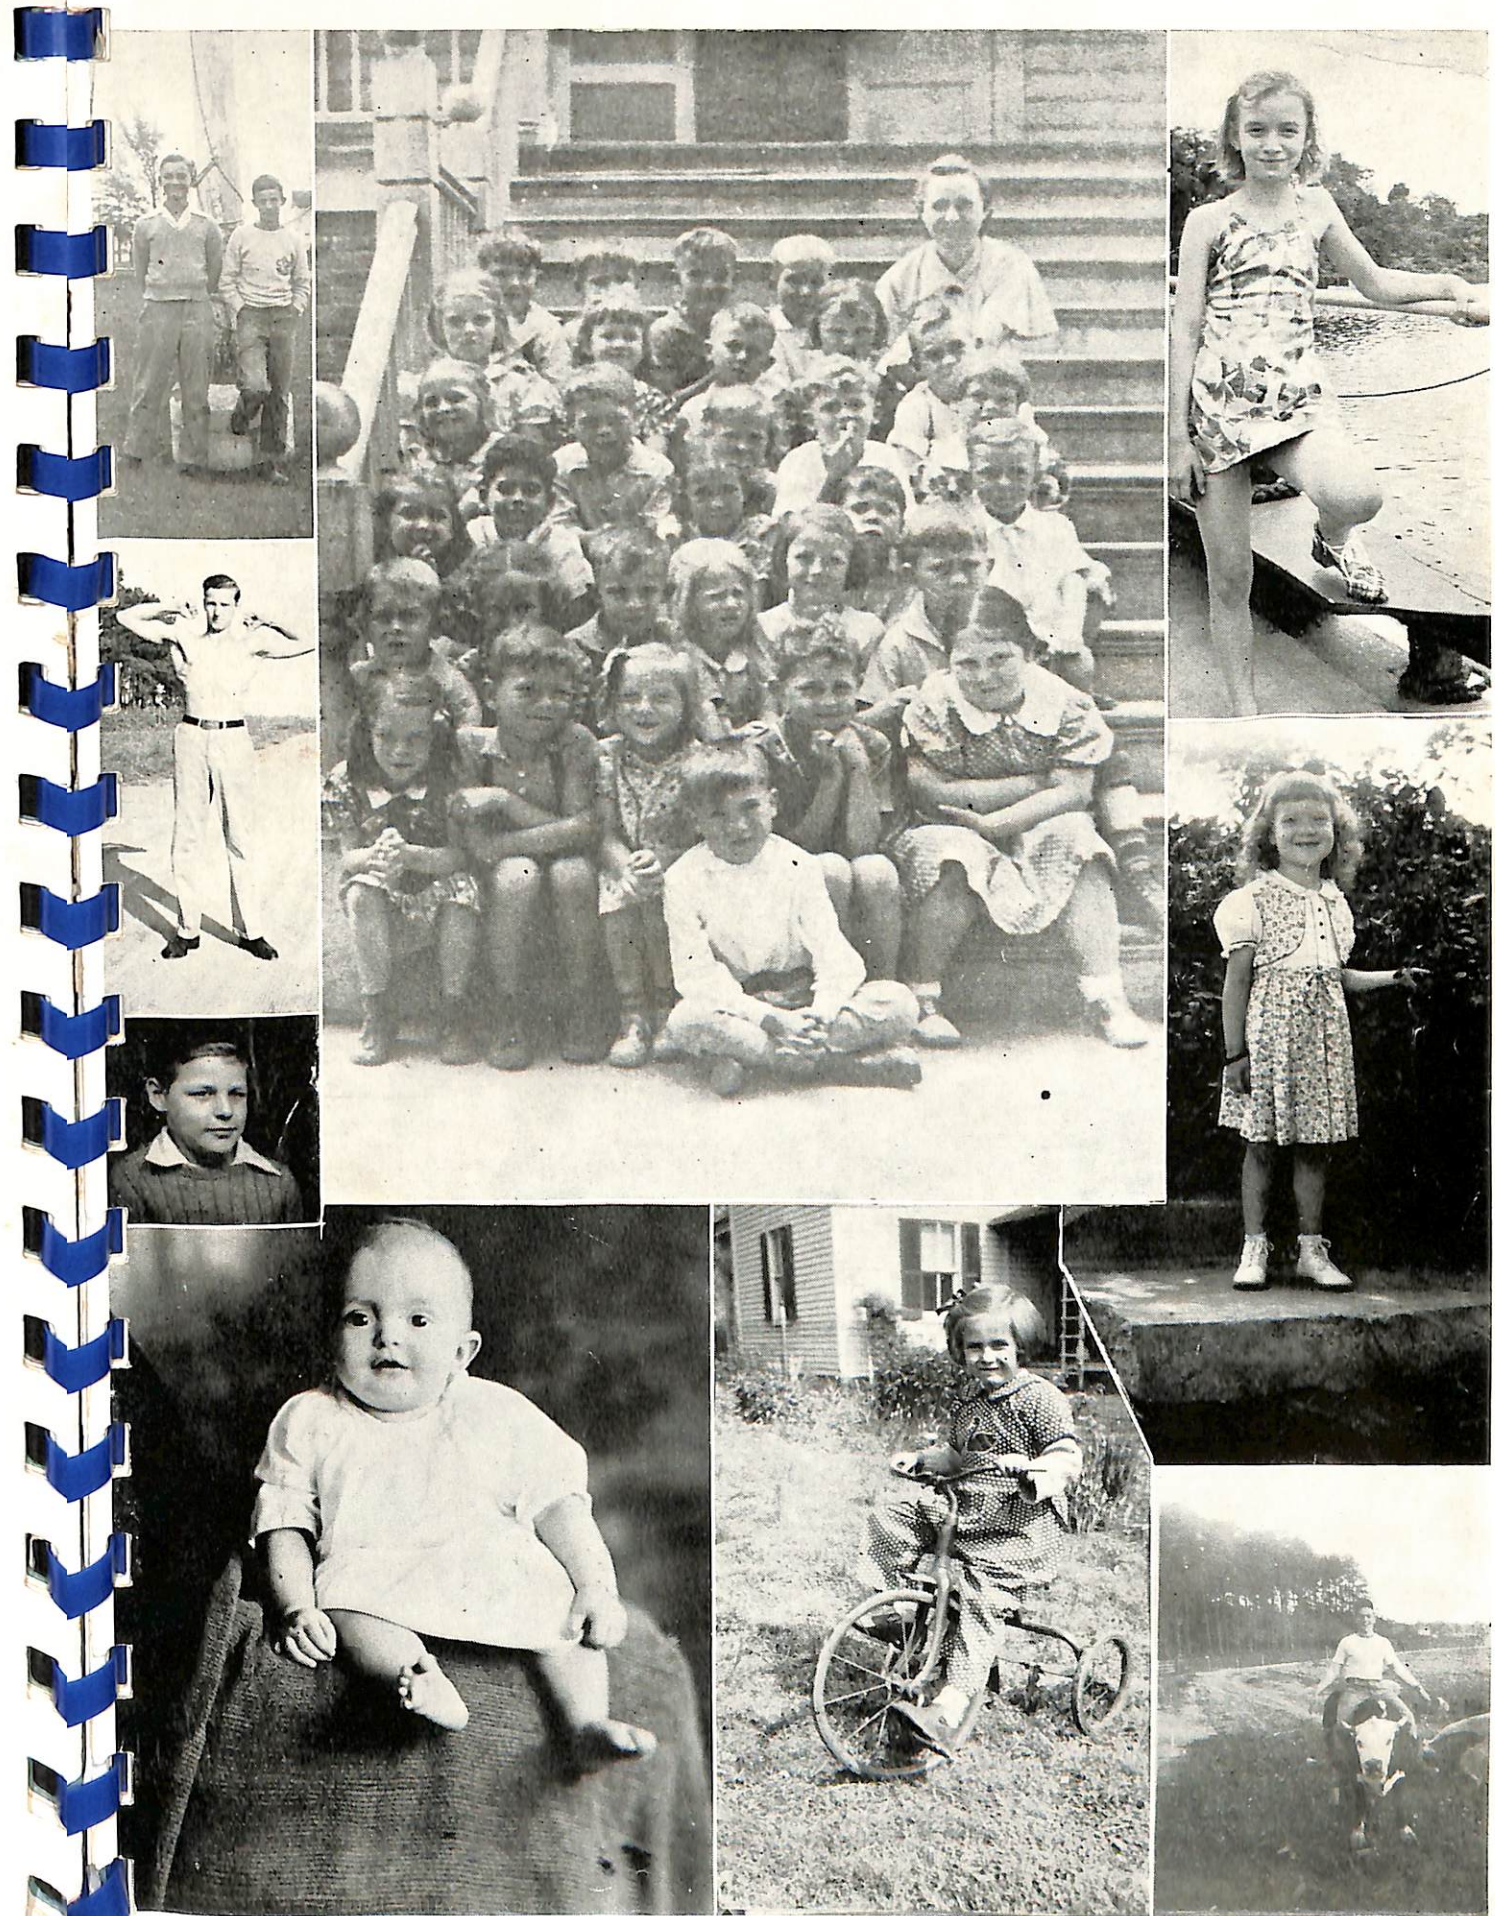

In our Sophomore year Tom Belfi, Bob Willey and Niomi Spide joined us.

Our more eventful school days came when we entered our Junior year, with three additions: Rita Luke, Barbara Reynolds and Carlyle Shorter. This year was probably one of the best in all of our school years. On April 23 we gave our Junior-Senior Prom, the theme of which was "Top Hats". We also gave two other dances before the Prom: "Carnival Capers" and the "Christmas Dance" which were both very successful. Another well-remembered day was January 9th, the day on which we received our class rings.

We entered our Senior year, the same Gang!!! This year brought a lot of work: a year-book, ordering name cards and graduation announcements and caps and gowns, giving our Senior play, several dances, including the Sadie Hawkins Dance, and other special events.

