POCOMOKE HIGH SCHOOL FROM THE AIR

FRANCIS E. BISHOP

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1947, do hereby dedicate this yearbook to the fond memory of our beloved classmate, Francis E. Bishop, who passed from this life on August 8, 1946. Though we are parted from him the many pleasant memories of such a wonderful person are still deep in the hearts of each of us and shall continue to be with us for many years to come.

It was a great joy, to have such a kind and understanding personality among us, as was true of Francis. Wherever he went, there was sure to go with him sunshine and happiness.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1947

The Senior Class of Pocomoke High School, being of sound mind and body, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament. On this 18th day of March, 1947, in the year of our Lord, we bequeath the following:

Joyce Headley wills to Maude Howard her ability to let other people's romance be, provided someone doesn't break up hers, if she gets one.

Gerry Wilkerson wills to Wanda Redden her small figure, providing she doesn't gain any weight????

Leon Weidema wills to Robert Long his blonde curly hair, providing he doesn't let it get straight like his.

Lennie Donaway wills to Bill Matthews 169 3/4 lbs. out of his 170 lbs., providing he doesn't lose any of it.

Elizabeth Payne wills to Bunie Hill, her ability to drive a car, provided she doesn't take down the trees, telephone poles, and curbs, like she does.

Irene Scott wills to Norma Redden her ability to flirt in a cute way!!!

Milton Brimer wills locker number 49 to Jimmy Lee Ennis, provided it is locked.

Harry Holland wills his big feet to Willis Hall, provided he keeps them out of everybody's way.

Jackie Allen wills Barbara Solum her freckles and laugh, provided she gets as much fun out of it as she did.

Elizabeth Henderson wills Mary Jane Howard her pretty green eyes, providing she only looks at Carroll with them???

Reggie Hancock wills his height to John Ham in hopes that he will become a star basketball player next year.

Walter Donaway wills his red mustach to Tom Belfi, providing he tickles only Elizabeth Henderson.

Selma Diamond wills to Beverly Bean her ability to go with one boy for more than two weeks at a time.

Lenora Hall wills to Eileen Andrews her ability to take a ten-minute time test without throwing the typewriter on the floor.

Vernon Metz wills his ability to get good marks in Bookkeeping to Jerry Payne, so he can play on the basketball team next year without any trouble from Bookkeeping.

Jack Payne wills his ability to do Algebra to Pat Morse, so he can stay on the basketball team next year.

Frances Taylor wills her smallness to Nellie Brombley providing she doesn't try to reduce!!!

Dorothy Outten wills her ability to Mildred Outten to work in a soda fountain.

Royce Beauchamp wills his ability to do Physics to Frank Beauchamp, providing he uses it!

Lawrence Wise wills his glasses to Beverly Bean, so she can take another look at Clint!!!

Carroll Vincent wills his ability to fly airplanes to Coston Gladding, so he won't have to play with models anymore.

Edward Booth wills his different moods to Betty June James, providing she puts them to good use.

Lou Ella McGee wills her giggles and laughs to Donald Creath, providing he gets as much fun out of it as she has!

Roscoe Bishop wills to Winston Henderson his abilities and techniques——!

Robert Baker wills his Ford to anyone, providing he goes to Princess Anne more than three times a week???

Betty Wooster wills to Connie Venable her basketball ability and hopes she makes as good use of it as she did.

Orville Outten wills all his pennies to Strayer Ball???

Nicky Matthews wills to Adron Mason his dignified mocassins, providing he shines them before each dance.

Harry Nutter wills his slimness to Frank Beauchamp, providing he don't get fat until he is 21???

Peggy Crockett wills to Maude Howard her quietness, provided she uses it once in a while!

Ruthe Somers wills to Vi Bacall her auburn hair, provided she washes it every week and doesn't peroxide it???

Nadine Farlowe wills to Betty Butler a reserved seat in the Fox Theater with empty seats all around her???

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Lounging on the terrace of my villa on the French Riviera, what should I find in my mail but a copy of the latest "Worcester Democrat," March 7, 1957. Upon reading it I see many familiar names. Most of which were in my graduating class at Pocomoke, Maryland.

