CLASS HISTORY

On June 6, 1951, we, the Senior Class, graduated from Pocomoke High School. It was a day we will remember all of our lives—a day when we left our high school years behind us and went out to seek a place for ourselves in the world of tomorrow.

As we look back, we see it all started in 1939, when we were very excited about beginning school. As the years have passed, our original group of kids has been enlarged by the coming of new students.

In the 6th grade we were joined by Isabel Butler and Billy Evans. This was the year we grew very excited about going to school in the high school building. My, we were getting old!!!

Bobby Mills, Patrick Boole, Nancy Wilson, Ida Lee Jones, Maude Mitchell, Betty Lee Outten and Kay Mitchell increased our class in the 7th grade. Our class organized a "Hobby Club" during this year, sponsored by Mrs. Mae Taylor. After making the marionettes, we presented the play, A Midsummer Night's Dream, demonstrating our ability as puppeteers.

During the 8th grade, Jules Diamond, Leroy Culp and Bob Martin entered our class.

The 9th grade marked our first year of high school. The Twelfth Grade System caught us in its wings and we were the first class to graduate from P. H. S. having completed twelve years.

Our Prom "On an Island With You" was the highlight of our Sophomore year. It was the "best yet", quoting the members of the faculty. We will always remember that prom and the fun we had preparing for it.

Not being Seniors, yet the highest class in school, we became "big shots" our Junior year. "Girl-Shy", our play, was a huge success and enjoyed by all. Among some of the dances we gave were a Christmas Dance and a Valentine Dance. These proved fairly successful.

This year Bettie Lou Lambertson joined our ranks, making our number 26. We were finally Seniors!! Many activities have gone on which all eventually led to the climax of our high school days—graduation.

Since we have been in school, the following members have withdrawn from our class: Charles Butler, Mae Ashley, Mary Bull, Carolyn Liester, Elwood Mariner, Bertie Collins, Lillie Mae Hillman, Raymond Bishop, Betty Ward, Beatrice Ward, Charles Mariner, Charles Murphey, George Jones, Barbara Ward, Ralph Willey, Beverly Talley and Orville Powell. All previously mentioned who joined our class, except Nancy Wilson, Bob Martin, Kay Mitchell and Bettie Lambertson, have withdrawn also.

We will always remember our P. H. S. day. The experiences we have had, good or bad, have all been a part of our education. We have one regret—they must end.

CLASS PROPHECY

Gather round one and all,
And we'll tell the future from our crystal ball.

BETSY CREATH, our editor, is a famous singing star,
She just made a new recording and is going far.

Ah, now see our Congressman, HALL,
Filibustering and telling them all.

And who's the favorite sports editor of the day?
Why none other than BRYAN DENSTON, we say.

We see "ole" ANITA has settled down,
She's got a family and going round and round.

Now did you hear BOB DENSTON'S speech last night?
He's leading a revolution to put May Days out of sight.

And, who's approaching, none other than MARY, our step and fetch it.
Grayson's out late again and he's going to catch it.

BOB MARTIN'S inquisitive way has finally gotten him some where;
He's now taking Louella Parson's place, we thank you, on the air.

Here comes Photographer HOWARD cussing and looking for his ladder;
His pictures are on the top shelf and his customers are getting madder.

Now There's SMITTY wheeling her Packard round the corner.
Here comes a poor 'lil dog and we fear he's a goner.

The owner of the new drive-in, ETHEL WISE,
Opened a hospital 'cross the street that's twice the size.

SHIRLEY McALLISTER, after some time has found out,
That sitting on her boss's lap will get her nowhere—without a doubt.

Who was this galloping by the hall?
ANNE MASON on her famous horse "Start, Stop, and Fall."

JOAN YAGGI'S business course has gone Ka-fluie
And we blame it all on that sharp 'ole Louie.

NORMA has broken the world's record in typing.
She's doing 200 words per minute, and that's really hiking.

BUD PAYNE in his Jet 88;
One slip too many, and he's at the Pearly Gate

Here comes Miss WILSON, the nurse, she thinks she is so wise,
But her poor patients are just dying like flies.

DONALD BISHOP, the former president of our class,
Took a course from Arthur Murray and now does the rumba, alas!

BECKY'S running her kindergarten and things look hazy,
With those fifty kids around, we fear she's going crazy.

Who's the famous Madame Curie of the day?
Why, ELAINE MARTIN, She's mixing phosphorus and alfalfa hay.

Now, by gosh, WILLARD BEAUCHAMP has perfected a new Ford;
Is the crystal ball wrong, or is the engine on the running board?

Now here comes BETTIE LOU, another graduate nurse,
She thinks she's feeling bad, but her patients are worse!

JOAN RUSSELL has finally solved the atomic theory,
We are glad, because she was growing quite weary.

CLASS PROPHECY, Con't.

PATSY HOWARD has developed the lotion for a new hair style;
One whisk of the comb and your hair falls out in single file.

Now JAKE BELL has finally reached the height
Where he overcomes any man man without a fight.

We see BARBARA has put to good use her course in education.
She's now "Heap Big Squaw" teaching little Indians on a reservation.

Here comes KAY driving a truck of her own;
Her husband went to sleep while driving, and fell on his dome.