During our four years in high school, we had several withdrawals from our class: Irene Butler, Dolores Daisey, Rose Byrd, Edgar Lee Colonna, Linwood Butler, Larry Fletcher, Winston Henderson, Tommy Ward, Lorraine Martin, Charles Larkin, Edward Lynch, Johnny Taylor and Bob Willey. Through a tragic accident we had the misfortune of losing another of our classmates — Doris Dykes.

Through the oncoming years we shall always remember our days spent in P.H.S.

LAST WILL AND TESTMENT

Fellow students, Teachers, Principal, Superintendent, Members of the Board of Education, Ladies and Gentlemen, Friends, which includes you all, and whom-ever else it may concern:

We, the class of 1949, of Pocomoke High School, of Pocomoke, of the County of Worcester, of the State of Maryland, of the United States of America, of the World, of the Universe, being of unsound mind but sound body, do hereby bequeath the following:

I, Josh Lankford, will my dollar Frank Medico pipe and 15c can of Briggs Tobacco to Rudolph Butler, providing he entrances the girls with that wonderful he-man aroma.

I, Rita Luke, will my figure to Patsy Howard, providing she keeps it in shape.

I, Gene Bailey, will my flirtation ability to Jimmy Hall, providing he flirts only with Nancy Wilson.

I, Julia Corbin, will to Mary Henderson, my glasses, so that she may see the mistakes she has made in basketball games in the past year.

I, Kenny Payne, will to Donald Bishop, my ability to yell at a high pitch, providing he uses it at basketball games.

I, Glenna Vincent, will to Becky Watson, my privilege to sit out in front of the school at noon time, providing she's a good little girl, and providing no one says anything to her about it.

