

1891 09 09 Phillips Brooks to S.C. Gray

233 Clarendon Street.
Boston.

Sep. 09. 1891

(start of page 1)

My dear Sir,

I thank you for your letter and shall be very glad indeed if you will give me the pleasure of seeing you when you are in Boston.

I dare not venture to promise anything with regard to admission to the Consecration service. The matter is not in my hands & I have much upon my mind the Parishioners of Trinity Church with whom I have lived and worked for the last twenty-two years. You will easily believe... (end of page 1) that I am anxious to exercise all the difference that I can for them. I know you will appreciate my partiality.

(start of page 2)

I am afraid that I shall be useless to any friends beyond my parish.

Believe me, my dear Sir,
Yours faithfully & truly
Phillips Brooks

S.C.Gray, Esq.

(on back of page 2)

Phillips Brooks D.D.
9 Sept 1891