PATTER

(Recite while Chorus is played)

Banners are swaying, bands are a playing,
The new deal is starting right now.
Whistles are blowing, furnaces glowing,
The horses are hitched to the plow.
The butcher, the baker, the candlestick maker,
Sailor, mechanic and clerk,
Are braver and bolder, and shoulder to shoulder,
They're all going back to their work.
They've got the old chin up, they've got the old grin up,
As rank after rank marches by,
There'll be no more tripping, and be no more slipping,
They're helping each other, that's why.
Good-bye to the blue days, we're into the new days,
All pulling together, you see.
To heck with the gray days, from now on they're pay days
In this good old land of the free.

(Back to Chorus)

Tramp, tramp, tramp, we'll all go marching thru'
Just keep in line and stay behind the Red, White and Blue
All together, now or never
It's the start of the big parade.
