SAMOYEDS

By Vera Lawrence
619 Colusa Ave., Berkeley 7, Calif.

The following article is taken from the recent issue of Will Judy's Dog World magazine, written by him. It is titled:

"A Discussion of Certain Aspects of Sam Type"
The standard of the Samoyed has been revised only twice within the last twenty years; in 1946 the weight and size paragraphs were revised; in 1947, the momentous change of dropping the final e from the breed name took place.

Let us call attention first to the 1946 changes as we can dismiss the '47 change with the statement that the correct pronunciation of this Russian name for the breed is sam-oh-yed'.

The new weight for the male is 50 to 67 pounds, a range of 17 pounds, which is not excessive in view of the range of 2½ inches in shoulder height, minimum 21, maximum 23½.

Clearly the Samoyed Club of America, at least the committee on revision of the standard, definitely had as its object a heavier, larger animal than previous.

The bitch weight was 36 to 45 and now is still 36 minimum, but a maximum jump of 10 pounds, to 55.

It might have been well to raise the minimum on the basis that brood bitches should be required to give size and strength. This can better be done by a 45 pound bitch than a 36 pound one as a rule (please do not point out exceptions of which there are many).

The jump in males was drastic. The Minimum of 45 previously was jumped to 50, but the maximum was pushed up from 57 to 67—clearly the intention to strive for bigger Sams, an intention which was wise for a sled dog must have a certain minimum size, strength and build to do his work in deep snows in stormy weather, and over dangerous terrain. All in all the revision has been beneficial.

The breed is "looking up", and teamwork among the Sam enthusiasts, nationwide with guidance of the Parent Club, Samoyed Club of America, based upon democratic geographical representation, as benefits us in America, will continue to keep the all-white sled dog (and let us add reindeer herder and companion dog)—before the public in the show ring and out.

We want more Sams winning Groups and BIS—and to this end, we should like to see more spirited Sams. (To which we say, Amen). "Too many are slow, jogging, unspirited—when the judge of the non-sporting group calls for the Sam to gait.—W.J." (And here, folks may we assure you that Mr. Judy MUST SURELY have meant—"of the WORKING GROUP," for that is where our Sams are, you know.—VL

NEWS FROM AND ABOUT OUR FOLK

Here is news that we are more than happy to report. Mrs. Walter Cornhauser of Chicago, who still owns the pride and joy of her late husband, is improving in health and continuing to encourage interest in our Sams. She writes: "I want you to know that I have not forgotten my Sammy friends—but Toto and I have been through so much this year.

He still looks for his "Daddy". One day I was walking Toto (Kandalaska) and a child was getting out of his car, and saw his father. The child screamed, "there goes my daddy." Toto Beach, with an impartial judge's panel discussing man on the street just broken in spirit. He thought it was "his daddy." People all over Hyde Park talk about the intelligence of Toto. He has made a million new friends as so few people had ever seen a Samoyed. He is gorgeous now—so filled-out, weights 60 pounds. So playful and well-behaved. Has a magnificent coat. He is, I think, the only apartment-raised Samoyed. I have to go up to the seventh floor with Toto in a 52-apartment building. We still miss Wally terribly, he was so loved by everyone."

Good luck to Mrs. Cornhauser — and may Toto continue to be the splendid companion that he has proven to be in the past.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Wayne Gillette, President of the Samoyed Club, Mid-West Division, we are able to give the winners of the recent show held in Indianapolis, Indiana. The breed judge was McQuown, group judge was Schwartz. Winners Dog and Best of Opposite Sex was Kenneth Williams' Venuschki's Son Nuschki: Reserve Winner was the Ralph Longden's Gay Boy of Sammar; Winners Bitch, and Best of Winners was Ruth Bates Young's Sparkle Plenty of Arbee. Reserve Winners Bitch was Clifford Leverence's Kisscanet of Breezewood. Best of Breed was Mrs. A. L. MacBain's Imp. Ch. Dawn of the Artic.

