

THE SIXTH INFANTRY.—The sixth regiment of infantry which lately marched across the continent, and is now in barracks at Benicia, is to be divided up among the various posts in this division, of which its Colonel is at present the General in command. Company F, Bvt., Maj. Armistead, Lieuts. Bootes and Lee; Company H, Capt. Hendrickson and Lieut. B. F. Smith, will be stationed at the Presidio, near this city, where the regimental headquarters are to be established, and where Lieut. Col. Andrews, Lieut. Corley, Adjutant; Lieut. Sawtelle. Regimental Quartermaster; the Regimental staff and band are to go. Co. B, Capt. Lovell, and Lieuts. Higgins & Hardecastle, go to Humboldt Bay. The residue of the regiment, with Bvt. Lieut. Col. Hoffman, senior Major in command, are to be stationed at the various posts in the Southern portion of the State. They are as follows: Company G, Capt. Ketchum and Lieut. Moore; Company A, Capt. Flint and Lieut. Harrison, Company C, Capt. Footé and Lieut. McCleavy; Company D; Bvt. Major Johnson, Lieuts. Carlin and Dillon; Company K, Capt. Garnett and Lieut. McLemore.—S. R. Call.

1858 12 05 6th Infantry at Benicia

Clipped By:
boblesk
Mar 28, 2025