Our Club Name

THE Ebell Clubs of California derive their name from Dr. Adrian Ebell, scientist and lecturer. Dr. Ebell was born in Calcutta, of German parentage, and was educated in America. Fate thus prepared him to be an internationalist.

He claimed that the full development of feminine mentality required the study of the exact sciences. He therefore devoted himself to lecturing in "Female Seminaries" on science. Later he organized a plan of study and travelled widely to establish Chapters to what he called "The International Academy of Art and Science," with headquarters at Berlin. The first Chapter in California was founded in Oakland in 1876.

Dr. Ebell dying shortly after when on his way to Germany, the Oakland women decided to sever the connection with Berlin and re-organize their society on more general lines, naming it in loving remembrance of Dr. Ebell, "The Ebell Society." Departments for the study of various subjects were later introduced.

Members of the Oakland Society who moved South were instrumental in organizing the Ebell of Los Angeles, the second club of this name ever established.

Standing Rules

Admission to all meetings shall be by card of current term only.

Regular members will receive two guest cards for Monday afternoon programs and ten for departments; one-half to be issued October first and one-half March first.

A member may invite but one guest to any Monday program. Members' visiting cards will admit gentlemen to all open meetings.

Any member of an out-of-town federated club may, on presentation of credentials, receive a complimentary guest card good for ten days.

Current membership cards will serve as cards of introduction to federated clubs of other cities.

No person eligible to membership shall be admitted as a guest to more than two Monday afternoon meetings in one year.

New members notified of their election during February or June shall pay dues from March first and October first respectively.

Endorsers of temporary membership applicants must state length of time applicants have been in Los Angeles and probable length of stay. All applications must be made in writing each year and the membership must be continuous from the date upon which it is granted.

No appeals for financial aid shall be made from the platform or in the club rooms except by permission of the President and Executive Committee; nor shall there be any personal canvass for funds, but a table may be so placed that voluntary contributions may be received.

Ebell seeks information on legislative measures, but does not endorse partisan political measures or persons.

President's Review

PRESIDENTS write reports for Year Books that members may have a reference-record of things done by their club as a whole or by the club's governing body, which consists of a Board of Directors and Executive Officers.

The detailed reports of all other activities are given by the officers or chairmen in charge of them. These reports will be found on succeeding pages and will repay careful perusal.

The personal activities of the President will be lightly sketched, numerous and diversified though they have been. Since July 1, 1925, two hundred thirty-five days have been given over in part to administrative and business matters directly concerning Ebell. One hundred two days have seen the President in attendance at some Ebell function: a Monday program; a study department; a guest luncheon; or an evening assembly. On one hundred forty other days, meetings semi-public—civic, social, or philanthropic in intent—or pertaining to Federation needs were attended, making a total of four hundred seventy-seven meetings in three hundred sixty-five days: a seemingly exaggerated statement but quite accurate for there were frequently two meetings a day; not so often, three; and once, five. That was a busy day and a long one. There were, however, hiatuses; oases of rest; staccato Sundays.

If a club is large enough and financially stable enough to be incorporated, its President has two distinct offices to fill. First, she is presiding officer at all special and general meetings of the association and the representative of her club in the public eye. Second, she is chairman of the governing board and must preside at all business or corporation meetings; hear the reports of all executive officers and chairmen; appoint committees and direct procedure.

An incorporated society, such as Ebell, is governed a little differently from an unincorporated one, being subject to the State laws which control corporations and which take precedence over all other laws or rules.

The interest of Ebell members has quite naturally been centered on the proposed new home so slowly materializing. July 31, 1925, a large and commanding site was purchased at the south west corner of Wilshire and Lucerne Boulevards, for $200,000 on a promise to pay, secured by a first mortgage of $60,000 and a trust deed for $90,000. When purchased this lot had been placed in C Zone by an ordinance of the City Council but a referendum was demanded and the ordinance defeated. This put the lot again in A Zone and made it necessary to get a special permit before a club house could be built. The consent of the owners of adjacent lots was required by the Planning Commission and after weeks of delay, due to the absence of property owners, the written consent of those most nearly concerned was obtained and Ebell's petition to build was passed upon favorably.

The financing was also arranged for through the Security Trust and Savings Bank and permission to mortgage present holdings was granted by the Court. A temporary lull in the demand for real estate and consequent decrease in price made it seem advisable to hold the Ebell property a little longer. No decision of vital importance to the Club was made at any time; no decisive action taken except under the direction of legal and financial advisers of known ability and integrity. To these men Ebell is deeply indebted for unfailing courtesy and valued assistance.

In October 1925, the choice of an architect was made by the Board upon the recommendation of the Building and Architects Committees. January 29, 1926, death nullified this choice and on February 26, 1926, after further careful investigation, Mr. Sumner P. Hunt, representing the firm of Hunt and Burns, was selected as the person best qualified to design a fitting home for Ebell. Mr. Hunt was the architect of the present club house and therefore has a clear understanding of Ebell's needs.

