President's Report

1919-1920

THIS is an important date in the annals of the Club—the end of its twenty-fifth year—a quarter of a century in which constant thought, united effort and purpose have made the aspirations and sentiments of Ebell's founders, the promise and hope of its beginning, a glad reality.

Thirteen Presidents, with able Directors and faithful, devoted Executive Committees, have presided over its destiny; and I would that space permitted me to call the splendid roll of these, who have been wise in counsel, rich in hope, firm in command, intrepid in deed, and consecrated in service; truly an heroic group, who have made a place for Ebell unrivalled in the Club world of today.

As the reports show, the Programs and Departments have maintained the excellence of other years, and some unusual features have been added.

First, a reception to Secretary and Mrs. Daniels and the officers of the Pacific Fleet. Secretary and Mrs. Daniels and Mayor Snyder made interesting speeches on the importance and significance of having for the first time the Pacific Coast defences guarded by ships of the Navy. This reception was programmed as one of the official entertainments of the city; and in addition to this, Ebell was the only Woman's Club that contributed to the city's fund for its celebration and welcome to the fleet.

Then there was an evening meeting in April to honor Shakespeare's birthday. The gifted and beloved actor, Mr. Frederick Warde, gave a most eloquent and illuminating lecture on "Shakespeare and His Plays." It is hoped that the Club will make this an annual feast.

Later, Mrs. Minnie Maddern Fiske, dear to the hearts of all lovers of the drama, was the inspiration for a reception and tea. She spoke with great charm and feeling of some of her humanitarian ideals.

The guest luncheons have proven most attractive, and among the distinguished visitors bringing messages from all parts of the world were Mr. L. N. Brunswig with Canon Gibbs B. Canabel of the Cathedral of Montpelier, France, who served as Chaplain of the Blue Devils; Hon. Sheridan Bickers of London, who was returning after two years' service in Russia; Miss Laura G. Beecroft of Jerusalem; Mrs. T. R. N. Cama, a Parsee, of Poona, India; Mr. Raymond Blathway, literary and dramatic critic of London; and from the same English metropolis came Capt. Harry de Wendt, author and traveler; Col. Jack Rose of New York, National Chairman of the National Guard, with the message of that organization. Dr. R. B. von Kleinsmid, President of the University of Arizona, and Miss Helen Taft, Acting President of Bryn Mawr, gave timely talks on education. Dr. Aurelia Reinhart, President of Mills College, was a delightful speaker, and Madame Baronovsky of Russia proved most charming in her dramatic stories of her own land. Senator Robert N. Owen, accompanied by Mrs. Owen, gave an earnest plea for some needed legislation.

The exhibition of pictures, each week, secured by the Art Exhibits Committee, Mrs. William S. Bullis, Chairman, has lent interest and beauty to the Auditorium.

One of the unusual attractions brought to light was the display of the rare old laces of Mrs. Cameron Shute of London, pronounced by connoisseurs the largest and finest collection in the world.

The Honor Roll Book of the Club has been completed and presented. It bears the name and service of those who went from the homes and hearts of Ebell to the great World War.

Mrs. A. B. Cooke, Chairman of the War Service Memorial, is busy with plans for a fountain for the patio, that shall further honor and perpetuate the memory of these soldiers.

At the request of Mr. Perry for a history of Ebell for the City Library, the Directors of the Club asked Miss Mattie H. Wilson (a beloved Charter member, closely identified with every interest of the Club all these years) to write the story of Ebell. Miss Wilson generously performed this task, and copies of it may be found in the Public Library and in the library of the Club. The Club library has been greatly improved and more books added than in any period of its history. Mrs. Parsons and her committee have done faithful and efficient work, and it has been their desire to make the library meet the needs and ideals of the Club.

Ebell has been active in all civic matters, and the President has been called upon to assist on many boards and committees. Notably: the only woman on the Executive Committee of the City Planning Commission; active in securing improved conditions in the City Jail; attended meetings of the League of the Southwest, with its great reclamation project; asked by Supervisors to view the devastation caused by forest fires, and to assist in replanting of trees; invited with a Committee of Ten by Governor Wm. D. Stephens to discuss the special call of the State Legislature to ratify the Federal Amendment for Woman's Suffrage, and gave time and attention to many other calls that cannot be noted here.

