THE EBELL.

Dr. Adrian Ebell was a noted German scholar who saw the time had come in the world's history when a thinking woman was a necessity—a womanhood to meet and solve various questions which the stress of the age was presenting for solution more and more insistently. Realizing woman's limited opportunities for development along scientific lines he labored to establish an international academy with chapters all over the world. While traveling in America in 1876 he formed the first chapter, the Oakland Ebell. It is after this finely organized club that the Ebell of Los Angeles is modeled, consisting of a central organization with departments for study and advancement in all lines of general culture.

ANNUAL REPORT.

The work of the Club during the year 1904-05 has been comprised in the following seven departments:

Parliamentary Law, Home, Art and Travel, French, Physical Culture, Shakespeare and Current Literature, Music.

The Parliamentary Law Section, with Mrs. J. A. Osgood as instructor, and meeting on the first and third Mondays of each month, has been thoroughly drilled in Parliamentary Law and debating.

On the second and fourth Mondays the meetings of the Department of Home have been held. This department, organized this year by Mrs. Robert J. Burdette and Mrs. Florence Collins Porter, has given its members many valuable lectures and discussions.

The subjects of building and adorning the home, sanitation, pure foods, clothing, the laws of California as they pertain to women and children and moral training, have been treated by such authorities as Mrs. Greenleaf Locke, Dr. Powers, Prof. L. J. Stabler, Dr. Norman Bridge and Miss Elizabeth Kenney. The large attendance at the meetings and the increasing interest shown by Club members in these subjects, amply proves the success of this new department.

The Art and Travel Sections have been combined this year under the leadership of Mrs. Ira O. Smith, assisted by Mrs.

Emily Sandford. Their studies have taken them to Japan, China and India with Mrs. Sandford, and the latter part of the year with Mrs. Smith to the Riviera, Nuremburg, Copenhagen, Holland, Florence, Dresden, Norway, and Sweden. In connection with each country visited, Art and the Masters who have made them famous have been studied, and rendered more interesting by the beautiful collections exhibited by the two curators, at many of the meetings.

The French Section has continued the study of that language under the instruction of Madame Donato, the two classes being divided into elementary French and advanced class. The French comedy, "Le Poulailier", was given by the Section at an open meeting of the Club.

The Physical Culture Section with Mrs. Addie Murphy Grigg as instructor, has had regular drills, showing the proper use of exercise and several instructive lectures on this subject by Mrs. Grigg.

The Shakespeare Section, directed by Mrs. Emma Greenleaf, has studied and discussed four plays and much of interest in poetry, fiction and current literature. This has been one of the best attended sections, and also gave a program before the Club at a general meeting.

The Music Section had been discontinued at the beginning of the year, but in January was resumed under the curatorship of Mrs. Mary Schallert. A choral class was formed with Mr. Roland Paul as director. This section gave a delightful musical program before the Club in addition to musical numbers which added greatly to the interest of our regular open meetings.

At the regular Monday meetings of the Club we have continued our usual monthly lectures on Current History by Mrs. Chapin, on the fourth Mondays.

At the business meetings on the first Mondays, besides the regular business of the Club we have had reports of delegates to the Biennial, Peace Congress, District Federation and Woman's Parliament, also addresses by Bishop Conaty, Chas. F. Lummis, Mrs. Frank Wiggins, and Bishop Rowe of Alaska.

At other general meetings the program committee has provided varied and interesting programs. Two illustrated lectures by Prof. Baumgardt, Mrs. Bertha Hirsch Baruch on "Ideals," Miss Wilhelmina Armstrong on "The Romance of a Prince's Household," Mr. Stephen Szymanowski on "Russia," Mrs. J. W. Cook on "Indian Customs," Miss Sybil Carter on "Lace Making Among the Indians," Sir John Murray on "Oceanology," Mr. Frank Pixley on the "Musical Comedy," and Mr. James Randall on his own poems and experiences, have all been listened to with much interest and profit. A number of musical programs have been given by Mrs. Katharine Kimball Forest, Mrs. J. H. Martindale, Miss Blanche Rogers, Miss Louise Hill, and Mrs. Mary Schallert, and the ability of the Club members to carry on a debate and literary symposium was shown in two afternoons devoted to that purpose.

A most important event in the history of Ebells has taken place this year in the building of our new Clubhouse, of which the corner stone was laid July 31st by our president, Mrs. Frank W. King.

