Vallejo Woman Greetes General Pershing, Old Schoolmate Back In Missouri Many Years Ago

When General Pershing stepped from his special car at the Benicia depot this morning he was greeted by a schoolmate of many years ago, Mrs. Mary Childers, 300 Florida street, this city. Holding in one hand a picture of the "little schoolhouse" in Missouri and greeting the distinguished general with the other, she approached America's greatest military figure. Sure she received a welcome greeting.

General Pershing said, "Why certainly, I recognize you." General Pershing conversed with his old schoolmate before the inspection and after that and during the reception, Mrs. Childers and the A. E. F. leader went back to the "little schoolhouse"—the happiest days of their lives.
