

a in this matter—their opposition to this measure we believe meets with the app' approval of their entire constituency, not b that they are in favor of or opposed to Benecia but that they are opposed to this waste of time and money, when the bills are to be footed by the people.
Well gentlemen; members of the Legislature; you have had your holiday, your drinking and dancing—now are you ready to go on and do what the people want and have a right to expect of you.
You can go from Benecia to the Blue Wing and from the Blue Wing to Benicia every week and not waste more than one day belonging to the people—you should have some recreation; your duties are arduous, immense, overwhelming, and you labor so diligently and faithfully that you should recreate at the “Blue Wing.” Benecia and the Blue Wing, to say the least there is euphony in those words, and we would recommend that there be established a new order the members of which shall be known as “Blue Wings.”
