

Irma May Sapp

On September 24, 1992, Irma May Sapp went home to be with her Savior, Jesus Christ.

She was born in Oklahoma, August 5, 1913, and lived in San Dimas for sixty-five years.

Irma attended Bonita High School and graduated from Citrus in 1932.

She and Lawrence Sapp were married at the First Baptist Church of San Dimas on November 4, 1933.

Irma worked in the snack shop at the old Bonita High School. She also worked many years at the Lemon Packing House.

Irma was a member of First Baptist Church of San Dimas. She was active in the Dorcas Missionary Society. She taught a Junior Sunday School class for twenty-three years. She led many young people into the knowledge of Jesus Christ as personal Savior. She often took her class to Huntington Beach, where she and Lawrence had a travel trailer.

Irma May Sapp is survived by her son, Larry Sapp of Paradise; her daughter, Janice Smith of Santa Maria; three sisters: Katherine Loage of Grants Pass, Oregon, Marie Master of Glendora and Zola Archer of Crook, Colorado; and six grandchildren.

Our sympathies are extended to these dear ones during this time of loss.

Psalm 116:15

15 Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints.

John 14:1-6

1 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if [it were] not [so], I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, [there] ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

Philippians 1:20-24

20 According to my earnest expectation and [my] hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but [that] with all boldness, as always, [so] now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether [it be] by life, or by death.

21 For to me to live [is] Christ, and to die [is] gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this [is] the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.

23 For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:

AMAZING GRACE

John Newton; John P. Rees, stanza 5
Edwin O. Excell

A-maz-ing grace how sweet the sound--
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost but now am found,
Was blind but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears re-lieved;
How pre-cious did that grace ap-pear
The hour I first be-lieved.

The Lord has prom-ised good to me,
His word my hope se-cures;
He will my shield and por-tion be
As long as life en-dures.

Thru man-y dan-gers, toils and snares,
I have al-ready come;
'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.

When we've been there
ten thou-sand years,
Bright shin-ing as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we'd first be-gun.