As our crystal ball fades away,
We have one last thing we'd like to say.
Some day, when you are feeling mighty blue,
You'll find that this phophecy holds a message for you.
Read it through and as you remember the ole P. H. S. days,
You'll find that they were tops in many, many ways.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Junior — Senior Prom of '49

"On an Island With You" was the theme of the Junior-Senior Prom of '49. Our decorations were complete with the palm trees, tropical huts, and the bow of a ship, from which the orchestra played. Since this was the first formal we had given we felt quite proud when we finally got the last piece of crepe paper hung. Everybody enjoyed a wonderful evening of dancing and we quote "It was best ever."

Spring Concert

On June 1, 1950, a concert was presented in the P. H. S. Auditorium by the 7th, 9th and 11th grade Glee Clubs. It was under the direction of Mr. Herbert Behrens and consisted of songs that were learned during that school year. There was no graduation ceremony this year and this program ended the school year as the graduation usually does.

Sadie Hawkins Dance

If you had been in P. H. S. on November 10, 1950, around nine P.M. you would have met all the characters from Dog Patch—the occasion was the Sadie Hawkins Dance. All dressed in their Sunday best for the occasion were Patsy Howard and Irving Adkins as Daisy Mae and Lil' Abner; the ole girl herself—Sadie Hawkins, Barbara Townsend and Wolf Gal, Shirley McAllister. Everybody had a "rip-snorting" time!

Operetta

On Thursday December 21, 1950, the Glee Club or P. H. S. put on an operetta entitled, "A Christmas Story." It was a modern day version of Dickens' Christmas Carol. We all had a wonderful time rehearsing for it and in giving the actual performance. Much of the success of the operetta was due to our Directors, Mr. Pieffer and Mr. Starkey. Since this was the first operetta to be given at P. H. S. we felt we a rather good job.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

GIRL-SHY

The Senior Class of 1951 presented "Girl-Shy", a three act comedy, by Katharine Kavanaugh, on March 30th, 1950 at 8:15 in the Pocomoke High School Auditorium. The setting of the play was in the living-room in the bachelor apartment of Tom and Oke, in a college town. The time was graduation time.

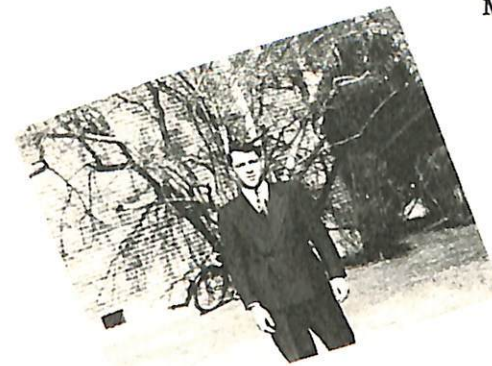

The cast included:

Tom Arsdale, who is Girl Shy.....	Leslie Payne
Oke Stimson, who isn't.....	Bob Howard
Caroline, Tom's aunt.....	Barbara Townsend
Anthony Arsdale, Tom's father.....	Bryan Denston
Sylvia Webster, Tom's pet aversion.....	Betsy Creath
Dean Marlow, Dean of the College.....	Mainster Bell
Peaches Carter, Oke's present weakness.....	Nancy Wilson
Asma, a colored "wash lady".....	Shirley McAllister
Birdie Laverne, a movie aspirant.....	Anne Mason
Barbara Sanford, herself.....	Joan Russell
Alfred Tennyson Murgatoyd, college poet.....	Bob Denston
Chuck Mayo, Birdie's late affinity.....	Willard Beauchamp

This play was directed by Mrs. William Hancock, Mrs. Catherine Cutright and Mr. Strayer Hancock. It was produced by special arrangement with the Dramatic Publishing Company of Chicago. Every member of the class helped to make this play a huge success.

May Queen-Joan Russell

Maid of Honor-Joan Yaggi

MAY DAY

On May 16, 1950 at 2:00 P. M. in the Pocomoke High School Auditorium, the Seniors put on a May Day Program. Because of rain this program was postponed four days, having been originally scheduled for May 12. Joan Russell, the Queen, Donald Bishop, her escort, Joan Yaggi, her Maid of Honor and the attendants from each home room made up the procession. The Queen was crowned by Mr. Verlin C. Krabill, principal. Dances and a Tom Thumb Wedding were put on for the Queen's enjoyment by different classes in the Elementary School.

In the evening a Formal May Dance was given by the Juniors and Seniors. This was our big dance of the year. It was complete down to the last detail and everybody had a "terrific" time.

FAREWELL P.H.S.

We, the Seniors of 1951, after graduation, will leave behind us twelve years of study and friendship among our classmates. We will go out into the world on our own to make a place for ourselves in it. Some of us will eventually marry. These twelve years of school have prepared us to do these things.

Although we may be sad at ending our school days, our graduation should be a joyous, happy occasion because we now have the background and education of a full grown person

First, we wish to show our appreciation to our parents for bringing us into the world and opening the way for our education. Secondly, we wish to thank the faculty for its guidance and patience in offering us educational opportunities.

Lastly, we want to say "Goodby" to Dear Old P. H. S. and to tell it to "Keep Up the Good Work."
