

Class Of 1929 Has First Reunion

in 1959

The Snow Hill High School graduating Class of 1929 held its first reunion on August 1 at 7 p.m. in the Snow Hill Inn with 23 members present.

After a half hour of greetings, a turkey dinner was served. The tables were decorated with small baskets of sweet peas, the class flower, while the place favors carried out the motto "Life is a combat but we strive to conquer." The class colors, orchid and silver, was the color scheme of the decorations.

D. Hance Fooks was toastmaster, introducing each classmate, who in turn made a few brief remarks and introduced his or her spouse.

Three prizes were given, one for the person with the oldest child, the recipient being Mrs. Catherine Pusey Downs; one for traveling the longest distance, received by Carson F. Chandler of Steelton, Pa., and a door prize, received by Mrs. Grace Bradford Jefferson.

Leonard Timmons is ill and is in Perry Point Veterans' Hospital, and flowers were sent to him from the class. One class member is deceased, Mrs. Sue Jones Brown. Eight others were not present, who are as follows: Ruth Beauchamp Nock, Mary Harris Thomas, Wilson Hudson Wright, Virginia Riley Crocker, Grace Shockley Ellis, Esther Tatman, Lester Taylor and Ralph Watson.

There were three teachers present; Miss Grace Jones, Mrs. Ethel Shockley Gladding and Wilbur Jones.

In the photo are:

Top row, left to right — John Gordy, Lacy Taylor, Carson Chandler, James Moore, Mildred West Davis, Eleanor Johnson Stagg, George Brown, and R. Samuel Smack. Second row—James Gray, Paul Hales, Carrie Marshall Payne, Grace Bradford Jefferson, Iva Tull Rowley, Catherine Pusey Downs, Alberta Littleton Mackey, Catherine Dickerson Mackpherson and D. Hance Fooks. Seated — Bessie Nock Bowen, Lillian Pusey Lynch, Nellie Hearthway Gibbons, Wilma Jones Brimer, Lola Godfrey Williams and Louise Haddock McGuire.