ALMA MATER

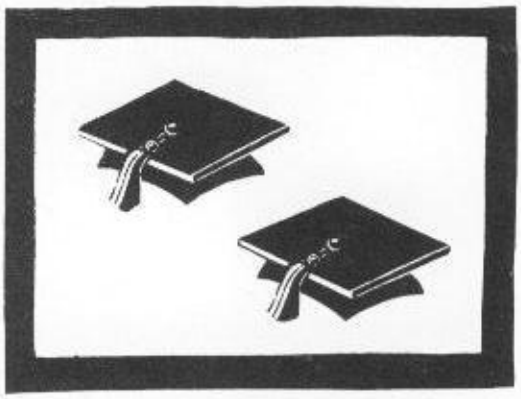

Hail to thee, our P.H.S.
Hail to blue and gold.
All of those who bear thy crest
Strive their lives to mold.
chorus:
Shout your victories loud and mighty,
Sing your praises long!
In your walls we're ever trusting,
Always sure and strong.

Hail to thee our Alma Mater,
Hail to glorious days!
May our hearts forever echo,
This our song of praise.

DEDICATION

In grateful acknowledgement, we the class of '63, dedicate this edition of the PAPOOSE to MR. STANLEY EDWIN DENNIS for his sincere friendship to every senior and his untiring devotion to education. More than grades, he gives encouragement and aid and he shows tolerance and understanding. With his enthusiasm for teaching, we hope that he will continue teaching so other students shall be able to benefit from his work as we have.

FACULTY

Principal Mr. Leon Timmons
Vice Principal Mr. Verlin Krabill

ADMINISTRATION

In the opinion of most students, our faculty, as friends or teachers, can't be beat. They hold meetings, teach classes, make announcements, "pep up" pep sessions, frown upon "bad" boys and girls, and some even cry at graduation! There is always much to do, but they don't mind helping people with individual problems. Seniors can verify this when college time "rolls" around.

AND FACULTY

Mrs. Lankford always will be fondly remembered by seniors of Pocomoke High School as a person whose warmth, understanding, and faithful guidance is surpassed only by her devotion to helping others.

Guidance Counselor
Mrs. Gladys Lankford

STANDING -- Left to right -- Mr. Floyd Bassett, B.S.; Mr. W. Blaine Losh; Mr. Jack H. Dolby, B.S.; Mr. William T. Dorman, B.S.; Mr. Gary Gray, M.A.; Mr. Stanley Dennis, B.A. SEATED -- Mrs. Marian Severance, B.S.; Mrs. Pauline Robertson, A.B.; Mrs. Mary Wescott, B.S. Absent Mr. Charles W. Bragg, B.S.

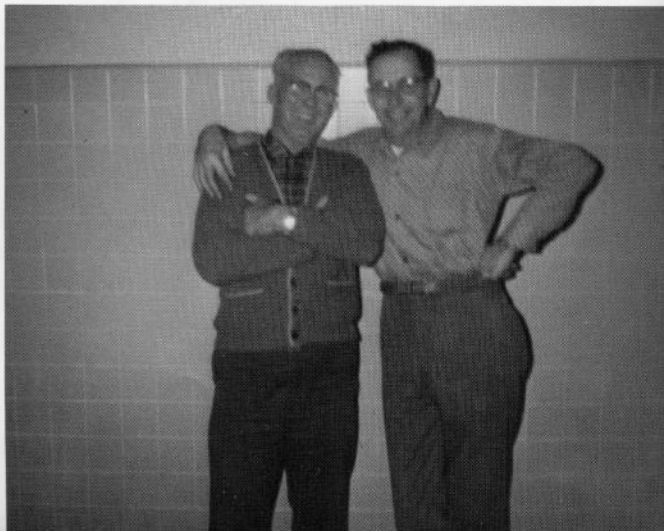

Mrs. Beauchamp -- Office Secretary -- Her laugh and smile are as indispensable as her efficient office work.

Cafeteria Personnel -- They face each day with a cheerful smile and a new menu.

Left to right -- Mrs. Bundick, Mrs. East, Mrs. Detwiler, Mrs. Brimer, and Mrs. Hall.

