One Act Plays

The High School is soon to give two plays entitled Miss Civilization" and "Between the Soup and the Savoury." These plays will be given by members of the High School and the proceeds will go to help support the band. The characters for "Miss Civilization" are Earl Weir and Howard Engle and Clarence Van Loo as the burglars Harley Geysbers, the policeman, and Katherine Hathaway as Miss Civilization. For "Between the Soup and the Savoury" the characters are Marie, the cook, played by Mariett De Groot, Ada, parlourmaid, by Jane Butts, and Emily, kitchen maid, by Vivian Meiklejohn.

The casts promise that everyone who comes will get more than his money's worth. This entertainment is "A One Christmas Bargain."

Lincoln School

At the regular monthly meeting of the Fifth and Sixth Grades "Self Government Society" the following officers were elected by ballot: Chairman, Wilbert Spanagle; Secretary, Aubrey Cameron.

In the Self Government Contest, side "B" lost and will give the party some time this week.

Those having perfect records for which they received an A plus in deportment are:

1. Lester Ebert
2. Wilbert Spannagel
3. Harold Schulz
4. Ruth Davis
5. Ora Hoffman
6. Marie Ver Hage
7. Lucille Kohlman

James won't stand for Malbeth smiling at Harold.

Eliza likes to play O'Grady. Why?????????

"Why did Harold fall in the river?" asks Eleanor.

Edward Johnson has not been at school for the past week because of illness. We wish him a rapid recovery.

Report Cards. Everybody happy???

DO DID DONE

"I done my lesson," said little Ned.

Late one night as he went to bed.

Then quick as a wink,
Ere mother could think
"I did my lesson," replied Ned.

Grace Hoffman. 4th Grade.

ASSEMBLY NEWS Cont. From P2

bute to it and to posterity. Service is not well-pain; often the grestest service is often the least rewarded. To be a success, in the true sense, think not of reward. Serve for the sake of service and for seeing the joy which your small service put into some heart or the good which it did your community.

The Washington Conference is largely for the service of Nation to Nation, to make this a better world to live in.

This year, as always, there will be a community Christman Tree. Why can not the High School Students make some small child happy by making popcorn or candy for his Christmas?