Among our new subscribers to W.K.W. are the Dudley Blanchards, now of Little River, California. Mr. Blanchard says that they enjoyed their trip to the Del Monte show.

Mrs. Lorna L. Duffy of Cincinnati, Ohio, says that she tries to keep in touch with the owners of pups that she has sold. The following came from Mrs. Strong of Downers Grove, Illinois, a letter to Dondianes Siberian Ranook from his littler sister "Marka" (Dondianes Stronghaven Marka). These pups were sired by the K. T. Roths' Ch. Japtee's Karkhov of Rothridge, The letter: "Dear Nookie—you were a peach to remember to write on our birthday. Being used to the wide open spaces, hotel life isn't for me, so I got my folks up about 5 a.m They couldn't sleep, so we were pulling out of Cincy at 5:45. Believe you me—they do as I wish, but that's the way to train your folks. Yesterday being my birthday, I had a 'cake'—a big hamburger with chicken gravy frosting and a weenie candle. I ate the candle first. It was the first time I ever saw a weenie so I played with it for a while—and speaking of playing—do I have fun!

Our big back yard is fenced—we have lots of hickory trees and oaks—they are full of squirrels which are grand to chase. I caught one once, and the rascal bit my paw—it bled for 3 days but that didn't bother me—I ran as fast as ever. It was very warm here, too. I didn't start shedding until late July. In August I was nearly bare. The tailor is making my new coat but it's not finished yet.

Did you know I am taking obedience training. I lost 30 points and missed first place because I wanted to stay close to my Edna. Right now the pesky old training collar has worn my neck fur so we are not going to train for a while. We heard Dad's folks want to sell him and not keep many Sams. We see the Marshalls once in a while. Their Joe has been very ill, but is improving now. My folks sent to Leesburg for a nice kennel for me—it is ten by eighteen feet. I don't feel punished when I am in it, but I'd rather be out to chase those squirrels. I sleep outdoors all the time now, but I do hate to go out after spending the evening inside in my chair.

Well, happy birthday—a day late, and I hope we all live to be real old like Sam whose place I'm trying to fill. Your sis—Marka." P.S. I get "Pervinal" every day.

"To the Samoyed Fancy"

This month "Jaytee" Roths of the Jaytee Samoyed Kennels, Loveland, Ohio, are ringing down the curtain on fourteen years of enjoyable breeding and showing of Samoyeds.

During that time we have had the privilege of meeting Samoyed breeders and owners the country over. Many splendid friendships have resulted, friendships we hope that will continue, even though we now bow out of active breeding and showing.

Wanted you to know that it is not a lack of continued love for the breed, but rather, that Mrs. Roth and I, after having given practically a life time to the dogs, particularly the last few years when we have had all the work ourselves, for lack of trustworthy help, feel that we have earned a rest and a chance to really enjoy the love and devotion of just one or two Sams.

It is fitting that in bowing out we retain our first Sam with which we started our kennels and whom most of you know, Ch. Drujok, who is now fourteen years young. Then as a symbol of our fourteen years of effort we are also retaining our youngest of seven champions that we have had the privilege of showing through to their championship—Ch. Jaytee's Kharkov of Rothridge.

To all of you in dogdom we'll be seeing you at shows now and then, for we'll be able to get away and thoroughly enjoy them. Lots of good luck to all of you who carry on, and meantime it's not goodbye, but ALOHA. Thelma and J. T. Roth."

The best of good wishes to both of you folks who have helped to place our Sams before the public to the best advantage, and a cheery greeting from all of us.—V.L.

Mrs. B. P. Dawes of Cupertino, California, owner of Ch. Lucky Labon Nahum and the young bitch, Faustina Fauna in reporting news of the Reno, Nevada, show, says that the weather was made to order. It was one of the finest outdoor shows of the year, is her report.

