

2

There was great danger of stampeding the cattle, and this was done not only by the Indians, but by Mormons who often incited them to mischief. When Mr. Schuler came to Mud Springs in 1881, he grew barley, wheat and hay on his farm. Owned and operated harvesting machinery. Served as deputy sheriff.