

It will depend upon circumstances whether the Edward Everett stops at these places on her voyage. Probably, if fresh provisions are not needed, and all hands continue well, she will keep on her way rejoicing, till some time next April she deposits her company and crew at San Francisco.

1849_01_11_Edward_Everett_sails_from_Boston_w_150_man_mining_company_for_2_yr_6