

Demonstration Meeting To Be Held.

Waterbury—On Thursday morning at nine o'clock J. E. Carrigan, demonstration agent from the State Agricultural College, will conduct a demonstration meeting on Winnisquam farms at Waterbury Center, owned by M. H. Moody. Hay will be cut that morning and his special work will be along that line, although there will be more or less general demonstration work. Winnisquam farms is the home of the registered Guernseys, having the sire, Myras Jewel, of Fairview, No. 19,158. Mr. Moody is an officer in the State Guernsey Association and is enthusiastic over agricultural development.
