

United States Post Office

West Gouldsboro, ME 04687

Dear Postal Patron:

Effective at the close of business December 27, 1968 the West Gouldsboro post office is to be discontinued.

Commencing December 28, 1968 service will be available on Star Route 04660 from West Sullivan to Corea. The star route carrier will provide full postal services, such as stamp sales, money orders, etc., in addition to collection and delivery of mail daily except Sundays and Holidays.

Your mailing address will be Ash Grove, ME 04607.

Patrons desiring lock box service should contact the postmaster at the most convenient post office.

You should contact the postmaster at West Gouldsboro who will advise you concerning the erection of a rural type box.

Sincerely

J. H. Young