The stock in the Ebells Building Association is taken almost entirely by Club members and the Club itself is one of the large shareholders. We have made a beginning in our furnishing by purchasing two large, handsome rugs and a card party given by the Art and Travel Section realized $166 which was given to the furnishings fund. A beautiful copy of the "Laughing Cavalier" was presented to the Club this year by Mrs. Felix Howes and the corner stone of our new building was the gift of the architects, Messrs. Hunt and Eager.

While our members have been striving toward intellectual growth and the building of a beautiful home, the Club has not been unmindful of the outside world but has devoted both time and money to the cause of philanthropy. A life membership in the Humane Society, an annual membership and a donation of $25.00 to the Sequoia League, $25.00 toward a bed in the Children's Hospital to the memory of Miss Florence Lawson, and $200.00 to the Juvenile Court. The children of our members have also done their share in the Club's good work, and at their annual Christmas party brought toys to be given to the children of the poor, so that two wagon loads were sent to the Salvation Army, and Day Nursery, for distribution.

We have added to our list of Honorary Members the names of Madame Caroline Severance, Senator Frank P. Flint, Rev. Robert J. Burdette, Madame Helena Modjeska, and to our Honorary Life Members Misses Alice and Emma Parsons. During the year four of our valued members have passed away—Miss Florence Lawson, Mrs. J. W. Hunt, Mrs. Lillian Strange, and Mrs. C. P. Dandy.

Recording Secretary.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Unusual interest centered in the meeting of the Ethel Club yesterday in that it marked the annual nomination of officers. The doors were closed to all outsiders and the assembly hall was filled with the members of the club, who turned out en masse for this annual event. The dignity, friendliness and harmony which characterized the entire meeting emphasize the fact that club life has exerted a broadening spirit, and women, although they may not always agree on a candidate for office, can nevertheless conduct the nomination with perfect composure and absolute good nature, harmoniously agreeing to disagree when occasion demands. Many candidates were brought out yesterday, no less than four nominees being named for the office of president and an equal number for that of first and third vice-president, while three ladies are on the ticket for second vice-president.

Mrs. F. W. King, who has been president for two years, was given a splendid complimentary mention and responded with grace and dignity, referring to the uniformly pleasant relations that have existed between herself and the club members. Reports were given from the delegates to the recent State convention in San José, and then the club settled itself down solely to the business of nominating its future officers.

For president the following ladies were named: Mmes. P. G. Hubert, Eugene Pettigrew, Florence Collins Porter and W. F. Pleas; first vice-president, Mmes. Van Cleve, Matthew Robertson, J. T. Fitzgerald and G. Aubrey Davidson; second vice-president, Mmes. C. Q. Stanton, Marlan Welch and Noyes; third vice-president, Mmes. Chester C. Ashley, Edward C. Delter, B. R. Baumgart and Miss Eveline Hamburger; recording secretary, Miss Louise Kimball; corresponding secretary, Miss Florence Riley; treasurer, Mmes. E. C. Crary and Lewis Clarke Carlisle; general curator, Mmes. Delter, B. F. Church and Leon Moss; directors, Mmes. F. W. King, C. A. Burcham and Lou V. Chapin.

The committee on nominations will report in two weeks and the election of officers will occur the first Monday in April.

Dr. E. C. Buell gave his second address yesterday afternoon at 1:15 before the Practical Talks section on the subject of "Emergencies," dwelling this time on contagious diseases. Next Monday Prof. A. B. Ury of the University of Southern California will speak before the Home Department on "Use of Food in Bodily Economy."

EBELL CLUB VIBRATIONS.

BY ROSALIND GREENE PEASLEY,

Author of "The Philosophy of Living."

THE combination of individual vibrations constitute the club vibration. Now this particular individual vibration wishes to produce a few lasting vibrations. What our club stands for:

The creed which invites us,
The bond which unites us,
Is harmony, charity for all.
And for each.
To share this with others,
And thus help our brothers,
Is our constant endeavor,
In action and speech.

Vibration is a law. Vibration is the result of a disturbance of a slow or stagnant condition. And the cause in every instance is thought, of some nature. We may receive this from a person, book, beautiful sunset or even a tiny flower.

Every individual life is receiving just that thought which it needs at that particular time, for its further growth or progression. This will make us represent our ideal of perfection if we fear not.