I, Bob Colebourn, will my little red Ford to Leslie Payne, providing he keeps her down to 103, and providing he doesn't take Patsy or Ina out in it.

I, Charles Byrd, will to Bobby Howard, my ability to take pictures, and not to waste any films on girls.

I, Earlda Rankin, will to Joan Russell, the adhesive tape from my sprained ankle to wrap around her wrists in basketball games.

I, Barbara Reynolds, will my one blue and my one brown eye to Bobby Martin, provided he doesn't wink at one girl, while looking at someone else with the other eye.

I, Barney Callahan, will my swimming ability to Shirley McAllister, so that she may have a better opportunity to show off her physique. (So Barney calls it.)

I, Pauline Lambertson, will my big hips to Beverley Talley, so that she may keep her skirts up.

I, Oland Howard, will my physique and muscles to Bobby Denston, providing he takes it easy on Willard Beauchamp.

I, Alice Ayres, will my loving technique to Betsy Creath, providing she uses them only in certain limits.

I, Freddy Carey, will my ability to drive a car at top speed to Miss Matthews, provided she doesn't get in any more accidents than I have.

I, Marilyn Hardester, will my tall red stockings to Barbara Townsend, providing she rolls them down when the boys start cussing!

I, Anita Ennis, will to Phyllis Taylor, my hair style provided she doesn't ever change it, or wear an up-sweep.

I, Mary Ellen Payne, will my 107-pound frame to Ann Smith, providing she exercises every night to keep it that way.

I, Goldye Brittingham, will my bottle of peroxide to Shirley McAllister, providing she bleaches her eyebrows and eyelashes, too.

I, Niomi Spide, will my slimness to Ann Mason, providing she doesn't go on a diet.

I, Jean Outten, will my basketball ability to Ethel Wise, providing she doesn't foul out as many times as I have.

I, Carlyle Shorter, will to Nancy Wilson, my black Chevrolet for use on a lonely night, provided she doesn't use it with Jimmy Hall, but uses it with Freddy Carey.

I, Frances Insley, will to Norma Niblett, my ability to flirt with older boys, providing she doesn't use it to a better advantage than I have.

I, Harrison Lambertson, will to Willard Beauchamp, my ability to hunt, providing he keeps a good pack of dogs of 25, and feeds them 3 times a day.

I, William Wise, will Bryan Denston, my wavy hair.

I, Bob Wilson, will my back seat technique to Barbara Ward, so Oland and she will have something to do with themselves.

I, C. O. Melvin, will my ability to talk to Mainster Bell, providing he keeps his mouth shut.

