

Platt's Hall, now being fitted up for a grocery store for S. P. Dobbins, was badly wrecked; loss $500.

The Reporter office was badly pied.

Walker's block is standing in parts, and I. Blum has moved into the Opera House, and will be ready for business in the morning. Their damage is $1,000.

S. S. Hewitt's jewelry store is only slightly damaged.

J. M. Miller, druggist, damaged $1,000.

Bennett building a total wreck; loss on building, $5,000. Saloon in the first story a total wreck, with the contents of the saloon badly wrecked; loss $2,000.

Odd Fellows' Hall, erected after the fire of 1890 at a cost of $12,000, is a total loss.

The grocery store of Reams & Thomas is a total loss.

F. C. Chapman's loss $500

Rambo Bros., notions, loss $300; Dr. Stitt, loss $250; J. C. Wassen, dentist, loss $300; Raleigh Barcar, partial loss on furniture of his sleeping apartment; Parker & Nibecker, millinery, loss $250; Bank of Vacaville, loss $500, to building; F. H. Hacke, loss of building, $500, and same on stock.

Masonic Hall, owned by Vacaville Masonic Lodge, valued at $8,000, total loss.

H. H. Chittenden will lose on stock $5,000.

Dooley's Exchange Hotel slightly damaged, and had narrow escape destruction by fire.

Dr. Dobbins' loss on building, $12,000

Gates' loss on building, $5,000.

W. G. Davis, residence, loss on building $25,000

W. S. Butcher, loss on building, $3,500.

Fred Hutton, residence, $1,500.

John Thissell, Pleasant Valley, building destroyed by fire, loss $3,500.

Country residence of Mrs. G. M. Blake, loss $10,000.

Many residences were damaged from $250 to $500 by the destruction