Death of a Broker.

Lafayette F. Loveland, one of the oldest members of the San Francisco Stock Exchange, died at the German Hospital on Wednesday last. The deceased was 63 years of age, and had been in delicate health for the past three years. He leaves four children—two daughters and two sons—all grown. The funeral, which will be strictly private, will take place to-day from the family residence, No. 2443 Larkin street. The Stock Board, as a mark of respect, will hold no session to-day.