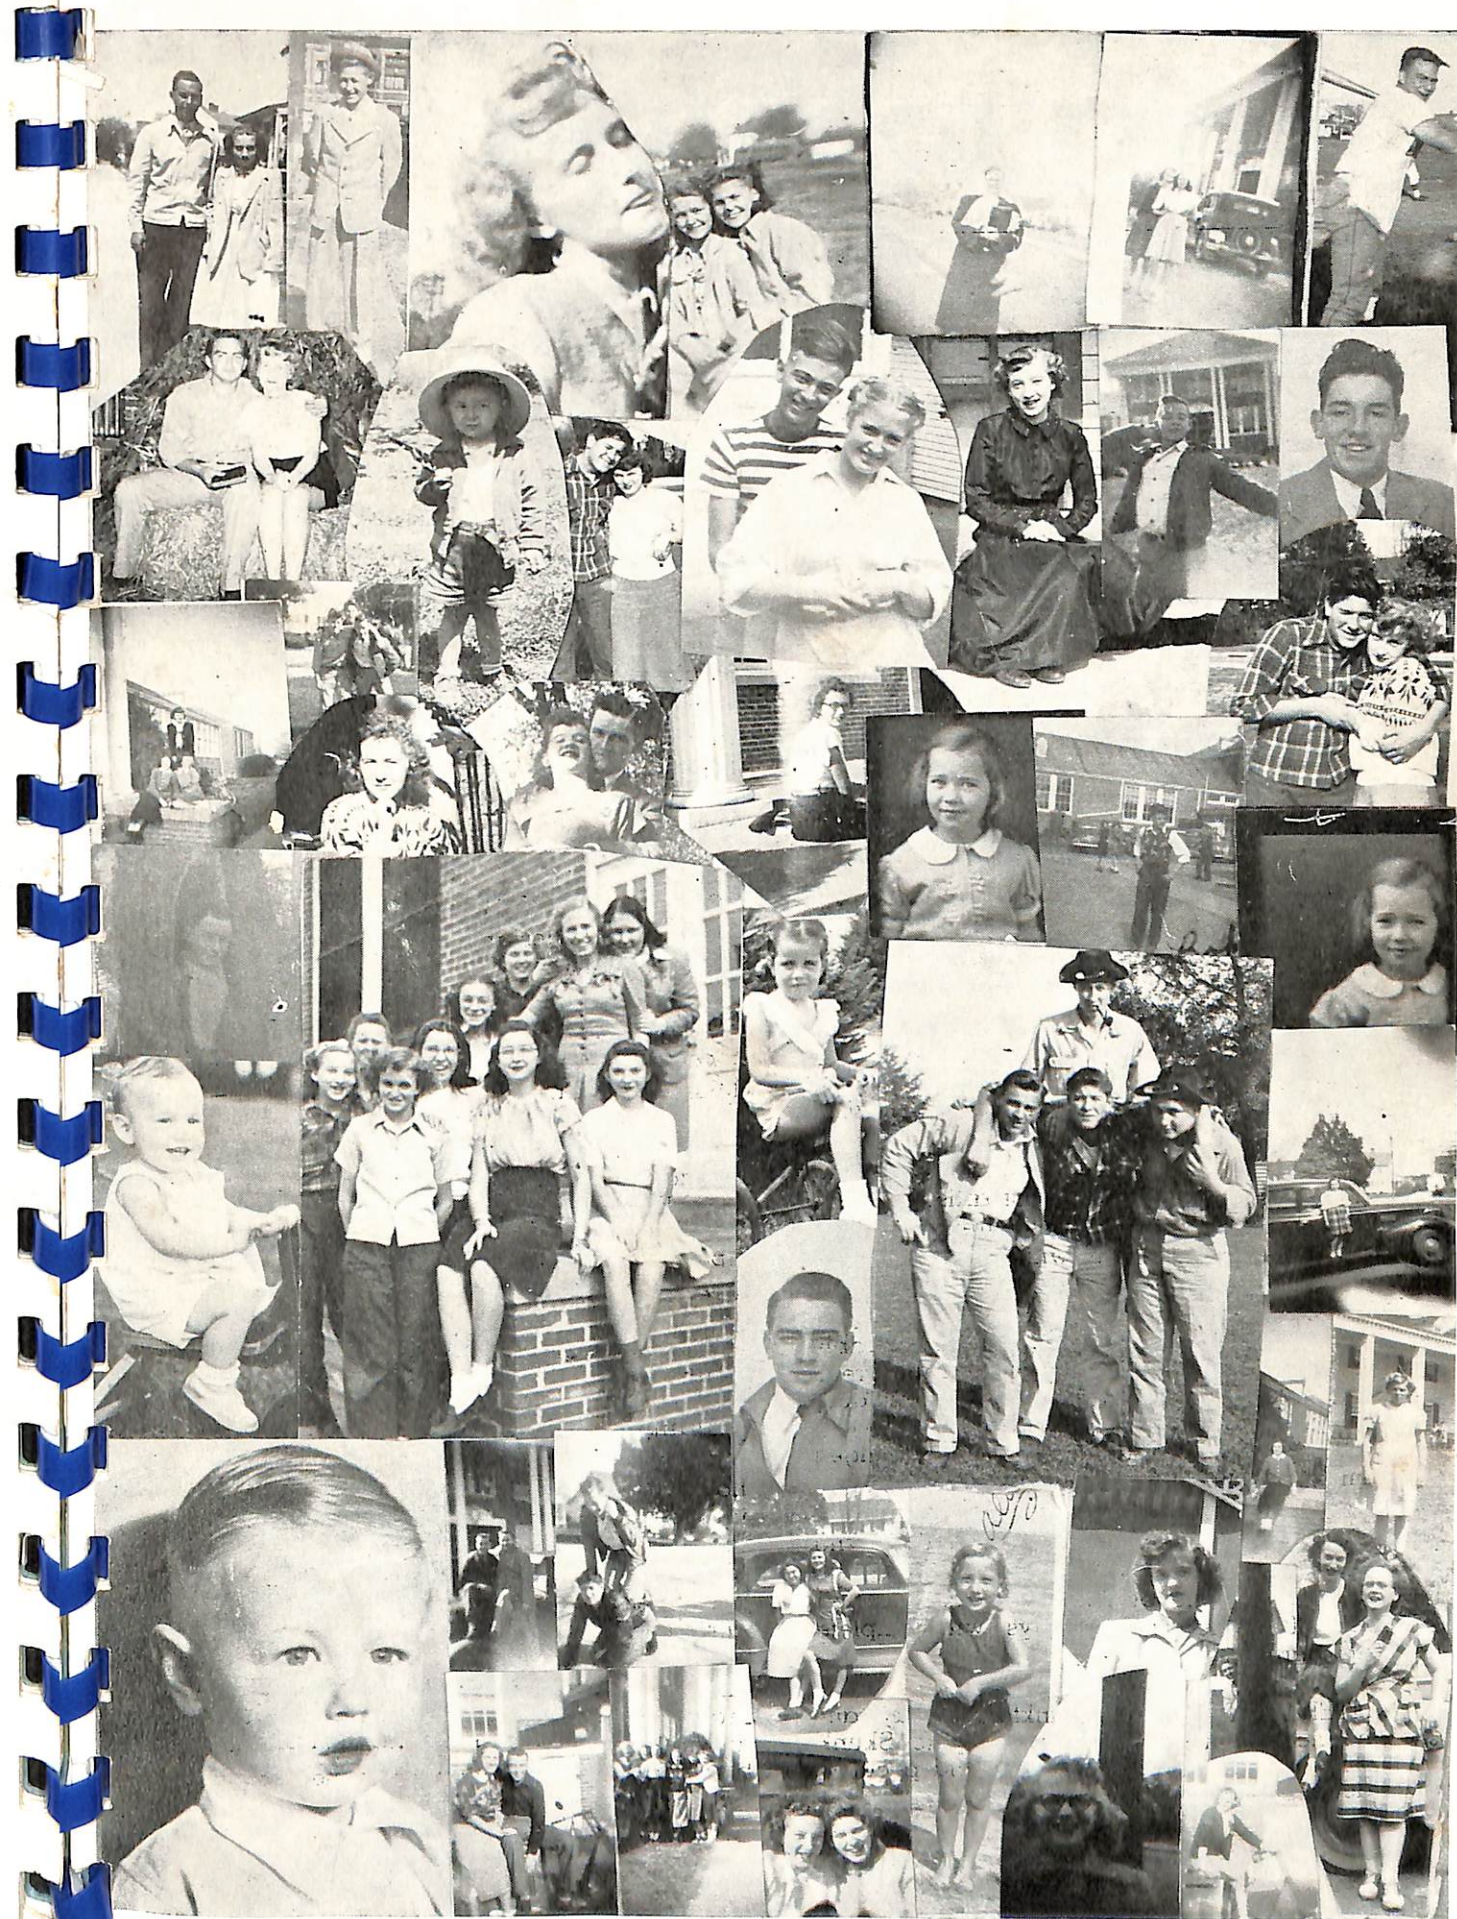

I, Arthur Outten, will my ability to lose weight to Betty June James, providing she keeps away from Keith Chesser.