The reports of the Treasurer, Mrs. Lewis Clark Carlisle, and the Chairman of Social Service, Mrs. C. N. Flint, show the generous hand of Ebell. It has aided every worthy cause and assisted in every reconstructive call at home and abroad; but the social service efforts of Ebell in the future will find expression in Rest Cottage, and the educational fund—the Scholarship. Full records of this work will be found in the reports of the Chairmen of these two committees, Mrs. William Read and Mrs. Ilot Johnson. Liberal contributions, and a genuine interest in the worth and work of Rest Cottage, give the "blessed assurance" of a new building in the very near future.

The Scholarship has become a vital part of the Club work this year—the foundation of a very definite and a very fine plan to give opportunity to worthy young people who desire and need it. Surely there can be no higher aim than this,—and this is but the beginning, the cornerstone on which is to be built a better and a finer citizenship, and in which all the members of Ebell can aid.

The most important event of the year was the purchase of the lot ( $89\frac{1}{2} \times 187$  feet) on the corner of Figueroa and Eighteenth Streets, for \$50,000.00, and for which the Club has been offered \$80,000.00. This speaks in no uncertain tones of the wisdom of this addition to the Club's holdings. The ground has been leased and is being laid out as a beautiful garden, which adds greatly to the attractiveness of the Club House. To pay for this property means sacrifice and economy, for a few years at least, but the vision of the women of Ebell has always been broad and true, their generosity and loyalty have never failed, and they will respond to this demand.

May I not add just one personal word as I resign my cherished charge to the able guardianship of my successor, Mrs. Toll. First, I would express my thanks now and ever more for your courtesy, kindness, helpfulness and encouragement at all times. Whatever of success there has been in the Club the past two years, you were the cause and inspiration of it all. Last, I would urge upon each one of you, your individual responsibility to your Club. If each of you do your part, our lot will be paid for this next year, and I am sure that this combined effort for our Club, for its present necessities, and its future development as a vital factor in our greater city, will be a bond that shall unite us more closely than ever. It may mean self-denial and work, but may it also be to each of us "the further seal of mental comradeship, the earnest of larger joys, and a lift to higher levels."

MRS. MATTHEW S. ROBERTSON, President.

Report of the Recording Secretary

1919-1920

THE year 1919-20 will go down in the annals of history as the period of greatest unrest the world has ever known; the aftermath of four years of war has been strikes and labor agitation of every sort; to keep abreast of the times and to do the wise thing has been no easy task; to be progressive and yet not be radical; to reach out a helping hand to our less prosperous brother, and yet care for our own, has been Ebell's constant endeavor. Looking ever upward and onward, Ebell has passed another milestone, and forged another link in the chain of progression that has ever marked her growth.

Under the skillful leadership of our President, Mrs. Matthew Robertson, Ebell has occupied a prominent place in the civic life of the community, cooperating with the Chamber of Commerce and the Municipal League in all movements for the betterment of public welfare.

In August, during the vacation period, Ebell threw open her doors and entertained in honor of Mrs. Daniels, the wife of the Secretary of the Navy, and the visiting ladies of the Pacific squadron of the fleet.

On October 27th, Ebell paid tribute to her charter members, whose far-seeing effort and wise endeavor paved the way for the great organization that now bears the name Ebell.

April 23rd, Ebell inaugurated her first Shakespearian Commemoration program. The presence of Mr. Frederick Warde, the eminent Shakespearian actor, as speaker of the evening, combined with the large and cultured audience, composed of many prominent in club and literary world, made this a notable event.

On June 4th, Ebell was again hostess, honoring the great actress, Mrs. Minnie Maddern Fiske, with a reception.

The Monday meetings have presented diversified programs that have always sustained the high standard of excellence Ebell prides herself upon maintaining; no easy task in these days of inflated prices and doubtful propaganda.

