Dedicated To

MISS GRACE H. JONES

To you, Miss Jones, we dedicate our yearbook, The Eagle's Eye. Your faith in our work, your sincere interest and fine guidance have helped us build ideals which we will keep for the rest of our lives. Your friendliness, cheerfulness, and perseverance have inspired us to put our "Best Foot Forward."

We, the Class of 1949, shall try to be worthy of your work.

Class History

"Best Foot Forward"

A four-act "play" produced by the Class of 1949

ACT I

Time—May, 1946

Setting—S.H.H.S. Auditorium

- Vivian: This has really been an exciting year. So many things have happened!
- Ronnie: Gosh! Think how we struggled to win that scrap paper drive! And we'll never forget the fun we had putting on "The Ghostly Passenger." Our new classmates from Stockton, Girdletree, and Newark really helped us in those things.
- Vivian: How about our freshman picnic? We had to have it in the auditorium because it rained.
- Ronnie: Our home room had ours at Melbourne's Landing. What an adventure for us!
- Vivian: The entire year has been one big adventure. Didn't we feel important having such subjects as art, home ec., shop, and French? It was great being members of the Student Council and Safety Patrol and participating in the Declamation Contest.
- Ronnie: Won't it be fun next year as sophs, to see somebody else as green as we were last fall?

ACT II

Time—May, 1947

Setting—S.H.H.S. Library

- Ronnie: Jeepers! Our sophomore year has really whizzed by.
- Vivian: This has been a great year. Your room won the magazine campaign with ours a close second, but we won the Athletic Association membership drive.
- Ronnie: We all cooperated wonderfully in putting on "The Pampered Darling."
- Vivian: Our going to Washington on the Safety Patrol trip was such fun!
- Ronnie: Golly! What a year! I can hardly wait until we are juniors. Just think! We'll be giving a prom for the seniors!

ACT III

Time—May, 1948

Setting—S.H.H.S. Cafeteria

- Vivian: I suppose you've noticed that some of our new rings have changed hands already.
- Ronnie: Yeah! I've just been thinking; our class has always tried to be first in things. Even though the lab was hard to decorate, we won the prize for having the most original Christmas decorations.
- Vivian: Our room got a prize too!
- Ronnie: We almost won the play contest. "Sweet Sixteen" was good!
- Vivian: But "the event" of the year was the Prom!
- Ronnie: Hey! Don't forget the fact that we won the Class D Eastern Shore Baseball championship.
- Vivian: I'll never forget that last game at Easton!
- Ronnie: Say! There's Mr. Jones—I'd better see him. He hasn't signed my subject slip for next year, our senior year!

ACT IV

Time—May, 1949

Setting—S.H.H.S. Home Ec. Rooms

- Vivian: Tonight I am more thrilled than when we put on our Senior Class Play, "Best Foot Forward."
- Ronnie: It makes me remember the nights that were spent laboring over the "Eagle's Eye" and the "Broadcast." Every moment has been fun though.
- Vivian: We senior girls were so disappointed when the senior boys won the ice cream party for having the most original Christmas decorations.
- Ronnie: I didn't know there were so many nice-looking girls in the class until we had the Senior Prom.
- Vivian: There's the signal for the procession. It hardly seems possible that we are really about to be graduated. Ah! Wonderful, glorious night!

Class Will

The last will and testament of the Class of 1949 of Snow Hill High School, of the city of Snow Hill, County of Worcester, State of Maryland, made and published this sixth day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and forty-nine.

We, the Class of 1949, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make and declare this, our last will and testament, in the manner following:

