

Messenger 6/3/76

Pocomoke Bicentennial Group Buys Hand Bells

The Pocomoke Bicentennial Committee purchased a set of hand bells last Wednesday for use by the town at a cost of $1249.

According to the company representative this was the first bicentennial committee to purchase a set of the bells.

Named to the board of trustees to oversee the use of the bells were: Paul R. Vincent, chairman; Mrs. Janice Kane, Mrs. Betsy Massey, Mrs. Ada McDaniel and William E. Small.

Mrs. Kane and Mrs. Massey will be acting as directors for the choir. They have set up a meeting for Tuesday, June 8, at 7:30 p.m. at Pitts Creek Presbyterian Church for anyone interested in joining the choir. They are looking for people over 12 years old and with experience in musical activities.

Mr. Vincent was a major contributor toward the bells. Other contributors included: The Pocomoke Woman's Club, the Pocomoke Soroptimist Club, the Pocomoke Lions Club, the Pocomoke Fire Co. Auxiliary, the Mayor, City Councilmen and City Attorney, Bethany Methodist Sunday School, Eastern Shore National Bank, Maryland National Bank, Dr. Ida Belle Thomas, Miss Lucille Stevenson and several others.