

MARRIED IN NEW YORK.

Miss Bessie Bowers Becomes Bride of Lieut. Norton.

The wedding of Lieut. Henry Lord Norton and Miss Bessie B. Bowers of this city, was solemnized at Calvary church, New York city, on Sunday, February 3.

Lieut. Norton who is a brother of Col. John G. Norton is a veteran of the great war, having served three years under the British, French and Belgian colors, receiving an honorable discharge and a service at-the-front decoration from the British government, when he resigned to re-enter the service and accept a commission under his own flag.

The bride is one of Montpelier's talented women, a graduate of Wellesley college, and for several years has been one of the faculty of the Montpelier High school.

The time of the marriage was hastened owing to the fact that Lieut. Norton is under orders for foreign service.