The headlines read: "Mr. Lennie Lester Donaway, former resident of Pocomoke, will run for president of the United States in the next election."

There was a very bad fire at home last week. Mr. Walter Donaway, the local hero, saved several people from the fire.

Mr. Leon Weidema and his orchestra will play at the "Stork Club" this week. His vocal-ist will be Miss Frances Matthews.

Miss Jacqueline Allen and Mr. Carroll Vincent have just opened a new flying school in Saxis, Virginia.

On the sports page we see that Mr. Jack Payne, coach at Notre Dame, and his football team have won all honors in the country. All this is due to his star, Edward Booth.

On another page we see that Miss Irene Scott and Miss Dorothy Outten have just purchased Dobbs, Fifth Ave., the hat center of New York. Their leading models will be the Misses Ruthe Somers and Frances Taylor. But they have stiff competition because many women in the country are now wearing the famous "Bowe" turbans, designed by Mrs. Margaret Bowe Ford. We also see that Miss Elizabeth Payne, now known as "Lady Macbeth" because of her wonderful acting in the Shakespearean play, Macbeth, is now playing at the Marva Theater, which is owned and run by Mr. Vernon Metz.

Lieutenant Roscoe Bishop and Lieut. Reginald Hancock, of the Maryland State Troopers, have almost recovered from injuries from a gun battle with the dreaded Conaway villian. (This gangster was formally known as Ronald Conaway.) Miss Geraldine Wilkerson, one of Pocomoke's leading telephone operators, has married Mr. Numpleez, a Baltimore millionaire.

Mr. Malcolm Matthews, French and Spanish interpreter in the New Orleans First National Bank, has just bought a large cotton plantation in southern Alabama. Sho' 'nuff!

Mr. Harry Nutter has just received a high award for his latest book "As I Live and Breathe."

Miss Peggy Crockett, well known Hollywood actress, has finally got a divorce from the fifth husband and is spending a month in Miami.

Captain Robert Baker has been promoted to a Commodore in the U. S. Navy.

Miss Selma Diamond, head nurse at the Memorial General Hospital at Baltimore, has discovered a modern cure for ingrown toenails.

Professor Orville Outten and Prof. Harry Holland, both of Beaverdam University, are vacationing in Rio de Janeiro.

The new Super Market has gone over with a big success. It is managed by Miss Sue Jones and her secretary, Miss Nadine Farlowe. The well flourishing city of Stockton is pleased to have such business.

Mr. John Lee Taylor has made a contract with John Hopkins' Hospital for raising experimental guinea pigs. Mr. John Payne, having a ten year contract is raising white rats.

Miss Joyce Headley, a patient at Cambridge Institute for the "Mentally Unbalanced" is slowly recovering from her "ailment."

Mr. Lawrence Wise, modern civil engineer, has introduced his plans to the United Nations for a bridge extending across the ocean from Libson, Portugal, to New York. This will cost billions of dollars, but Mr. Wise thinks it would be well worth the money.

Miss Elizabeth Henderson, now working in Wilmington, has finally hooked a man. She is not yet announcing his name. (She hasn't found it out yet.)

Dr. Roger Aydelotte has just opened his dentist's office in Norfolk. He has a young and beautiful assistant nurse, also a graduate of P. H. S. She is none other than Miss Lou Ella McGee.

Mr. Milton Brimer, having bought out the Worcester Democrat, will begin his new work in two months. His chief reporter will be Mr. Norman Byrd.

Prof. Lenora Hall, of University of Maryland will be guest speaker at Pocomoke High School next Friday evening. Her talk will be on the subject "Speech in Everyday Life."

Mr. Royce Beauchamp, news reporter on Station WPDQ in Pocomoke has received the award of the best news reporter of the year. Mr. Beauchamp is leaving for London next week to make a report to the American people on the English prime minister.

Miss Betty Anne Mason now has the title of the best paid washwoman in the State.

Miss Betty Wooster, now a sister in the Mercy Hospital in Baltimore, is spending three months in Pocomoke with her parents.

Before I finished the paper, I sank deep in a sleep in which I dreamed of the times at good old P. H. S. The days of which I shall cherish all my life.
