

r	A Well Known Clergyman Departed.	&
e	Rev. James McElroy, D. D., who has	H
r-	been ill for a long time, died on Monday	&
.l.	last at the advanced age of 75 years, at	op
y	the residence of his son-in-law, Wm.	—
7-	Hale, Esq., near Berkeley. Dr. Mc-	M
d	Elroy was well known on this coast and	hat s	throughout the Episcopal Church as a	Als
e	useful, [patient, untiring worker. He	M e-	was one of those pure, unassuming men	ser
e	who only had to be known to be re-	—
r-	spected and loved. He was for a long	M n	time rector of the Church in Santa Clara	Bro
d	and there conducted a successful school.	sur e	He held several important positions,	Cou
e-	the last of which was that	Att
t	of Rector of St. James Church, San	son t	Francisco. He came to this State from	Hey	Ohio. He leaves four daughters to	T e	mourn his loss. Mrs. Hale, at whose	and k	house he died, Mrs. Kline, Mrs. Dr. La-	bon
r-	throp, of Eureka, and one unmarried.	hat
t	The funeral took place from St. Paul's	—
e-	Church, in this city, at two o'clock this	W
s-	afternoon, and was largely attended.	tee
s-	The service was conducted by Rev.	T
d	Hobart Chetwood, Rector of St. Paul's	GA s	Church, assisted by Dr. A. L. Brewer,	B
s	Rector of St. Matthews, San Mateo,	dial
s	and Rev. Mr. Webster, Rector of St.	— s	Peters, San Francisco. The pall-bearers
s	were Rev. Messrs Lion, Lines, Githens
s	and Spaulding, and Captain W. L. Mer-
s	ry, Wm. Sutton, K. Van Dyke and J.
s	Palache.

1880 06 23 Rev Dr James Mcelroy obit

Clipped By:
bobleSk
Jul 14, 2025