

DIARY, 1854

The image shows the front cover of an old, heavily worn diary. The cover is made of dark brown leather, which is cracked and discolored with age. A central label, possibly made of paper or a different type of leather, is affixed to the cover. The label is rectangular and has the words "DIARY, 1854" written on it in a serif font. The text is in a light color, possibly gold or white, and is framed by a thin border. The cover also features blind-stamped decorative elements, including a rectangular border and a central rectangular panel. The edges of the cover are frayed and show the underlying board material in some places.

BANGOR, July, 1872.

DEAR SIR:

Will you please read the accompanying "STATEMENT?" You will see that E. HALE, your Member of Congress, has defeated the balance of the Claims to Bounty Land, and all the Claims to Pensions of the Soldiers of the War of 1812, and of their Widows, between EASTPORT and CASTINE. He has been publicly charged with this for nearly a year. He does not publicly contradict the charge. After defeating your Claims, he asks you to re-elect him to CONGRESS! I think you will now defeat him! I do not care who is elected in his place, whether Democrat or Republican! Your Claims will be re-established! Circulate these Documents if you please, and write to me at BANGOR, for more.

Very Respectfully,

B. H. MACE.