The Scofield Engineering and Construction Company was chosen to build the new home and a quite-favorable-to-Ebell contract was signed. Building plans are being scanned meticulously for possible imperfections to avoid extra cost for changes.

A theater-auditorium as large and complete as lot-space, money, and city ordinances will allow; spacious reception, tea, and dining rooms; several department rooms with wall space suitably lighted for art exhibits; a solarium, roof garden, patio, and terraced open garden will be features of the new Ebell home.

The time, thought, and energy of the Executive and Building Committees have been heavily drawn upon by these important business issues but the much more important life of the Club, the thing for which the new home is but the housing, has not been overlooked. Ebell's intellectual needs have been satisfied through Monday programs of unusual merit. In the study departments eager minds have been spurred on to greater mental development and the social welfare work has prevented atrophy of sympathy and stimulated generosity. Distinguished men and women brought to the weekly programs and guest luncheons messages weighted with meaning, alive with humor, poetic, prophetic. Certain red-letter events will not soon be forgotten: one of them being the luncheon graced by the President of the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Dr. Mariana Bertola; another, an address of extraordinary timeliness and insight delivered by Harold J. Stonier of U. S. C. on "Our Heritage." Christmas was made more beautiful by Sol Cohen's gift of a specially composed musical program dedicated to Ebell: "The Quest."

As the years go by we take note of time only as its smooth progress is interrupted by emotional experiences of great joy or grief. During the past year, which has been indeed an eventful one, Ebell has been moved to sorrowful consideration of life's mutability by the inroads which death has made upon the membership. A greatly beloved, wise, and just leader, Mrs. Charles H. Toll, Past President of Ebell and of the Los Angeles District Federation of Women's Clubs; a faithful and able Treasurer, Mrs. Lewis Clarke Carlisle, devoted to her Club, never counting the cost of service; and twenty active and loyal members will no longer respond to earthly call. They have answered a higher summons and are receiving the reward due to those who have lived nobly. The entire community is debtor to them; is better for their having lived, and Ebell, though stricken, is proud to have claimed them as members and officers.

That this association of women has been able to achieve distinction in lines of social and intellectual endeavor is due to the able leadership of such women as Mrs. Toll; to the wise Council of Past Presidents, whose interest in their favorite Club is unabated; and to the unfailing and ready cooperation of the entire working staff.

The coordination of power and subsequent correlation of duties of directors and executive officers can but make for harmony and must result in the smooth working of Ebell's administrative machinery. Every President realizes and is happy to admit that such success as her administration is credited with is due almost entirely to others: to her Board; to committee chairmen; to department curators; to the office force and to loyal members.

The confidence shown in this administration by the club members is sincerely appreciated by each officer retained. To know that conscientious attention to duty has been understood and approved is the surest incentive to even more earnest effort.

With thanks for the opportunity to be of use to the finest club in the world, this report is

Respectfully submitted by

MRS. WILLIAM READ, President.

Report of the Recording Secretary

THE record of the year's work in a concrete report is that of a quiet progress and fulfillment in all lines. Members and chairmen of committees, curators, and officers have efficiently carried on the work undertaken by them and on the surface the Club life has seemed much the same as in the years gone by, but permeating into every working part, has been the joy of anticipation as the New Club house has become more and more a reality. Not only the large Building Committee under the Chairmanship of Mrs. Charles V. Craig, but a very large number of the members have gone about with eyes ever open to suggestions which they have turned in to the committee, each one entering into a spirit of cooperation, which will make the new home a thing of joy and beauty.

No report could do justice to the hours of thought and discussion that the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee have cheerfully given to their precious trust.

There have been fifty-two meetings of the Board of Directors and forty-four of the Executive Committee at which the members have worked together in sympathy and understanding, stimulated and inspired constantly by the keen mind and broad and kindly vision of our President, Mrs. William Read.

An interesting and successful experiment has been the evening meeting held each month from October to April, when members were privileged to bring their families and friends. The programs were in charge of Department Curators and are listed under Special Programs on another page. Our President, in inaugurating this feature, has ever in mind the enlargement of the Club's activities, bringing before its members as many artistic and cultural programs as they care to attend.

Mrs. Ilot Johnson, First Vice-President, has served as Chairman of Reciprocity and, with members of her committee, has represented Ebell in response to invitations from thirty-five Clubs of the District and she has assisted Mrs. Read in extending the hospitality of the Club to representatives from Federated Clubs, at the Wednesday luncheons.

Mrs. Johnson has also been Chairman of Printing, and, in addition to the Year Book, has had supervision of all bulletins and other printed matter.

[The EBELL of Los Angeles].

Miss Helen Louise Stubbs, Second Vice-President, has arranged for thirty-nine Monday programs, thirteen of which were musicales, eighteen were lectures, four were plays, and four were dramatic recitals. These programs have been carefully selected and arranged that a sufficient variety might appeal to the greatest number. Artists and lecturers of outstanding importance have appeared, including Sir John Adams, Major Vivian Gilbert, Carveth Wells, Branson De Cou, Sol Cohen, Lillian Burkhart Goldsmith, Montague Shaw, Dr. Mariana Bertola, Frank Waller Allen, Tandler's Little Symphony, and many others.