Mrs. Jay B. Millard, as Chairman of program, has been indefatigable in securing speakers and artists of note, and many world-famous personages have appeared upon Ebell's platform the past year. We have sipped the honey from the dew, carried upon the wings of enchantment, as we have listened to such singers as Lawrence Strauss, Estelle Heartt-Dreyfus, Mme. Clara Pasvolsky, Signor Companio, Maurine Dyer and Povl Bjornskjold; we have wandered in Elysian fields as Mme. Petschnikoff, Anne Thompson, Mme. Roumanova, Olga Steeb, Mrs. Simonsen, the Zoellner Quartette, Gertrude Ross and many others have charmed our souls by their magic fingers. East and West, North and South, England, France, Russia, Italy, Persia, Chaldea, India and China, as well as our own country, have given of their store in the lecture field.

From these aeroplanes of lofty intellect we have viewed the mingling of colors and music in modern painting; imbibed the wisdom of Persian ancients; heard the call of desolate France and the plans of Miss Anne Morgan for its relief; listened to the horror of Bolshevik-ridden Russia; culled the gems of literature with Hugh Walpole; Granville Barker and Coningsby Dawson have magnetized us with their plans for reconstruction; we have bridged the chasm between the mystic poetry of Yeats and Kreymborg's free verse; viewed the movies through the dispassionate eyes of Dr. Burton, and come safely to land again from Paris to New York with Captain de Wendt.

Two Ebell programs were given by past Presidents of the Club, Mrs. Robert Burdette speaking upon "World Citizenship" and Mrs. W. S. Bartlett upon "The Democracy of the Bible."

At Christmas time, Ebell was hostess to the children of the Club.

Two dramatic programs have been staged during the year, their effectiveness much enhanced by the beautiful new stage curtains and the newly installed lighting system.

Ebell has welcomed to her platform Captain Henri de Negre, of the French High Commission; Mr. Waddia, a Parsee from India; Miss Mary Conan Doyle, daughter of the famous author; Miss Emily Morrison, from Sleigleton Farms, the celebrated reform school of Pennsylvania; Mrs. George Black, wife of the Commissioner of the Yukon; Carrie Jacobs Bond and many others.

Two exhibits of unusual quality added to the pleasure of Ebell's programs; one a very rare collection of laces loaned by Mrs. Cameron Shute; the other an exhibition of the "Paintings of the Orient," rare Oriental rugs, forming the background for an unusually artistic program on June 21st.

The following resolutions have been endorsed during the year: October 6th—An amendment to the By-Laws. December 15th—Endorsing the creating of a Federal Commission to investigate the needs of the California Indians; a Resolution asking the County Supervisors to take action for flood control by planting young trees in the area devastated by recent forest fires; a Resolution asking the State Highway Commission to finish the highways leading to the boundaries of the State. March 1st—An Amendment to the By-Laws. April 26th—A Resolution advocating the establishment of a municipal farm. May 10th—A Resolution endorsing the Shepley-Towner Bill, creating a bureau for maternal and infant hygiene; a Resolution advocating an increase in teachers' salaries.

"Incentives come from the soul's self." The soul of Ebell through years of fruitful endeavor has expanded with that breadth of vision and forgetfulness of self that is the heritage of all who serve humanity.

MRS. JOHN S. THAYER, Secretary.

Report of the General Curator

ANOTHER milestone has been passed in Ebell's history, and a report of the Department work of 1919-20 records thirteen departments, with total attendance of 9085; 696 members were enrolled, and 1012 guests attended the 195 meetings.

Following is a brief resume of the work of the departments in rotation, according to the days of the week.

The Browning Section, Mrs. Edward Crumley, Curator, studied poems illustrative of the two dominating principles of Browning's art: the progress of the soul through effort, and the infinite issues latent in commonplace affairs. Half the year's study was devoted to "Paracelsus" and "La Saisiaz." Besides excellent work of members, an interesting lecture on "The Poetic Beauty of Paracelsus" was given by Professor Paul Spencer Wood of the University of Southern California. The closing meeting of the year was an "Afternoon" complimentary to the Section given at the home of Miss Florence Riley, Assistant Curator.

The Parliamentary Law Department under the leadership of Mrs. Charles S. McKelvey, Curator and Instructor, had a successful and interesting year's work, marked by increased and prompt attendance, and earnest, enthusiastic study. The course included not only the right thing to say at the right time, but why it should be said, thus making for intelligent use of all motions.