I, Tom Belfi, will my tiny undernourished 6'3" frame to Bobby Howard, providing he doesn't skin his nose or head on any door frames.

I, Chelsie Goswellen, will to Anita Gossard, my carefree walk, providing she doesn't misuse it.

I, Emma Benson, will to Joan Yaggi, my long hair, providing she washes it every week, and doesn't dye it.

We, the senior class, will our sympathy to Jules Diamond, to be given to the Junior Class, for having to put up with him two more years.

NAMES IN THE NEWS

WORLD OF SCIENCE: Nuclear Physicist Charles Byrd (ex-Boy Scout Leader of Troop 143) has just discovered a way of splitting the Atom's Adam's Apple. "All this is due," says Byrd, "to what Mrs. Cutright, my Physics teacher taught me."

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS: Miss Goldye Lee Brittingham, noted psychiatrist, has just finished her new book, MY TEN YEARS IN CAMBRIDGE. We all hope it is as big a success as her last book on the psychiatric world, "Snake Fit."

Captain Richard Moore Callahan and Senator Frederick Wilson Carey have recently discussed plans for enlarging New York Harbor. It seems there is not enough room for all of Captain Callahan's tugboats. COOK JAILED: William Wise, chef at the Club 48 goes on trial tomorrow for the poisoning of 18 people. Mr. Wise was trying out a new recipe.

WORLD OF ART: Marilyn Hardester and Eugene Bailey, famous Opera stars are co-starring in the Opera, THE SCREECH OF THE OWL AND THE CALL OF THE BULL FROG.

Orland Howard, surrealist artist, has just recovered from chiropractic treatments. He dislocated his clavicle, while posing for one of his self-portraits.

REPUBLICANS IN AGAIN: The Honorable C. Owen Melvin, recently elected the President of the U. S., stated that his first duty to all loyal Republicans was to have Democratic Senator Fred Wilson Carey hanged on the gibbet.

MATRIMONY: Local yokel, Tom Belfi who five years ago gave up his citizenship to take the throne of Tahiti has just married his 130th wife. This, he says, will complete his harem.

LITERATURE: Joshua Lankford today announced that he would journey to Skunk Hollow to write on the habits and peculiar actions of the people.

AROUND TOWN: Bob Wilson, Arthur Outten and Harrison Lambertson, Agriculture experts, have developed a new plant. It is called "Potamoereen." This marvelous plant produces potatoes on the roots, tomatoes on the vines, and leaves taste just like turnip greens.

MUSIC Rachel's Rangers, that new hillbilly band sensation, led by Bernie Shorter will play for three days at the State Theatre. Bobby Coleburn and his Sentimental Gentlemen of Swing have just finished a long engagement at the Little Theater off Times Square.

SOCIETY: Rita Luke, famous Conover model, today displayed the new type of dress, called the "OldStare" designed by the famous dress designers, Niomi Spide and Chelsie Goswellen.

On the spot photographer Kenneth Payne took pictures of a Garden party given by Mrs. Royce Culver, the former Alice Ayres.

Miss Julia Corbin and Miss Pauline Lambertson are in competition for the title of Miss Farm Girl of 1959.

FAREWELL TO P. H. S.

We, the Senior class of "49," leave behind us eleven years of experiences in Pocomoke High. As we journey into the outer world we will always cherish the memories of our school days.

It is a time to be happy and a time to be sad because our carefree fun and happy days are at an end. We will all start our individual lives in different fields and professions.

We must look ahead and plan for the future, which we have dreamed of for the past eleven years.

We wish to thank our parents, faculty, and all others who have helped make our school days the very best. We hope the classes who follow us will take advantage of the opportunities that we missed.

A hearty "Goodbye," dear old P. H. S.