Ebell's own Drama Workshop gave two Monday programs, presenting four one-act plays in an artistic and technically correct manner. This is one of Ebell's new activities and in a year's time has become one of the most important.

On Saturday evening, April the twenty-fourth, the anniversary of Shakespeare's birth was commemorated in a Dramatic Recital entitled "The Women Shakespeare Created," presented by Dr. Frederick Warde, who was assisted by professional and amateur students whom he had trained. Following the recital, a reception was held in the tea rooms, with Dr. Warde as honor guest.

Mrs. James Andrew Rogers, Third Vice-President, Chairman of the House Committee, has indeed made of the Club a pleasant place to have a cup of tea, to enjoy a luncheon or to meet one's friends at the evening receptions following the Art and Travel, Bible, and Shakespeare programs. So quietly and efficiently have the matters pertaining to home making been carried on that we only know that the results have been delightful.

Mrs. Charles D. Burt, Fourth Vice-President, Chairman of Memberships and Club Survey, has had a busy year. In addition to her duties involved in the applications for memberships numbering 455, she has, as Chairman of the Club Survey Committee, continued the classification of members as to their abilities to serve in the various Club activities, a work that has proved of the greatest service in the selection of committees.

Mrs. Frank Howell Stanbery, Chairman of Credentials, reports that one thousand fifty guests have been admitted to the open meetings. This committee has cooperated with the ushers under the Chairmanship of Mrs. Leon Thorp

.[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

Shettler in admitting and seating the audiences on Monday afternoons and at the evening meetings.

Mrs. Lyman Curtis Blakeslee and the Courtesy Committee have sustained the cordiality and friendliness of Ebell in their gracious welcome to members and guests. They have made a special effort to meet the new members and make them feel at home.

The Decorations Committee under the leadership of the Chairman, Mrs. Bertram Eugene Green, has been untiring in its efforts to make the auditoriums and the tea rooms lovely with flowers. The results of their labors have been elaborate and beautiful.

Mrs. Alfred W. Rea, Chairman of the Library Committee, reports that two hundred fifty carefully selected new books have been added to our shelves. The members of this committee have taken pains to give skilled service, which has been most helpful.

The Press Chairman, Mrs. Edward A. Tufts, has kept Ebell activities before the public, sending regular notices to all daily papers. A contribution to The Clubwoman has been furnished each month by the Assistant Chairman, Mrs. William E. Keepers. During Mrs. Tuft's four months absence, Mrs. Harry Shults carried on.

Ebell's association with the Federation was in charge of Mrs. William Luke Jones, who assigned a member of her committee to each of fifteen departments of the District Federation work. These women were especially chosen for their ability to represent Ebell in these different departments and they formed a group which Ebell was happy to send into the District service.

Resolutions passed by the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee indicate an interest in the affairs of the world and the community of which we are a vital part. The Chairman of Resolutions, Miss Frederica de Laguna, has had ever in mind that complete information must be at hand before the Club voices either a recommendation or a protest and she has constantly urged that the Club must stand ready to follow up and support measures that have been endorsed.

Following are the resolutions passed by the Club in regular session:

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

Resolution, endorsing the entrance of the United States into the World Court with the Coolidge-Hughes-Harding reservations.

Resolution, favoring Law Enforcement with reference to the Volstead Act.

Resolution, of sorrow for the death of our dear friend and Past President, Eleanor Joy Toll.

Resolution, of sorrow for the death of Mrs. Lewis Clark Carlisle, who for many years had acted as Treasurer of Ebell.

Resolution, suspending elections for the year 1926-1927 in order that the present officers who have the building plans in hand, may continue the work to completion.

Resolutions passed by the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee are as follows:

Resolution, honoring the memory of William Jennings Bryan.

Resolution, recommending the protection of our forests.

Resolution, endorsing the plans of the Association of American Architects for a new civic center.

Resolution, endorsing the selection of Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo and John Charles Fremont to represent California in Statuary Hall in the Capitol at Washington.

Resolution, protesting against the proposed reduction of the police force of the city.

Resolution, of deep regret for the death of Mr. Harwood Hewitt.

Resolution, endorsing the Bancroft Library.

Resolution, endorsing the plan to use names of persons prominent in early California history in naming bridges and parks in the city.

On March 1, 1926, the By-Laws were amended, increasing the admission fee to fifty dollars, to take effect July 1, 1926.

An amendment was also passed changing the number necessary for a quorum from fifty to one hundred members.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. PATRICK CAMPBELL,
Recording Secretary.

Report of the Corresponding Secretary

AS Corresponding Secretary, I beg to submit the following report for the year 1925-1926:

It is always interesting to view as a whole a piece of work completed and to examine the different parts of which it is constituted and in this report I give a few figures, a short statement of notes and letters written during the year.