The show, held October 2, at the Moana Ball Park in Reno, was judged by Anton Korbel of Belmont, California. He placed for Winners dog, Mrs. Marion Hoefling's Saint Nick of Rhanor's, with Reserve going to Mrs. Chloe Witcher's Samoyland's Vojak of Vallejo, California. This was a three-point show for Saint Nick of Rhanor's—(old point rating holds good in this locality). Of the six bitches entered in the classes, Mrs. Dawes' Faustina Fauna went Winners bitch with five points, and Best of Winners—Reserve winners bitch was Clay T. Patrick's Polaris Balaiya Doraga (Ch. Sammy of Petsamo ex Czarevna Balaiya Doroga).

Best of Breed was Lois Rayner's Ch. Chinde of Caspar (Sooltan ex Ch. Silver Star of White Way). Best of Opposite sex was Mrs. Dawes' Faustina Fauna (Ch. Frolnick of Sammar ex Hope of White Way). This bitch was bred by Mrs. Helen Aldrich of Phoenix, Arizona, and picked for Mrs. Dawes by Paul L. Bajus of Milwaukee.

We regret to report the severe illness of Mrs. Aldrich, and hope for her speedy return to health. May we extend the good wishes of our Samoyed Club of America members to Mrs. Aldrich, and also to Joe Marshall of Palos Park, Illinois, who have been very ill. Get well soon, folks!

Mrs. Dawes tells us we have a 22-inch Shuffle Board in the rumpus room at home, where Faustina tries to "take over". She puts her front feet on the ledge and when a placer sends a puck down, she stops it. How she delights in doing it, to the chagrin of serious-minded players.

Mrs. Dawes asks that folks be reminded of the 1950 National Specialty show to be held in conjunction with the Harbor Cities show.

Another Young Sam Goes to the Top

Mrs. Lucile L. Miller, owner of The Altai Kennels in Albuquerque, New Mexico, reports that she attended the Denver, Colorado Show of September 23-24. Took her Ch. Snow Dawn (Ch. Prince Kofski ex Zem Zem of Breeze-wood, and the new importation Deyomas of Ibur (Snowland Sarnac ex Snowland Malitte), owned and imported by Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Catharine Quereaux).

Quite the outstanding dog in the classes and later, was the young Siberian Star of Altai—the 16-months old son of Ch. Snowland Star out of Ch. Dawn, and owned by Mr. and Mrs. G. Wilbur Jones of Tucumsari (our apologies to the Jones' if that isn't spelled correctly) but that's how it looks here on the script. Siberian Star went from Best in the Novice class on to Winners Dog, Best of Winners and BEST of Breed—and further than that, under Judge L. G. Spence, he placed fourth in the Working group. Reserve Winners dog was Deyomas of Ibur. Winners bitch was Robert Ohman's Marlook, bred by Ralph Williams of Juneau, Alaska. Reserve was Mrs. Howard Lee's Volitza of Snowland (Volvorn of Snowland ex Ch. Nadya of Snowland). Best of Opposite sex was Ch. Snow Dawn. Hans Oberhammer was Judge of the Sammy classes.

Mrs. Miller, in commenting on the show, says: Show not so large—fall not too good a time for Sam entries. Deyomas is just a big playful pup—was like a bull in a china shop. He was a show by himself all Friday afternoon. Was afraid he would miss a trick or two—just would not lie down on the bench to rest—finally he got so sleepy but he still SAT, would doze off, fall over on Dawn, come up with a jerk—look around to see what he had missed—then doze over again. It was surely fun to watch him.

"He is just a big baby—the most affectionate male I ever saw," says Mrs. Miller. Fell hard for Mr. Lee who, without doubt, fell for him, also. Dey won his blue ribbon, so if we wish to take him to Westminster, it is possible for him to go.

Siberian Star of Altai (Siber) is a big powerful dog without that "heavy" look that some dogs have. He showed very well for a youngster. Has perfect tail carriage, a magnificent rear and gaits beautifully. He well deserved the win of Best of Breed—and weren't we thrilled when he placed fourth in the Group. To break the ice here, in a group, was a big step with Sams. Mr. Jones just worships his dog, which, incidentally, favors his dam Ch. Snow Dawn.