Our ideals are forever reaching upward. As soon as one ideal is reached we attract another experience which takes up another round of the ladder of wisdom.

It is a great principle that every atom of life is in a state of constant activity and is always active and progressive. Let us learn to work in harmony with this great unceasing, unchanging law of constant vibration, and not violate the law by having a limited thought behind an unlimited desire. Each life holds all possibilities; there are no limits to our power, except what we ourselves determine by our own thoughts—for as we change our thoughts we change the vibration, and vibratory action changes all conditions. For instance, what we really seek in going abroad or elsewhere is change of vibration, which the change of environment gives us. Now here is an ideal to reach and save time, money, energy and discomforts by staying at home and changing our thought—for all is within ourselves—but we now resemble the musk ox, running hither and thither after the perfume, or satisfying conditions.

Even each atom is constantly changing by gradual repulsion of its electrons or intrinsic energy and attracting new substances.

The same is true of all life. All is constant change.

As we evolve to higher rates of vibration, it will be an easy matter to transfer and receive thoughts from our club sisters on Mars and other planets with such message as follows:

"We wish to express our regrets for not being able to visit your club this p.m. as we expected to. Thoughts are coming so fast to us that it has detained us; but you may be assured we will take the ethereal trip as soon as possible, for we enjoy it very much, and personally it gives me such an appetite that I can enjoy two capsules of vital energy for dinner, instead of the usual one. We all send love, and please revibrate this thought, that we club women on earth are particularly harmonious, as we have just elected a president, and upon such august occasions we always charge ourselves with electric currents of love, peace and harmony.

"After certain experiences, we find that the club having so large a membership has increased in rate of vibration until we now question—'Would it not be justice to elect a new president each month, as the rapid growth demands constant change? What is your opinion?" While waiting for a reply I will proceed.

As we grow in the understanding of the laws of life, we enjoy the blessings of freedom, and are ever ready to promote the liberty of others, for we do not desire to deport ourselves in any way, to mar or disturb the harmony of any life, as we realize the oneness of all life which is a sure foundation in eternal law.

It is the countless ideals and actions of the individuals inextricably intermingled, that forms the spirit of the club. Let us analyze some of the causes of our beautiful club spirit. Our present King radiates sweet cheerfulness. Mrs. Hunt positive fearlessness. The real, genuine mother love of Mrs. Lewis is radiated afar—and the confident, courageous progressiveness of Mrs. Flint. All these give lasting vibrations, which will ring down through the ages.

What is true of those upon the throne is true of each member—we can radiate only accordingly as our own individual character is developed. Character depends upon the harmonious operation of the inner laws and we have the wills to allow this. Let us finally realize the importance of each thought, for it is only as we act, and enjoy, and awaken others to action and enjoyment, do we remain of significance. How glorious to understand that we are in a process of eternal unfoldment. We cannot conceive the inexhaustible richness of the eternal kingdoms—but we do know that we will be ever manifesting more power, nobleness, sweetness and love, for that is our desire.

In the final analysis, love is the basic law of all existence. The love which is sympathetic, harmonious vibration. All good is desirable, but love is the fulfilling of the whole law—for love strikes a universal vibration. Let us cultivate the power to awaken in every heart the love that is all divine. Let us drink of this nectar of love, that has the more for the giving, for it harmonizes all conditions. Here love does reign and life does greet,

Life crowned with love our hearts do meet.

In every heart is love enthroned,
And every voice has hope entoned.
Such is this club I live to see
The club my heart unfolds to me.

As I was thinking of the club one evening, these thoughts came to me, which I found very encouraging and thought you might, so will give them:

CHARGE OF THE CLUB VIBRATION BRIGADE.

For the good, for the true,
For the pure, onward!
Forward the highest ideals,
Forward; six hundred,
Conserve your energies
For noble aims like these.
Develop club vibrations
Harmonious six hundred.

Forward; all club members
Trust to your convictions;
Be not discouraged
If you have blundered.
Listen not to treason,
Follow after reason.
Win, you shall, in season,
Courageous six hundred.

Ideals to the right of you,
Ideals to the left of you,
Ideals in front of you,
Call you to action.
Summon your thoughts control,
Compass the perfect whole,
Heed not the slothful.
On! to your splendid goal,
Fearless six hundred.

How long shall virtue sue
For that which is its due?
Oft have you wondered.
But be not dismayed,
Strong is united aid.
Hail! to your brave brigade,
Noble six hundred.
