

Formerly President of the Shoe and Leather Association.

Mr. C. A. Grinnell, who died at Roxbury yesterday, was born in Providence, R. I., Dec. 4, 1816. He went to Baltimore, Md., in 1832, and was in the wholesale shoe business there until 1864, when he removed to Boston, where he was a manufacturer in that business in the firm of J. F. Dane, Grinnell & Co. until two years ago, when ill health caused his retirement from business. He was active in the establishment of the New England Shoe and Leather Association, and was its president from 1876 to 1879, and afterwards one of its directors. He was also for many years a director of the Bank of Redemption, Boston. C. E. Grinnell, the well-known lawyer of Boston, is his son.