149 letters of cheer and greeting have been written to members who have been ill or misfortunate;

118 notes bearing loving thoughts have gone to members or their families who have parted with dear ones;

56 friends who, by gift of time, talent, or other treasures, have made Ebell the richer, have been thanked;

42 notes of congratulations and felicitation have been sent; and 400 business letters, establishing contacts along many different lines, (195 of these were invitations to the New Members Luncheon), bring the total of the year's work to 765.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. LYMAN BRUMBAUGH STOOKEY,
Corresponding Secretary.

Report of the Fourth Vice-President

THE club year opened July 1, 1925 with twenty-five hundred eighty-six members, but it has been the pleasure of the Fourth Vice-President to see this number greatly increased during the year. It has also been her privilege to take care of all applications for membership and to welcome the new members. This privilege has brought her in contact with many fine women, women whom Ebell is proud to receive within her ranks.

In order to meet the needs of everyone, memberships are classified as Regular, Life, Honorary Life, and Special. Special Memberships may be Complimentary, Junior, or Temporary.

One of the great joys during the year was the conferring of a Complimentary Membership on Mr. Frederick Warde in recognition of his loyalty to Ebell.

The following is the report for the year:

To serve Ebell is a joy and an honor. No woman can earnestly try to perform the task assigned to her without receiving one hundred per cent profit and at the close of the year she must realize that she is a better and broader-minded woman on account of the personal contact with so many noble-minded women.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. CHARLES D. BURT,
Fourth Vice-President.

In Memoriam: Mrs. W. S. Bartlett.

One night lately, we stood upon a hill, looking up at a sky resplendent as only California or a tropical sky can be. The vault of heaven was not black but distinctly blue; and from its vast convexity the stars shot threads of gold. The Evening Star hung low and her brilliant rays quivered in a pool at our feet. Beyond, in the velvety depths of the sky were myriads of other constellations, too distant to be grasped by the unaided eye; yet they were rushing through infinite space at terrific speed; never colliding; never swerving; each in its predestined orbit, held true to its course by the Power which created it.

Suddenly a black cloud rose upon the horizon, and silently, swiftly, covered half the sky. The stars went out like snuffed candles. Where light and beauty had been but a moment before, impenetrable darkness! terrifying mystery! Emotional fear shook our hearts, although we knew that the earth-mist had but veiled our eyes and left the stars untouched. Above it they went their serene way, unquenched; unwavering. The glory of the sun alone can dim the stars.

Is not this a parable of human life? By apparently uncharted ways it moves on. Joy and sorrow; laughter and tears; tragedy and fulfillment; accomplishment and failure; every path however devious, guided by a Divine Hand, leading to one goal, Eternity. Death is but an incident of the way; it ends nothing; it is but a hyphen connecting Yesterday with Tomorrow. The stream of life may plunge through a dark cavern; but it emerges beyond in Elysian fields and sunshine which knows no twilight.

We say with falling tears. "Our friend is dead." We know she is living on, beyond the earth-mist which blinds us. Work without friction; attainment beyond earth's fondest hope; happiness unalloyed; these are hers. As we stand affrighted at the mouth of the tomb, an Angel cries to us as he did to the women of old, "Why stand ye here, seeking the living among the dead? She is not here; she is risen." And the influence of her life abides.

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

"No stream from its source
Flows seaward, however lonely its course
But that some land is gladdened.
No star ever rose and set without influence somewhere.
No life
Can be pure in its purpose and strong in its strife
And all life not be stronger and purer thereby.
Honest love, honest sorrow,
Honest work for the day, honest hope for the morrow
Are these worth nothing more than the hand they make weary,
The heart they have sadden'd, the life they leave dreary?
Hush! the sevenfold heavens to the voice of the Spirit
Echo: He that o'er-cometh shall all things inherit."

It will be our fault if the work of Eleanor Toll's life dies. The Ebell she loved, which has looked to her for inspiration and leadership, must catch her standard as it falls from her hand, and carry it to the heights which were her goal; then the way lighted by the after-glow of her presence, will lead us to the fulfillment of her purposes.

FRANKLIN GRAY BARTLETT.

Report of the Federation Committee

THE Federation Committee of the Ebell of Los Angeles for the year 1925-1926 has consisted of a Chairman from the Board of Directors, an Assistant Chairman, and twenty department chairmen who represented Ebell at the meetings of the Los Angeles District, C. F. W. C. The departments with which they cooperated were those corresponding to the activities and departments of Ebell.

The members have visited the monthly conferences, reported to the Chairman, who in turn has carried the report to the Executive Committee of Ebell. They have attended special conferences of the State and District Federation. Many delegates to the State and District Conventions were chosen from their number. These chairmen have carried the Ebell message and spirit to the conference meetings and cooperated in the plans, programs, and activities of the Federation.

The Federation Secretary wishes to acknowledge her sincere appreciation of the splendid response and beautiful spirit of cooperation which her Assistant, Mrs. Sidney J. Parsons and the Chairmen of this Committee have shown, thus making another year of the Federation Committee an unqualified success.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. WILLIAM LUKE JONES,
Chairman Federation Committee.

