
Red Men Pictures Attract Attention

Two handsome enlarged photographs, one of the champion degree team of Samoset Tribe of Red Men, and the other of the well known team from Ioka Council, D. of P., are on exhibition at Keithley's Art Store, and are attracting considerable attention.

The photographic work was executed by the well known local expert in that line of work, Charles McMillan, and the gorgeous embellishments, consisting of Indian designs and characters in numerous colors, was the handiwork of Steve Martinez.