The Choral Department, Mrs. B. F. Nance, Curator, Mrs. Abbie Norton-Jamison, Director, Mrs. Mamie Ashley Franklin, Accompanist, has been conducted along the lines of a study section, with special reference to improvement in sight-singing, and some of the principles underlying the fundamentals of music; the class slogan being, "An open mind, an open ear and an open throat." Twenty-three new songs by American composers were studied; and thirty-two meetings were held, attesting the interest and diligence of the members.

The Emerson Section with Mrs. Emerson Clyde Gates, Curator, read the following essays: "Poetry and Imagination," "Social Aims," "Eloquence," "Resources," and "The Comic," supplemented by many of the poems elucidating the thoughts of the essays. Many interesting and worth-while papers were given by members on subjects pertaining to Emerson's life, friends and neighbors, and the influences molding his thought. A comprehensive paper on the Chinese philosopher, "Laotzu," was given by Professor William H. Knight; and at the last meeting of the year, Dr. E. Stanton Hodgkin presented a scholarly address entitled "The Re-discovery of America."

Unusual interest and large attendance has marked the meetings of the English Section under Mrs. Laura P. Joyce, Curator. Mrs. Harry Purdon, Instructor, during October and November, brought many new words to the attention of the class. In January Mrs. Purdon found it necessary to resign; and Mrs. Ilot Johnson assumed Instructorship, taking charge of the vocabulary work of the class, assisted by Miss Anne Smith, ortho-epist; Mrs. Charles Burt directing the grammatical construction and choice of diction. The class sincerely regretted the resignation of Mrs. Frederick Beau de Zart, for three years the efficient Secretary of the Section. Miss Mildred Gray Bulfinch was appointed in her place, and has proven a worthy successor.

The Shakespearian Department, with Mrs. Edward A. Tufts and Mrs. Thomas R. Coles, Curators, spent an interesting year in the study of "Cymbeline," "King Lear" and "The Winter's Tale." A delightful and profitable part of the year's work was three interpretative lectures given by Miss Helen A. Brooks of the Cumnock School of Expression.

The Spanish Section, Mrs. Charles Burt, Curator, enjoyed a very profitable year under the direction of Señora Aurelia Borquez and Señora Claudina Alvarez. There were three classes. The books studied were "Spanish Conversations" (Borquez), Spanish Reader and Grammar (De Vitis) and "Fortuna" (Es- crich).

The lecture given by Miss M. Winifred Rouzee on "The Bible and World Events,—Past, Present and Future," aroused such interest that the Bible Department was revived and formally opened March 10th, with Mrs. W. S. Bartlett, Curator, and Miss Rouzee, Lecturer. Six addresses were given by this devoted scholar on the "Inspiration of the Scriptures"; giving the testimony of archaeology, as preserved in the British museum, the fulfilled prophecies, the corroboration of the highest science, the witness of the stars to inspiration, and the evidence of statesmen, business and professional men; all attesting proof of the authenticity and truth of the Bible.

The Social Science Department under the leadership of the Acting Curator, Mrs. Loren Crenshaw—the Curator, Mrs. A. D. Jack, being indefinitely out of the city,—held six regular meetings, at which book reviews, papers and addresses treating of world events, phases of national and community life from the sociological standpoint were given by competent speakers. Among these were William Roscoe Thayer's "Democracy, Discipline and Peace," and Basil King's "City of Comrades," reviewed respectively by Miss Gertrude Darlow and Mrs. Sumner P. Hunt; a paper, "In Wisdom's Way," by Mrs. Charles H. Toll; a talk on the "Relation of the Women's Council of Community Service to Other Social Agencies," by Mrs. J. T. Anderson; an address by Mrs. Susan M. Dorsey, Superintendent of Public Schools. Sharing the time with the Social Service Department, Mrs. William Read, Chairman, more than filled the hour from ten to eleven with reports from the Social Service and Rest Cottage Committees, and discussion of topics germane to the same. The meetings were followed by Special Guest Lunches, details of which appear in the President's report.

The Art and Travel Section, Mrs. William S. Bullis, Curator, enjoyed a varied program, travelling first to Constantinople, where an intimate glimpse of the lives of Turkish women was given by Mrs. Desborough, who resided for years in the home of a Turkish princess; from there a delightful trip around the Grecian Archipelago with Mrs. W. S. Bartlett; then on to our native land, visiting Alaska and the great northwest with Mrs. Charles N. Flint; in imagination, to far Ceylon, enjoying not only the history but the beautiful views of the buried cities, presented by Mrs. J. W. Hendricks.

