A Reading from Romans 8

What then are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us?... Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will hardship, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? ... No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through the One who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

A MYSTERY!

Elizabeth Moore, 2008
1 Corinthians 15:51-54
John 17:20-24

MARYTON, LM
H. Percy Smith, 1874

A Mys - tery, lo, a Mys - ter - y: How did the Christ-child come to be?
Where, now, is God's peace Je - sus taught? Why did God's Son die vi - o - lent - ly?
Such sense - less death. Then Christ was raised! The scat - tered few soon gath - ered, free
Now, death, a part of life In God, Has lost its sting! When we can see
Our hope, then, is as - sured in Christ. God's Love lasts through e - ter - ni - ty!

God's Love was birthed, lived here on earth. Yes, Mys tery. Ho - ly Mys - ter - y.
How did God make Good News of that? A Mys - tery, yes, a Mys - ter - y!
In Christ, and Christ in them: we'd see A Mys - tery, deep - er Mys - ter - y.
Christ raised by God's e - ter - nal Love, That's Mys - tery, bless - ed Mys - ter - y.
It calls us home and sets us free. How? Mys - tery. Deep, true Mys - ter - y!
