THE SYSTEMATICS OF THE NORTH AMERICAN FAMILY BAENIDAE (REPTILIA, CRYPTODIRA)

EUGENE S. GAFFNEY

BULLETIN OF THE
AMERICAN MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY
VOLUME 147 : ARTICLE 5 NEW YORK : 1972

FIG. 13. Plesiobaena antiqua (Lambe), new genus. Carapace of UMMP V20490, shell and skull from the late Cretaceous Hell Creek Formation of Montana. Scale equals 5 cm.

skull wider than P. antiqua, with more expanded triturating surfaces; lower jaws without symphyseal "hook"; high coronoid process; skull roof over CRISTA SUPRAOCCIPITALIS ending in characteristic semicircular projection.

HYPODIGM: PU 17108, complete lower jaws; 20741, posterior part of parietals. Locality: Quarry, sect. 36, T. 57 N., R. 99 W., Park