Worcester County Messenger - April 18, 1984

Officers of the Worcester County Bicentennial Commission recently presented a check for $413 to the U.S. 13 Information Center fund, representing the cash balance which the commission had when it disbanded in 1978. Participating in the presentation were: [left to right] Jack Killmon, chairman of the fund drive; Mayor J. Dawson Clarke, Robert H. Robertson Jr., and Mrs. Mildred Brittingham, chairman and treasurer of the Bicentennial Commission respectively. The commission operated a visitors center on U.S. 13 from 1976 to 1978.