Report of the General Curator

NEW features and new personalities appear each year in our departments. This year the Public Affairs Department was organized under the Curatorship of Mrs. John Stearns Thayer. It has made a splendid start and with the change of meeting time to the second Wednesday of the month, it will be a good place for a clearing house of ideas. The programs have been well conceived.

The ordinary history of departments abounds in inspiration. It leads us to believe that when we have individually and collectively assumed larger tasks, we continue equal to the tasks already assumed.

Five curators continued to serve as leaders in their respective departments, and we have welcomed eight new curators and two new chairmen.

Mrs. W. S. Bartlett, who has so ably served our Club in many capacities, needed no introduction to the Art and Travel Department. She presided over seven regular meetings and one evening meeting. On the programs were fifteen speakers, ten of whom were members. A new feature at each meeting, which met with much interest, was a ten minute review of the current exhibits in the Museums and Art Galleries of our City. These were given by Mrs. Mary Mendenhall Perkins, Assistant Curator.

To the Better American Speech Department came as Curator, Mrs. Zoe Ballard Shively. We regret that she does not continue the allotted two years, but the Department unites in thanking her for her efficient leadership. There were held fourteen regular meetings, one luncheon, and six radio talks for Better Speech Week. Thirty-five speakers including Club members took part in these programs. Many prominent men and women, teachers, attorneys, actors, and business men have addressed the Department, gladly doing their bit for Better Speech. The pronunciation and good usage discussion at each meeting has been of great interest and benefit to members. It is with our hearty greeting that Mrs. J. Elbert Harshman comes as next year's Curator.

We find ourselves very proud of our French and Spanish Departments. It is a real privilege to study under the instruction of Mademoiselle Madeleine Letessier or

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

Señora Maria Lopez de Lowther. Each department is divided into three groups, meeting weekly. Both beginners and more advanced students will be welcomed. Our hearty approval of the work of the new Curators, Mrs. R. E. Filcher and Mrs. Franklyn Rauscher, is extended.

Mrs. Sumner P. Hunt, Curator of the Psychology Department, found it necessary to resign early in the year, and her assistant, Mrs. Edgar S. Stanley, has carried on in admirable fashion. There have been book and magazine reviews and addresses by psychologists, sociologists, and members of the medical profession who are actively engaged in their respective lines. It is gratifying that Mrs. Stanley continues as next year's Curator.

In the Shakespeare Department, Mrs. Norman D. Hall closed her two-year period as Curator. Having a profound knowledge of Shakespeare and being most conscientious in the performance of her duties, she leaves a record of work well done. The plays read were Richard III and Hamlet. There were many delightful papers and enthusiastic discussions by the members. The mantle falls on Mrs. William H. Bryan next year. It is always a privilege to hear Mr. Frederick Warde, and we were favored with three lectures on Henry VIII, Hamlet, and Women of Shakespeare. We rejoice that he so graciously calls us "Fellow Club Members." Long may he live!

Another Curator who has served her term of office is Mrs. A. H. Purdue of the Drama Department. But we gladly announce that she takes the Chairmanship of the Drama Workshop. Different phases of modern drama were depicted through talks as well as through the reading and the producing of plays. The Ebell Juniors had charge of one of the two programs from the Drama Workshop, and the Catholic Woman's Club gave a play. Bel Buel Reticke presented in an original way a drama that she had written for the Department. We wish to express our thanks to Mrs. Purdue for earnest, interested and efficient work.

Closely akin to Drama is Music, and Mrs. Ernest James Dill, Curator, has closed a profitable and entertaining year's work. She held seven regular meetings and one evening meeting. The outstanding feature was that each program was made a unit unto itself with the speaker and the music expressing the same thought. We are under obligation to many professional musicians and appreciate their willing cooperation. It is planned next year to have the Music Department meet on the third Wednesday afternoon of each month. We have been fortunate in securing Mrs. Guy Frederick Bush as Curator.

Mrs. Lurah C. Davis, Art Exhibits Chairman, has delighted us with exhibitions of high order. It has been said repeatedly that "We Americans do not take art seriously enough." In Ebells we do not consider it a luxury, a decoration. We feel it is one of the necessities of life, of life in the sense intended by Wordsworth when he wrote, we live by "admiration, hope and love." However, we do not want to confound appreciation with knowledge. Art is a living thing, therefore a constantly growing and changing thing. Mrs. Davis has a strong committee and we look for great exhibits next year.

Mrs. Harry C. Bender takes the Curatorship of the Drama Department, having served as Chairman of the Drama Workshop. The Drama Workshop presented various scenes from Shakespeare in commemoration of the author's birthday; twelve one-act plays, one of which was original, being written by the worthy Chairman, Mrs. Bender, and one three-act play by Robert Browning. These plays were given for Monday afternoons, the Drama Department, Junior programs, the Browning Department, and at the New Members' luncheon. With the exception of two characters all of the acting was done by regular and Junior members of Ebells. Many of the costumes were designed by Mrs. John W. Monahan and made by Club members under her direction.

