

The South Whidbey Historical Society is offering all community members the opportunity to join the team as a donor. There are many ways to be a steward of local history, including your time and expertise.

Can you help with any of the following?

- Donor wall fabrication
- Reproduction woven cedar headband or hat donation
- Reproduction ceremonial necklace donation
- Docent/reception desk construction
- Building a deer hide frame
- Track lighting & wireless security camera installation
- Make a dump run
- Volunteer for the annual "Fluff and Buff the Museum" prior to opening
- Volunteer as a docent to greet visitors
- Make a monetary contribution