Mr. Insley and Mr. Beauchamp
Custodians
Their business is picking up.

SENIORS.

LAST WILL AND

We, the Class of 1963, of Pocomoke High School, being of reasonably sound mind and body, do hereby make and publish this our last will and testament.

To the Principal, Mr. Timmons, and Faculty, we bequeath the pleasure of being rid of us, restful nights and peaceful days, affection, gratitude, and many overdue "Thank you's."

To the Freshmen, we bequeath the indescribable joy of giggling at nothing and the pleasures and pangs of puppy love.

To the Sophomores, we bequeath a bottle of smelling salts to help them recover from the shock of discovering that they don't know as much as they think they do.

To the Juniors go our individual bequests:

I, Tommy Stark, will Jimmy Willing my ability to drive a '55 Chevy, provided it is in better shape than mine, and is stocked with all the necessities.
I, Sandra Brock, will Freddie Dryden a pair of pointed toe shoes so he can kick his way through high school.
I, Valerie Corizzo, will Sharon Adams my ability to get along with Karen Sue.
I, Frances Selby, will Johnny Fisher my best wishes and good luck in the future.
I, Patsy Gray, will Barbara Helton my ability to do that popular dance, the 'Pony'.
I, Nancy Campbell, will Elaine Gray and Ronnie Williams my ability to work.
I, Joyce Petitt, will Eddie Watson my ability to get out of class without really trying.
I, Connie Powell, will Snow See my ability to get along with Mrs. Severance.
I, Barney Lipham, will Ham Linton and Clarke East my throwing arms.
I, Kent Brenner, will George Bunting and Robert Doughty my shifting arm.
I, David Nelson, will Pat Hancock a goose so she can be a real life "Mother Goose."
I, Charles Shelton, will Donnie Shay the school supplies I bought in the first grade.
I, Carole Peacock, will Barbara Palmer my ability to control my temper during hockey games.
I, Barry Spinak, will Robert Miller one unused church key and a six pack.
I, Robert Coulbourne, will Bill Dryden my baseball spikes so he can play baseball in a standing position.
I, Robert Frostrom, will Butch Hoffman my ability to think quickly, coolly, and soundly while taking any turn on two wheels or less.
I, Richard Small, will Jim Northam a solemn word of prayer while he is at the wheel of a car.
I, JoEllen Carter, will Trudy Cutshall one fruit cake and a supply of excuses.
I, Melvyn Wahlberg, will Steve Jenkins the entire physics lab, provided he does not use it to start World War III.
I, Rochelle Boole, will Jimmy Covington my even temper and $4.50 for BETter or worse.
I, Rose Ellen Nock, will Elaine Tarr a few pounds in order that she will not blow out of Billy's convertible.
I, Barry Tull, will John Bloxom all roads to Goodwill but one.
I, Donald Bennett, will Avalon Hall my ability to ask intelligent questions.
I, Tommy Wilkins, will Anna Sue Lankford one steel cabinet, seven chairs, one yearbook kit, and a stuffy yearbook room.
I, Madeline Scott, will Linda Neighbors the strength to get through her senior year.

TESTAMENT

I, Martha Byrd, will Kay Hall my ability to do shorthand in all classes in which she can get away with it and still get good grades.

I, Bonnie Holland, will Gail Holland my position of keeper of our brother's car, provided she uses it only for underhanded reasons.

I, Diane Outten, will Lois Wooters and Ray Redden my ability to cut up in class without being caught.

I, Don Pruitt, will Ray Lambertson my position as smallest senior boy.

I, Becky Taylor, will Vera Disharoon my glasses so she can see what she is doing.

I, Yvonne Milliner, will June Ward my ability to be satisfied with one boy and to be able to wait for him.

I, Donna Marriner, will Mike Merrill my ability to get along with his brother as well as I do . . . well, almost!

I, Don Holdren, will Bob Novotny my naturally blond hair so he won't have to use any more H_2O_2.

I, Charles Trader, will Bob Haymen my ability to hug the road as well as the girl.