A few weeks before Denver show, the Napa Kennel Club held its All-Breed show, with Mrs. Suzanne D. Hawkins of Camarillo, California, judging Sams on September 10. Winners dog was Mrs. Dorothy D. Dye's Starzan of Altai (Ch. Snowland Star ex Zanova of Altai). Reserve winner was Mrs. Chloe Witcher's Samoyland's Vojak. Winners bitch was Mrs. Dorothy Larson's Mammoushka (Ch. Petra of Valiki ex Natushka of White Way). Reserve was Earl. M. Pulley's Park-Cliffe Snowball. Best of Winners and Best of Breed was Mrs. Dye's Starzan of Altai. In the Obedience Trials, Mrs. Violet McKnight's Don of White Taiga and the Allen's Knight of White Forrest completed their C.D. degrees. This means that there are now three Samoyeds bearing the C.D. title in Vallejo. Nice going, folks! Incidentally, Knight of White Forrest in a son of Don of White Taiga.

The following day, September 11, was the day of the unbenched Petaluma K.C. show, with Major Godsol judging Sams. Again Mrs. Dye's Starzan of Altai was winners dog, with one point, with Vojak again Reserve winner. Winners bitch was Earl Pulley's Park-Cliffe Snowball (Siberian Chinkie ex Park-Cliffe White Ginger. Reserve winners bitch was Mrs. Larson's Mammoushka. Best of Breed at this show was Mrs. Larson's Ch. Petra of Valiki (Kharkov ex Siberian Snow Sonia).

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Tucker, happy owners of Suretta of Kobe. Mrs. Tucker wrote us the most glowing letter of happiness in the arrival of Suretta of Kobe, "who (according to those who saw her at LaGuardia Field upon her arrival) has dark eyes, tiny ears, nice feet, good bone and lovely plume of a tail—and is good and sound throughout. Very friendly, lovely disposition."

Mrs. Tucker's story will give in detail the joys and worries associating with the arrival of a prized dog.

"I've always liked the pictures of the Kobe dogs," wrote Mrs. Tucker, adding, "I wrote to Mr. and Mrs. Rawlings of London re Suretta (adv. appeared in a sales catalogue from England). I asked them if they would keep her until breeding season—then mate her to Ch. Raff of Kobe for us. We received a return cablegram saying Suretta was now in season and breeding would need to take place in a week. So, without waiting for the pictures they had mailed to us, we cabled back that we wanted Suretta bred to Ch. Raff of Kobe. Then, ten long days passed without any word. In the meantime we had received her picture and had fallen very hard for her sweet, very alert face. Saturday we received a cable saying Suretta was being shipped by air on Monday evening. Then I was up in the clouds for sure! They must have loved her dearly, for after watching her plane fly out over the Atlantic they telephoned me direct and we had such a nice three-minute chat. Then we had an air-mail letter from Mrs. Quereaux telling us that Suretta had arrived in New York (this was October 4), was standing the trip well and was in excellent condition.

"Not being up on this matter of importing dogs, I spent two full days at the airport meeting each cargo plane to arrive, only to finally learn that she had been held up in Customs for a day and a half. Finally word came that she'd arrive at 10:15 a.m. (October 7th). The Edwin Adams went with us to meet her—then we found that Suretta must go through Customs again out here. But we had her out for an hour making friends with her and exercising her. How we hated to shut her in that crate again. After three hours of Customs this morning we now have her at home. I suspect she wonders about her folks—but this afternoon she seems perfectly at ease. She is out absorbing our sunshine—but ever so often comes to look in the door and smile at me and wave that gorgeous tail of hers.

"As for the Tuckers, they just couldn't be more pleased with a new Sam! Suretta has a lovely head, small ears, medium muzzle and oh, such extremely dark eyes which are always laughing. She has a very good body and with that lovely tail—which the Kobe dogs seem to carry—we do think she is some gal!

"Well, I've certainly talked about Suretta, but it is all so unexpected that I just can't seem to come down to earth," wrote Mrs. Tucker.

