

You will perceive by the Legislative news, that the houses adjourned on Saturday last one week, to meet at Benicia. The bill contemplates the latter place as the permanent Capital of the State, and was passed in the House by a small majority. The move is undoubtedly a good one, so far as the comfort of members is concerned; and it is to be presumed the people of the State will be better pleased by the question now being allowed to rest than by any patriotic move to further agitate the question.
