

Women's Bowling Notes

In view of so many absentees the regular matches of the Women's Bowling League were postponed this week but the Staab Dairy generously sponsored a handicap doubles tournament for those interested.

Sixteen doubles teams were on hand to battle for the prizes given to the first three top teams, plus one for high single string a special prize for the low scores. Prizes