Who is Suretta, and when born? Well, here are some facts: born May 3, 1948, Breeder, Mrs. Dorothy L. Perry. She is by Ch. Kozaks Michaeloff of Kobe out of Ch. Winter Queen of Kobe. Her sire, a son of Ch. White Fang of Kobe ex Linda of Kobe. Her dam, Ch. Winter Queen of Kobe is by the famous Ch. Magnus of Kobe ex Xenia of Taimir. (Ch. White Fang of Kobe, at the time of his death, had won more Challenge certificates than any other Sam-

There was a "fashion show" in Ross, California, recently—and a last minute call to Mrs. Levant Brown brought a wild scramble for a bath for Bori (Ch. Borealis of the Far Steppes), Bori walked in with his "Model" in beautiful style—all agog—full of life—and then over the microphone came the voice of the announcer—"Good gracious—here comes a beautiful big white dog. I have no idea what kind he is—but he looks like an over-grown Spitz." Who can know—was it the sound of that man's voice —or did Bori understand the insulting remark he had just made! Whatever it was—Bori proceeded to want the thing over with. He pulled on his leash and just wouldn't cooperate with the model-handler. However, a few moments later, a beautiful model in a bright orange-red coat with fox fur to match his coat, took him in hand—and Bori again became his lovely sedate self. To quote the generous model—"he stole the show."

Well, that Poli—that pup of Bori's out of Larson's Konchakova, thinks he is a watch dog! One day, while sojourning in the kitchen, Poli heard a noise and saw the red disk flash on in the electric range. "It just shouldn't be there," thought Poli, and so he undertook to bark at it in his most furious manner, while standing in front of it. He kept looking to his owner to help him chase it away. Suddenly it went off and Poli was sure he had accomplished his purpose. Then all was serene again, until suddenly there was a click, and the light flashed on again. Then there was that "scaring away" job to do all over again. The only trouble was it wouldn't stay scared away—so Poli finally gave up.

Poli is just a little over four months old—weighs over 30 pounds—and by the looks of that picture we have seen looks like quite a pup, especially nice looking head with nice small ears!

A note to all Samoyed owners from Charles Hurlley, publicity chairman, Pacific Coast Division:

"We are taking this early opportunity to acquaint you with our National Specialty for Sams, to be held June 25th next year at the Long Beach Auditorium, Harbor Cities Kennel Club all breed show. We want everyone, club members or not, to know that this is not a group or division endeavor—the Coast Division is merely doing the work and underwriting the cost.

"Saturday evening, the 24th, a Sam banquet is planned at the Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach, with an impartial judges panel discussing "What we can do to enforce and clarify our standard."

"Sunday is our showing in the beautiful garden behind the Auditorium, with cool breeze' blowing from clean stretches of the Pacific. The benching is magnificent, using Porter Proudfoot's hand-painted Aurora Borealis in the center, and royal blue back drop on either side.

"We have the judge of our choice, Mr. Chris Knudsen, a man of unquestioned integrity and full knowledge of our breed. A group judge unafraid to put up a good 'un if we can provide a dog of that calibre. Trophies down to third in each class, and we mean engraved trophies. Souvenir Sam booklets and picnic box lunch for everyone.

This is just a note for a start—more information will follow every month in the form of a bulletin. We have so much to tell—accommodations and rates, hospitality, trophies, etc."

But first, folks, let's remember our Oakland show, March 4 and 5, 1950. We are making no rash promises nor anything of that sort. We are "sponsoring" our Sams at Oakland—we shall have an outstanding judge from the east, and we here in Northern California look forward to having a good entry of Sams—a splendid benching—lovely trophies—and a friendly show management. So plan for OAKLAND.

LAST CALL for Christmas pictures, notes, etc! A Happy Thanksgiving to you all! V.L.

—Being H2, I can't compete for the Gaines contest, but I have one up on the contest. The advertising company sent me "Lucky" himself. He's house-trained, leads perfectly and only "speaks" when I want him to. He even has hound ears—suspiciously like Pluto, only cuter.
