

Montpelier Bands To Give Free Concert Tonight

The Montpelier Band and the Montpelier Boys band will give a concert tonight in the City Hall auditorium at 8 o'clock under the sponsorship of the recreation department. No admission will be charged.

The Boys band gave a concert at the Union School recently and were highly commended for their musical ability. Clifton Mix directs this group of youthful musicians and will announce the numbers tonight as they are given.

The program of the Montpelier Band program will consist of marches, medley overture consisting of such favorites as "Sailing Down Chesapeake Bay" and "Sunshine and Roses;" Valse classique; selections from the operetta "Iolanthe;" and jigs and "Turkey in the Straw."

The concert is a part of National Music Week and will be well worth attending.
