

Dead.—Mr. Edward Peabody Powers, who accidentally shot himself Saturday morning, an account of which we have published, died Sunday night, at the residence of his father, C. A. Peabody, in Russell county. He had not reached the age of twenty-one years. His inherited name was changed by the Alabama Legislature some time ago to that of a near and favorite friend and relative. His sad death, so sudden and lamentable, is universally regretted.—Sun of yesterday.

1868 12 02 Edward Peabody Powers death

Clipped By:
boblesk
Jul 31, 2025