

after practicing here at intervals before.

Montpelier.—Harry A. Slade, 68, one of the prominent business men of Montpelier, where he had been in the drug business for 43 years, died at 4.30 Tuesday last week at a hospital in Springfield, where he was spending a vacation. He was seized with a shock of apoplexy last week Wednesday. Funeral services were held in Springfield, Thursday.

Rutland.—Fears that beer racketeering, which in large centers has