I, Donnie McCready, will Tom Northam my little black book (with instructions).

I, Ben Sturgis, will Becky Timmons my self-control which she will need in the yearbook room and in the band as first french horn player.

I, Kenny Tull, will Clay Pilchard my ability in math to miss nine out of ten problems, each by one cent. (1¢)

I, Bill Herz, will Wayne Powell my ability to be picked on by his father.

I, Mike Conaway, will Donnie Ardis my ability to be a pest in Mrs. Tatem's class.

I, Bonnie Seawell, will Virginia Marriner my quiet spirit and industrious nature.

I, Donna Wilkerson, will Sharon Matthews my ability to find a boy who can drive with one hand on the wheel, while both his eyes are on the woods, and can keep her quiet, all in order to spot a deer.

I, Pam Nock, will Lynn Cox my ability to find a boy, provided his name isn't Queenie.

I, Ross Kelly, will Wilson Knight my ability to make it through high school.

I, Bob Barnes, will George Bowman my ability to be able to work, hunt, and still have time for "bowling" and other such sports.

I, Tina Lundstedt, will Jackie Sue Webb my ability to trick my parents into thinking I devote an hour of study to each subject every night.

I, Mary Sue Luch, will Earl Hart the ability to leave school with pleasant memories.

I, Carol Brittingham, will Mary Linda Bailey my interest in history.

I, Diane Redden, will Rebecca Bishop good strong vocal cords to use at basketball, baseball, softball, hockey, and soccer games.

I, Merrillee Walters, will Ronnie Taylor my convertible so he will be able to ride around with the top down at all times even in inclement weather.

I, Joyce Merrill, will Janet Van Dyke and Mary Ann Small my secret corner in the back room of the Pharmacy, provided they know when to use it.

I, Nancy Campbell, will Betsy Judd my ability to leave school with a ring on the third finger of her left hand.

I, Martha Byrd, will Jimmy Collison and Hope Holland my ability to think only pleasant thoughts.

I, Yvonne Milliner, will Gail Chisum all my junior and senior accomplishments provided he can get away with them.

I, Merrillee Walters, will Wayne Lambertson one "Just Married" sign, in very good condition, and three faded streamers, for use in futute years.

CLASS SONG
"You'll Never Walk Alone"

When you walk through a storm, hold your head up high
And don't be afraid of the dark,
At the end of the storm is a golden sky
And the sweet silver song of a lark --
Walk on through the wind,
Walk on through the rain
Tho' your dreams be tossed and blown
Walk on, walk on, with hope in your heart
And you'll never walk alone

We give all of our hopes
And our efforts too
With love in our hearts for the past
At the end of this year is a challenge new
And our lives -- they are given a task
Give love to our hearts
And strength to our minds
And forever make us free
We all need keys to unlock our hearts
And our knowledge is the key.

CLASS MOTTO: "Knowledge is the key to success."

CLASS FLOWER: Yellow Rose

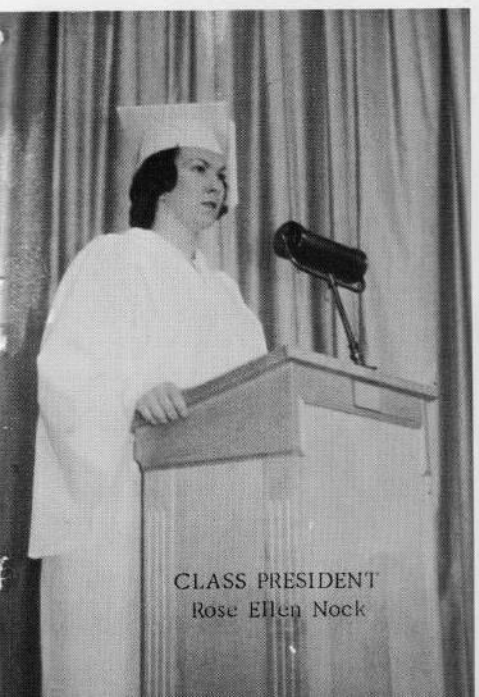

CLASS COLORS: Peacock blue and white
