

my way clear to do so, until Mr. W. himself by his reprehensible course in the summer of 1861, showed himself an enemy to his Country, in its dire extremity, and I felt myself forced to discountenance him, and not only, but many of the Society who had long supported and adhered to him. So far as I am concerned the result is before you, and