

Increase In Bike Registrations Here

Bicycle registrations through yesterday came to 336, said Police Chief George J. Connor today.

He said it marked an increase in registration over the same period last year. Total bicycle registrations in 1957 came to about 750, the chief said, adding that many youthful cyclists don't register their bicycles until the beginning of summer vacations.