The Art programs consisted of "Sir Joshua Reynolds and His Connection With Early American Art," by Miss Virginia Graeff; a lecture on "Interior Decoration," by Miss Caroline Wood; a comprehensive and instructive lecture on the "Art of Etching," by Mr. John W. Cotton. Mr. C. P. Townsley's lecture on Art, in April, was unfortunately omitted. The Department adjourned in respect to the memory of Mr. Daggett, late Curator of the Art Gallery at Exposition Park, whose obsequies were held that morning.

The Book and Current Literature Section, Mrs. Sidney J. Parsons, Curator, held seven meetings, two of which were devoted to Current Periodicals with Miss de Laguna, leader; a resume of the latest and best articles on Religion, Drama, Art, Philosophy and Sociology being given. The following books were reviewed: Johan Bojer's "Great Hunger," H. G. Wells' "Joan and Peter," "Soul of a Bishop" and "The Undying Fire"; Hugh Walpole's "Secret City," Ernest Poole's "The Village," "The Education of Henry Adams," and Samuel Butler's "Life and Letters," and "The Way of All Flesh." Mrs. Eugene T. Pettigrew gave a half hour to the reading of modern poets at each meeting.

The six meetings of the Drama Section, Miss Alice Louise Jones, Curator, offered a varied choice of subjects, presenting at the first program in October no less an authority than Miss Willamine Wilkes, in a "Survey of the Dramatic World of Today and Tomorrow." In January we were carried back to the beginning of things dramatic, by Mrs. W. S. Bartlett, who gave an illuminating paper on "The Religious Drama," followed by interpretative dances illustrating "The Dance in Religion," by Miss Martha Graham and Miss Nina Byron of the Denishawn School of Dancing; and a reading of Arnold

Bennett's play, "Judith," by Mrs. Gentry L. Hiatt. An interesting morning on "The Drama of the American Indian" was given by Mrs. B. W. Starkweather, supplemented by Indian Musical Themes by Mrs. Walter Raymond Gillette. Professor Anthony Faulkner Blanks of the University of Southern California gave in March a scholarly address on "The Function of the Drama in Americanization," followed by an eloquent reading of John Drinkwater's play, "Abraham Lincoln." Mr. Edward Everett Horton brought us down to date with an address on the "Stock Company and the Legitimate Actor." The last program was "The Child and the Theatre," elucidated by Miss Sybil Jones' address, "Play-Houses for Children."

The French Section, with Mrs. Frederick D. Sanborn and Mrs. Joel B. Gwynne, Curators, enjoyed a year of unusual progress under the inspiring and scholarly tutelage of Professor Louis F. D. Briois of the University Extension Course. The members again contributed to the support of the little French orphan. Mrs. Sanborn's resignation in February was reluctantly accepted. Mrs. Joel B. Gwynne graciously and generously assumed the Curatorship for the remainder of the year.

A record of the year's work would not be complete without mention of the enjoyable Department Luncheons, of which there were fourteen. The festal board was graced by the presence and messages of many notable personages in all lines of active thought and work in world affairs.

A luncheon followed each of the seven meetings of the Book Department. Among the guests and speakers entertained were: Mrs. H. W. R. Strong, Miss Nanna With, Journalist of Christiana, Miss Conan Doyle, Pauline Barrington, Mrs. Seiffert, Gene Stratton Porter, Mrs. Cameron Shute of London, Miss Elaine Inescort and Horace Wade.

The Drama Department gave two luncheons. The guests included Ruth St. Denis, Miss Martha Graham, Miss Nina Byron of Denishawn, Miss Gilmore Brown, Misses Alberta and Sybil Jones, Professor and Mrs. A. F. Blanks, Captain O'Davoren, Miss Naomi Bailey, Mme. Mana-Zucca and Mrs. Gobert.

Twice the Shakespeare Department extended its hospitality after Miss Helen A. Brooks' lectures. Mrs. Matthew S. Robertson and Miss Brooks were honor guests. Others entertained were Dr. Brooks, Mrs. Irving J. Mitchell, who gave an imitation of California "bird-calls," and Mrs. Charles A. Post. Mrs. Calvert Wilson and little daughter Ruth furnished a delightful musical program.

