

IN LOVING MEMORY

MELBA DORIS BREEDING

Born November 26, 1916 San Dimas, California

Entered into her Lord's presence August 11, 1994

Place of Interment

Oakdale Memorial Park, Glendora, California
August 17, 1994, beside her husband Amos.

Officiating

John Streit a very dear friend of both.

Trio; "Precious Memories" Nelma Gary, Nancy Ferrand and Lois Staggs.

Congregational Hymn "Amazing Grace"

Melba Doris Silvas Breeding was born November 26, 1916, in San Dimas, California and had lived there all her life until the death of her husband Amos, when she moved to Placerville, Ca. to be near her only surviving son, Neil and his wife Karen.

Besides her son, Neil, Melba leaves a sister, Mary Ellen Stevenson of Marion, North Carolina. Two grandchildren, Dawn of Placerville and Scott and wife Carrie of Clear Field, Utah. A great-granddaughter, Cassie. Nieces and nephews and a host of friends.

Melba worked for the Bonita Unified School Food Services for 20 years. Prior to that she owned and operated a Beauty Shop in her own home.

Melba and Amos were married March 28, 1937 right after the morning service in the First Baptist Church of San Dimas, where they remained active for many years. Her mother, Georgia Silvas was the oldest member of the church prior to her death in 1988.

She attended the San Dimas Grammar School and graduated from Bonita High School in 1934.

Melba was preceded in death by her husband Amos, a son Kent, a sister Vivian and a brother Glenn.

Neil and his family wish to thank the Church Family for past expressions of love for his beloved parents. He asks that in lieu of flowers that donations be made to the Building Fund of the First Baptist Church of San Dimas.

compiled by Elsie Sapp and Opal Clarkson.