

IN PLEASANT VALLEY.

News of the disaster comes from all directions in this section. In Pleasant Valley, between Vacaville and Winters, the shock was terrific, and it is said not a chimney is standing in the entire valley. John Thisell, Jr., who lives in Pleasant Valley left a lamp burning when he retired. When the shock came the lamp was overturned, and the house, with all its contents, destroyed, the occupants barely escaping with their lives. The residence of Carl Gates, about three miles from Vacaville, was almost totally demolished. Rev. O. O. Felkner, of San Jose, was visiting there and was very severely injured by falling brick and timbers. He was frightfully injured about the head and face, having no less than a dozen wounds. Fred Hutton's brick residence was also destroyed, the occupants escaping, they cannot tell how.

IN DIXON.

The business blocks are nearly all brick, and every one of them is badly damaged and some of them hopelessly wrecked. The Odd Fellows' Hall is damaged to the extent of $500. The Baptist church is in ruins and the loss will reach $4000. The Hall Block is badly cracked; damage $400. The Ferguson Block is damaged to the extent of $500. McBride's drug store is damaged $800. The California drug store sustains a loss of $800. Dugan's dry goods store is a hopeless wreck, with a $3,000 loss. The Masonic Hall is completely wrecked and the damage is estimated at $10,000. Rochford's butcher shop roof caved in and completely wrecked the store, causing a loss of $500. The Brinkerhoff & King block is damaged $500; the Opera House Block, $500; Bank of Dixon, $250; Eppinger & Co.'s building, $1000; Rehmke's saloon is ruins and damaged $1000; the Einstein building, $1,200; Dr. Upham's building, $1,000. The High School building moved from its foundation and otherwise damaged to the extent of $1,000. The Primary School building roof caved in. The City Hotel is damaged to the extent of $500, and the Arcade Hotel is damaged $1,000.

Many of the finest residences in town are wrecked, and not more than five chimneys