Our ideal, that we emphasize quality rather than quantity, has been exemplified in the Browning Department where the new Curator, Mrs. Milton K. Young, has led the members to real enjoyment of Robert Browning. The outstanding meeting was given by the Drama Workshop when The Blot in the Scutcheon was presented.

Mrs. Lena Leonard Fisher, Curator of the Bible Literature Department, has had a conspicuous record not only in teaching, but lecturing before large audiences and assemblies in many states. The proof of her leadership was the enthusiasm of the members. We bespeak your attendance next year.

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

The Parliamentary Law Instructor, Mrs. Charles S. McKelvey, has had a remarkable term as Curator of this worth while Department. It is impossible to review her Department without a fresh sense of the strength and devotion embodied in her work. It is not too much to say that she is regarded as a real authority not only in our own Club, but throughout the state. We hope many more will avail themselves of the privilege of this Department.

With great gratification, we announce that Mrs. Jack Valley continues as Curator of the Books and Current Literature Department for a third year. This is in answer to an insistent demand. Mrs. Valley has won a place in the hearts of the members, and she will continue her timely lectures and close analysis of the work of writers of established fame. In addition, she will continue a general survey of recent novels, magazines, and poetry.

The General Curator ventures in behalf of the Executive Committee warmly to recognize the service rendered by all who have shared in the work of the departments during the past year. Especially would she mention the Assistant General Curator, Mrs. James W. Johnson, who has been a tower of strength, doing her part faithfully and well.

We all rejoice in the deepening of interest in higher education. It would be rash to say that this great influx of students springs from a pure love of learning, but it offers a challenge to us as women to fan the flame and keep it burning. We also believe that the interchange of kindly words and the clasp of friendly hands are essential to the healthy life of every woman.

Respectively submitted,

MRS. HARRY A. FORD, General Curator.

Report of Art Exhibits Committee

The efforts of this Committee have been directed toward the stimulation of interest in the product of Southern California artists, many of whom have brought distinction to this country through the excellence of their work.

The first exhibition of the past club year was a collection of paintings by William Wendt, Norman Chamberlain, Jack Wilkinson Smith, Hanson Puthoff, Roscoe Schrader, and Carl Oscar Borg. This was followed by eight one-man shows by Karl Yens, Herbert Von Blarcom Acker, Benjamin C. Brown, Franz A. Bischoff, Jean Mannheim, Anna Hills, Mabel Alvarez, and Leland Curtis.

In the Tea Room was shown a continuous exhibition of miniatures by members of the California Miniature Society; pencil portraits by Herman Amlauer; decorative design by Douglass Donaldson; landscape paintings by Power O'Malley, H. C. Bradley, Mrs. Will E. Francis, and Mrs. William Allen Ward.

As a direct result of these exhibitions, four paintings were sold.

During the year a large canvas was purchased by Ebell from Benjamin C. Brown for the Club House, and named by a Club member, Sentinels of the Snow.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. LURAH C. DAVIS, Chairman of Exhibits.

Report of the Benefits and Entertainments Committee

THROUGHOUT the year, the beautiful spirit of service to Ebell has been shown by the way in which everyone has cooperated to make the parties a social as well as a financial success.

The first party, on October thirtieth, was a bridge luncheon held in the Fiesta Ballroom of the Ambassador Hotel. It enabled us to send a check for $1000 to Ebell. On December third a Christmas tea, held at the Ebell Club House, netted $908.49. February eleventh, a bridge tea was given in the ballroom of the Biltmore Hotel, clearing $1,066. The last party was held at the Club Casa Del Mar, Santa Monica. The proceeds were $1,086.55. The total for the year was $4,061.04. The parties were all enjoyable and the guests were well pleased.

The Committee wishes to thank the Executive Committee and the President, Mrs. Read, for their encouragement and appreciation throughout the year.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. WILLIAM J. WILSON, Chairman.

EBELL REST COTTAGE ASSOCIATION, 135 North Park View

Report of the Ebell Rest Cottage Association

HIGH above the fogs of the valley, a woman is contentedly supporting herself on a small chicken ranch. When she first came to the Cottage after thirteen months in the General Hospital, she was a hopeless victim of asthma, as dejected an individual as might be imagined.

The magic wand waved to effect this transformation was the loving interest and untiring efforts of the Follow-up Committee of the Ebell Rest Cottage Association. Years have been spent re-establishing her as a normal citizen with a happy outlook on life. She is only one of scores of women who return to the Cottage as to a home each Christmas.

The women on the Committees representing the Association have tried to make "Once a guest of Ebell, always a friend," a reality rather than a well turned phrase. To accomplish this they have been big sisters, advisers, financial agents, instructors, chaperones, and bureaus of general information. Whatever difficulty was brought to the hospitable walls of 135 North Park View, some member of Ebell was found willing to give of her time to help solve the problem.

