

Constitution.

Art 1st.

This organization shall be called

Art 2nd

The object of this organization is to raise money

Art. 3rd.

The elective officers of this society shall consist of a President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer and a committee of three who shall be elected every three months.

Art. 4th

The President shall preside at each meeting of the circle when present, to maintain order, and to enforce a due observation of the constitution. She shall also perform such other duties as the circle may require.