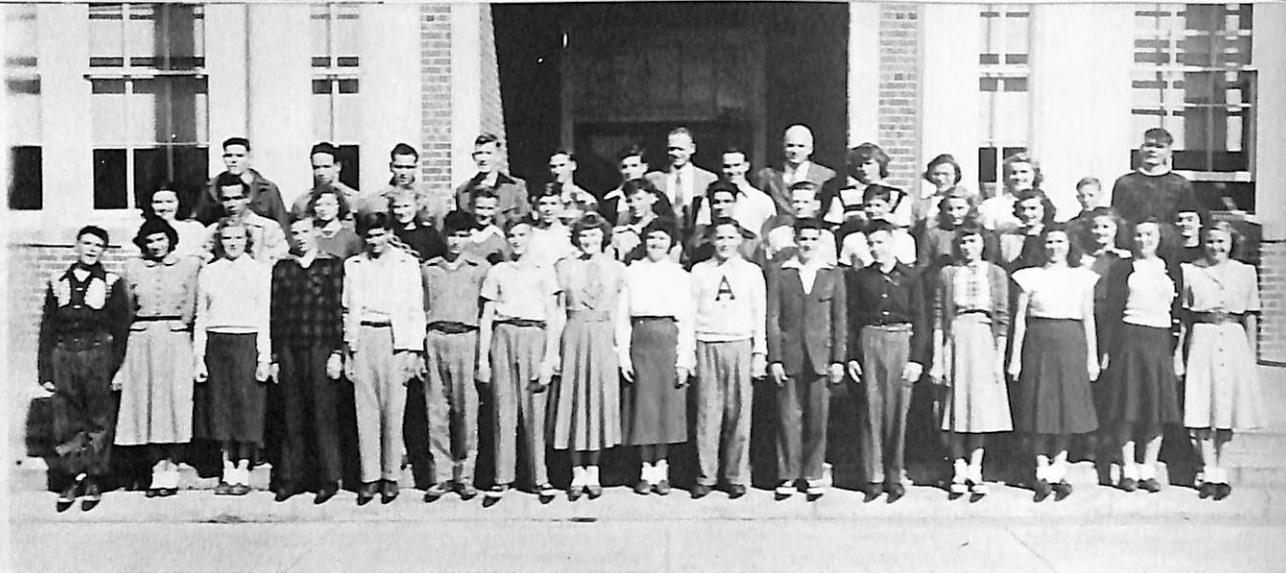

- Item:
- To Mr. Jones—all our unsolved geometry problems.
 - To Miss Mabel Jones—a secretary to keep all her stuff straight.
 - To Miss Grace Jones—a wheelbarrow to carry her paraphernalia.
 - To Mr. Engle—go all our dissected mice.
 - To Mrs. Lankford—all of our excuses for skipping school.
 - To Mr. Beauchamp—all of our pledged papers.
 - To Mr. Timmons—our financial record books for the Junior Prom—may he never have to fix any more.
 - To Miss Tull—a commuter's plane ticket to Norfolk, Virginia.
 - To Miss Shockley—a loud speaker to assist her in keeping the lunch line straight.
 - To Miss Hancock—goes a governor for her fast walk.
 - To Mr. Adkins—some new fishing tackle.
 - To Mr. Knapp—goes the basketball court; may it be kept in good condition.
 - To Mr. Peshkin—goes a spare set of tools to lend to the teachers.
 - To Mr. LeCato—go Jack Dill and Harry Bowen as official guides for F.F.A. trips.
 - To Mrs. Vincent—go all our sour notes.

To all our underclassmen—our superiority complex.

Item:

- To Rosalie Shockley, Donny Evans gives his love.
- To Gerry Thune go Elinor Adkins' scissors with the hope that he'll use them on his hair.
- To Rose Taylor, Susan Tarr leaves her giggles and her liking for Pocomoke boys.
- To Betty Lambertson go Peg Peacock's slender hips.
- To Bill Price goes George Wilson's ability to get along with Mr. Engle.
- To Sam Davis goes Harry Bowen's position as "Mayor of Newark."
- To Dick Fleming goes Tommy Dryden's ability to learn a foreign language.
- To Kenneth Parks, Jack Dill gives his horse laugh.
- To Bill Lewis, Homer Pruitt leaves his height.
- To Millie Warren goes Barbara Larson's bottle of "33".
- To Pete Burbage go Kenneth Cropper's muscles.

- To Neale Brittingham goes Dick McDaniel's ability to behave in Glee Club.
- To Buzz Bromley goes Ronnie Jones's office as president of the Athletic Association.
- To Patsy Morse goes Vay Jones's ability to ride a horse.
- To Alta Perdue goes Laura Mae Stagg's terrific appetite.
- To Chum Cherrix goes Peggy Brimer's love for the Cherrixes.
- To Charles Taylor goes Roland Bounds' sunny disposition.
- To Merrill Trader goes the combination of John and James Adkins' height.
- To Vernon Jones goes Paige West's role as "Casanova".
- To Joan Truitt goes Victor Smullen's white sweater.
- To George Jones go Jimmy Justice's good looks.
- To Paul Gordy go Sidney Jones's and Herbert Groff's cars.
- To Billy Jones goes Minnie Riggin's quiet manner.
- To Alvin West goes Stella Parsons' ability to swing and sway.
- To Earl Barbely goes Bill Goodman's athletic ability.
- To Harvey Frost goes Hance Pepper's ability to get around.
- To Alta Stevenson go Charles Adams' shoes.
- To Mary Stagg, Shelley Marriner leaves Stockton in hopes that she'll be a permanent resident.
- To Quincy Blevins, Johnny Bowen leaves a new pair of pants and hopes he'll keep these.
- To Becky Ward, Eileen Bolen leaves her wit with hopes she'll be heard in the coming years.
- To Jane Hearthway goes Vivian Bowen's love for the milk truck.
- To Richard Gordy goes Daisy Hill's love.
- To Shirley Hales, Caroleigh Mason leaves her ability to keep a man.
- To Margaret Ann Northam, Carroll Serman leaves the graveyard.
- To William Long, go Arlene Lynch's weather-proof curls.
- To Sonny Larson goes Jimmy Burbage's double trouble.
- To Nancy Macpherson, Phyllis Barnes leaves her ability to get out of class.
- To Vernon Lyons, Bob West leaves his wolfing license.
- To Winifred Larson go Patsy Foulks' and Janice Abbott's bookkeeping sets.
- To Bobby Jones go Aline Adkins' glasses, so that he might see his way around the Class of 1951.
- To Betty Payne go Charlotte Burbage's and Aneta Spicer's boys in Berlin.
- To Franklin Shockley, Becky Hudson leaves her love for Indiantown.
- To all commercial students, Lola Marie Shockley leaves her ability to get along well with Mr. Beauchamp.
- To Maurice Peacock goes Betty Spry's wide-awake manner.
- To Doris Mae Trader goes Billy Bowen's quiet manner.