Ranging in age from fifteen to ninety, the guests of the past year have represented twelve nationalities and have been engaged in fifty-three different occupations. Seventy-four were able, upon leaving the Cottage to resume self-support.

Five hundred sixty-three (563) memberships have been taken out; three hundred eighty-four (384) Associate, one hundred eighteen (118) Contributing, fifty-three (53) Sustaining, six (6) Life, and three (3) Memorial.

The overwhelming success of the parties arranged by the Benefits and Entertainments Committee has added the gratifying sum of $2030.50 to the Treasury and has helped to make possible the purchase of three one thousand dollar bonds for the Endowment Fund. Thirteen thousand dollars carefully invested in sound securities now represents the Endowment Fund.

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

Last year a generous bequest, which came quite unsolicited, was enthusiastically noted in our minutes and year book. This year we realize that our eagerness in planning the good which might be accomplished with the money was a little premature for it will be December before the Court decides whether the gift is legally ours. According to the laws of this state, the donor's death having occurred within two weeks after the will was written, the bequest may be invalidated.

From the Advisory Board, consisting of our Past-Chairmen, came the suggestion that Memorial Memberships be added as a loving way to express tender memories in active service and three such memberships were immediately subscribed.

Thanks to Miss Fulmer's School, the usual generous donation of Thanksgiving baskets was made. Seventy guests were entertained at Christmas dinner at the Cottage. Our gratitude is due the Ebell Juniors for the decorations and to Mrs. Lena Leonard Fisher and her daughter for a most enjoyable program.

Minor repairs have been made upon the Cottage, a garden walk and an incinerator added and everything necessary done to keep it a haven of rest created by women blessed with some degree of leisure for the rehabilitation of women to whom rest and relaxation has been only a dream.

This work fills a long felt want among the constructive agencies of the city and the opportunity for happy service is so great that every Ebell member will find a warm welcome awaiting her in the Association.

Respectfully submitted,

MISS HELEN V. SWITZER,
Secretary Ebell Rest Cottage Association.

If real estate, use: "I hereby give and devise to The Ebell of Los Angeles that real property described as follows:....."

If the desire is to leave money or real estate with the intention that only the interest or income therefrom shall be used for the maintenance of Rest Cottage, then add to the above forms as follows: to the first, "and I direct that said sum of money be safely invested and the interest or other proceeds arising therefrom shall be used for said purpose."

Report of the Practical Relief Committee

THE work of the Practical Relief Committee has become so well known and has grown to such proportions that it is necessary to change the policy and give aid only to those who can be helped to help themselves. The interest is centered in the scholarship and school girls, Rest Cottage guests, and disabled veterans.

This Committee has held 49 meetings with an average attendance of 18 and an enrollment of 44 members. It has received 3532 garments and articles including 300 from the Needlework Guild; 4451 have been given out; and 1325 new garments made, which include 18 knitted sweaters, 17 rag rugs, 2 graduating dresses with slips, and the remodelling of 41 dresses and coats. Help was given 10 organizations and 300 persons.

Receipts for the year were $1340.41. This sum came from the Ebell Treasury, the Benefit Committee, donations, and the sale of articles and clothing. The disbursements were $1207.41, leaving a balance of $133.00, June 1st, 1926.

In August, 1925, the Santa Barbara Woman's Club asked for clothing for the school children who were in need following the earthquake. Complete outfits for 48 girls ranging from 8 to 14 years of age were sent them.

At Christmas time, 48 baskets, each containing a bountiful dinner and supplemented with a basket of fresh vegetables were sent to the Disabled Veterans Association, Post 1. Rest Camp, the tuberculosis camp of Post 1, was given a turkey dinner and with this gift were sent toys and clothing. Ebell members donated $232.85 for this purpose. Three other organizations were remembered with clothing and toys.

Again I acknowledge the devoted service and sacrifice of the members of this Committee and express my sincere appreciation of the cooperation of the officers and members of the Club.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. T. J. FLETCHER,
Chairman Practical Relief Committee.

Report of the Scholarship Committee

DURING the year 1925-26 the scholarship roll of Ebell has contained the names of nineteen different girls, who have received scholarships from Ebell for all or a portion of the school year. Thirteen girls were carried through the first semester of the year and sixteen through the second semester. Twelve of these scholarships are those regularly maintained by Ebell, the remainder being special scholarships given by individual members of the Club.

Of the sixteen girls carried through the latter part of the year, one was a student at the University of Southern California, eleven were attending the Southern Branch of the University of California, three were in High Schools of the city, and one was a music student.

The sources of income for carrying on the work of this Department are, first, Ebell Treasury (six hundred dollars annually); second, interest from Scholarship Endowment Fund bonds; third, special scholarships and gifts from members; fourth, the Scholarship Department's share of the money derived from the benefit parties given by the Benefits and Entertainments Committee. The splendid support of this Committee during the past year is gratefully acknowledged.

