

in order to make one out, you or my successor can refer to the report of last year, which is either in the little church box under my desk, or is somewhere in my desk among the miscellaneous papers...

When
the time comes to collect pew rents again which will be the last week in June you or my successor as Treasurer will find it very convenient to have printed blanks on which to write receipts.

I used up the last there were in writing the receipts for last quarter, and it would be advisable to get some more printed.

I see by the papers that there is a great influx of goods into San F. and I doubt not the market will be glutted in many respects, and that certain kinds of goods will be sold very low. It is a very favorable time for our neighbors R.C. to make a strike to secure a good run of custom, and
