

Column 1
Continued

Mrs. Ellis Young, cousin of the bride and sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was at the organ playing traditional wedding music. Mrs. Gordon Stanley sang, "Because," "I'll Walk Beside You," and "Oh Promise Me."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a ballerina length gown with a skirt of layers of nylon ruffled net over satin, with chantilly lace peplum. The bodice was strapless with a high collared bolero fastened with a row of tiny self material buttons, with three-quarter length flyaway sleeves. The gown was designed and made by Mrs. Allison Bishop. The bride's veil of nylon net was fastened to a head band of orange blossoms, forget-me-nots, and white ribbon bows with a border of tiny daisies around the edge of the veil. She wore a double strand pearl choker and earrings.

She carried a white prayer book with white roses and ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Renwick, classmate of the bride, was matron of honor. Her gown was pale green nylon net, strapless bodice with net stole, with gold necklace and gold earrings as accessories.

Miss Betty Whitten, cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. She wore pale yellow nylon net, which was strapless with a net stole, and a pearl necklace and earrings as accessories.

Clair Whitten, cousin of the bride, was best man, and Peter MacKenzie and William Renwick acted as ushers.

The bride's mother wore a dark blue crepe gown with a lace yoke and carried a corsage of red roses. The bridegroom's mother wore dark blue crepe trimmed with tiny buttons and carried a corsage of red roses.

RECEPTION

After the ceremony a reception was held in the church vestry. The wedding cake was made by Mrs. Rita Preble. It was served by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Leonice Whitten. Miss Beverly Blance and Mrs. Maynard Chipman presided at the punch bowl, and Miss Gail Jacobs had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Eva Parritt and Miss Barbara Gerish presided over the gift table.

The bride's gifts to her attendants and bridesmaid were scatter pins, and she presented earrings to the organist and matron of honor. The bridegroom gave gold tie pins to the best man and ushers.

After a brief honeymoon the couple will reside in Hartford, Conn., where the bridegroom will be employed by the Pratt and Whitney Aircraft Company.

The bride chose a baby blue traveling suit trimmed with angora, with a white angora hat and dark blue shoes and bag.

Column 2
Continued

The bride graduated from Summer High School in 1953, and the bridegroom was a graduate in the 1948 class of Winter Harbor High School. After graduation he served two years in the Army, where he completed a medical technician's course at Fort Sam Houston in Texas. Later he attended the Far East Chemical School in Japan. He was released from the Army in May, 1953, and has been employed at the Roscoe B. Jackson Memorial Laboratory since then.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Whitten of Winter Harbor, Miss Truth Leighton of Lincolnville, Mrs. Harry Wasgatt and Mrs. Don Anderson of Corea; Mrs. Carlton Joy, Mrs. Earle Gerrish, Mrs. Alberna Backman, Mrs. Ulrika Faulking-

NEW YEAR'S BRIDE—Mrs. Ralph Julian Young, above, the former LeNeta Elinor Rice of Winter Harbor, became a bride New Year's Day in a candlelight ceremony at the Baptist Church in Birch Harbor.

Miss LaNeta Rice Is New Year Bride At Birch Harbor

BIRCH HARBOR, Jan. 5—Miss LeNeta Elinor Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Rice of Birch Harbor, and Ralph Julian Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Young of West Gouldsboro, were married New Year's day in a candlelight ceremony at the Baptist church in Birch Harbor.

The Rev. Herman Gerrish of Winter Harbor officiated at the double ring ceremony, which was solemnized under an arch of evergreens, decorated with wedding bells with white ribbon bows. The altar was decorated with baskets of poms and a candelabra.

ham, Mrs. Sylvia Perry, Miss Flossie Hancock, Mrs. Della Gerish, and Mrs. Florence Lindsey of Winter Harbor.

Mr. and Mrs. John Preble and children, Orton, Ralph and Helen of Sullivan; Mrs. Kenneth Woodworth of South Gouldsboro, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Young, Mrs. Sybol Bunker, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Young and children, Dennis and Byron, Jr., Mrs. Alice Noyes and Mrs. Eleanor Tracy of West Gouldsboro, and Mr. and Mrs. Galen Stevens of Steuben.

Column 2

column 1