In awarding Ebell scholarships it is kept in mind that the scholarship is an honor award. Applicants are considered as to scholarship, character, and qualities of leadership in student activities. Most of the girls who have been receiving Ebell scholarships are honor students.

For the Scholarship Chairman there are two most gratifying angles to the work of this department: pride in Ebell for the inspiration and encouragement given the young women in their struggles for an education, and the joy of contact with the girls themselves and of receiving for Ebell their heartfelt words of gratitude and appreciation. We are most grateful for two years of happy service to Ebell in the Scholarship department.

Report of the President of the Ebell Juniors

THE Ebell Juniors, a department of Ebell, has just completed its fifth year. This Department came into existence five years ago with forty charter members. At the close of this year there are one hundred seventy-nine members.

The Junior Department of Ebell is deeply grateful to the President and to the Executive Committee for the splendid and generous way in which they have aided and supported it. Through them we have come into a fuller realization of the true value of club life. We have tried to follow Ebell's ideals of service and self development during the past year. Along the lines of service, we have established a Child Welfare Department. This Department has held ten meetings, at which garments for two large families have been made, and shoes, stockings, and other necessities furnished. Sixty gifts were sent to the Christmas Tree for the orphans of the World War Veterans. The Chairman of this Department, Mrs. Donald Forker, has attended Federation Conferences each month and has served as a member of the Child Placement Committee. Fifty dollars was sent to the Juvenile Protective Association for emergency cases. The new Junior Board has voted to continue this practise until November first.

The Drama Department, under the direction of Mrs. Charles Axiom Chamberlain, and working through the Drama Workshop of Ebell, has presented six plays, and our members have taken part in and assisted with a number of other plays and programs. We have had the privilege of presenting two Monday programs.

The Junior Department has held nine regular monthly meetings. The programs under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Maude, have been entertaining and instructive.

October, Musical: Elsie Manion, Violinist; Homer Simmons, Pianist.

November, Talk: Dressing to Your Type (Illustrated by a Fashion Show), Mrs. Isabelle Stockland.

December, Vaudeville.

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

January, Motion Picture: "The Doctor." Personal Appearance of Richard Headrick.

Piano Solos by Mrs. Alice Ripley.

Motion Picture of Juniors taken at October meeting.

February, Children's Program: Billy Hill, Maurice Murphy, and Jacqueline Wells.

March, Plays: "The Conflict" and "The Rehearsal," from the Drama Workshop, presented by the Juniors.

April, An Illustrated Talk on Art: Mr. Earl L. Stendahl.

Group of Songs: Helen Lem, Chinese Soprano.

May, Plays: "The Sweet-Meat Game" and "The Basket" by the Drama Workshop, presented by the Juniors.

Burmese Dance by Mrs. Porter Tillman McColloch.

June, Annual Luncheon and Installation of Officers.

There have been seven informal monthly meetings at the homes of various members where the girls have enjoyed Bridge and have become better acquainted. A fee of twenty-five cents has amply taken care of all expenses. Mrs. Robert Dale Bacheller has made these parties a genuine success.

Three benefits have been given during the year, a Society Circus at the Club House, a dinner dance at the Woman's Athletic Club, and a bridge luncheon at the Ambassador Hotel. These three benefits under the direction of Miss Alice Elizabeth Warmbath netted $407.80.

An invitational dance in May was well attended. The Japanese decorations arranged by Mrs. Lawrence Vernon Overell and her committee added much to the pleasure of the evening.

The Annual Luncheon and Installation of Officers in June closed a very happy and successful club year.

Two additional privileges have been granted the members of the Junior Department: twenty-five members may attend each regular Monday meeting and the Junior Board has been given the privilege of passing on applications for Junior Membership before they are presented to the Executive Committee for final approval.

With sincere appreciation of the splendid support of chairmen and members of the Junior Department, this report is

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. LOREN WILLARD BABCOCK,
President of the Ebell Juniors.

Charter Day.

The twenty-seventh day of October of each year shall be known as "Charter Day," commemorating the organization of the Club. A reception in honor of this event shall be given on the last Monday in October, when the members of the Club may be presented to the newly elected officers.

ARTICLE XVII.

Notice of Meetings.

No notice need be given of any of the stated meetings of this Club, or of the Board of Directors, or of any of the committees or other convening bodies of the Club, the time of holding of which is fixed by these By-Laws. Any of such meetings may be adjourned to a day certain, even though less than a quorum be present, and no further notice of such adjourned meeting need be given, and any business may be done at such adjourned meeting which might have been transacted at the original meeting. Notice of all special meetings must be given, either personally or through the mail, or by posting on the Bulletin Board for such reasonable time as the officer calling the special meeting may prescribe.

Whereas, the provisions of these By-Laws require the signature of each member of THE EBELL CLUB, and those who have already signed the By-Laws of the Club have, by such signing, bound and pledged themselves to abide by the Laws and Regulations of the Club, therefore we do hereby, in signing the same pledge ourselves also to abide by these Laws and Regulations.