The Art and Travel Luncheon in March was in compliment to Mrs. Cecelia A. White, recently returned from over-seas service. Talks were given by Mrs. Cyrus W. Perkins, Chairman Art Department G. F. W. C., and Mrs. Herman Hall of the Art Institute, Chicago. Guests included Mrs. J. W. Hendricks and Mrs. Samuel Storrow, the President of the Ruskin Art Club.

The annual luncheon of the Browning-Emerson Departments was held May 4th, after a lecture entitled "In How Far Does the Poet's Art Express His Life?" by Miss Helen A. Brooks. At the luncheon table a galaxy of brilliant speakers added to the occasion: Miss Florence Weir Gilson, ex-President New York Browning Society; Mrs. Clara Bryant Heywood, President Pasadena Browning Club; Mrs. Kate L. S. Cummings, President L. A. Browning Club; Mrs. Emerson Clyde Gates, Dr. Bertha Lowe Dickinson, and Mr. Lee Nichols, English poet, playwright, soldier and interpreter. The Emerson Department had for its speakers, Mrs. Fred Betts, Miss Annette Foster of La Grange School, and Professor Paul Spencer Wood.

The combined luncheon of the three language sections was a great success. After an elaborate program of unusual merit in French, English and Spanish, given in the Auditorium, the participants and instructors were honored guests at luncheon. Greetings were given by the instructors, and toasts by the curators in French, English and Spanish.

Much praise and appreciation is due Miss Flora Hunter, Mrs. Florine Wolfstein and their assistants, who had charge of the luncheons and who provided beautiful decorations.

Always present was our beloved President, Mrs. Matthew S. Robertson, whose words of wit and wisdom from her versatile mind, and kindly message from her great heart, crowned every "feast of reason and flow of soul" with sweet remembrance.

A last word and a true word of affection and appreciation is extended to the curators and officers of the Departments for their unswerving coöperation and fidelity.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. WILLIAM H. MILLSAUGH, General Curator.

Ebell Rest Cottage

1305 West 95th Street

EBELL Rest Cottage, which 18 months ago was considered by some of our Ebell household a doubtful venture, stands today, July 1st, 1920, a justified instrument of Ebell for the helping of a few of the many women who frequently become hopeless invalids for the lack of a brief additional period of care-free convalescence.

For a record of the beginning and the history of the Rest Cottage Association, reference is made to the report of the first Chairman of the Association, now retiring, as found in the 1919-1920 Year Book.

A "Drive" during October, November and December of 1919, as reported by Mrs. W. A. Moses, Chairman, resulted in membership of 319 by December 30th. The present total is 345; this includes Associate, Contributing, Sustaining and Life members, of which last there are 12—Mrs. Sloan-Orcutt, Mrs. Ralph W. Avery, Mrs. E. M. Sloan, Mrs. Wm. B. Webb, Mrs. R. T. Burge, Mrs. Aurelia B. Ferguson, Mrs. R. B. Williamson, Mrs. Wm. T. Lewis, Mrs. Robert L. Gifford, Mrs. E. W. Moses, Mrs. Wm. A. Moses and Mrs. Benjamin F. Perkins.

Mrs. Edward C. Magauran, Chairman of House and Grounds, reports a total expenditure for the year of $142.46. This includes all in and out-door furnishings, and the labor and service therewith connected. A new bath tub and a beautiful Victrola with many fine records, the gifts respectively of Mrs. W. K. Parkinson and Mrs. Cummins B. Jones, are valued contributions to the comfort and pleasure of the dwellers at Rest Cottage. Seventy-one guests have been entertained during 1919-1920.

This report commends the service rendered by the matron, Mrs. J. A. Eby, who seems to have caught the spirit of Ebell's vision and to have put into her service that which is above price. The reports of Chairmen of Investigation, Follow-Up Work, Transportation, Johnson Apartments, Neighborhood Schools and Jail Committees present such an inspiring array of fact and comment, showing the possibilities of willing coöperation in service, that an impossible restraint is necessary to resist more than this passing mention. But when all the workers met, as they did on each Tuesday throughout the year, in the Sewing Room with Mrs. Gertrude R. Nash, and pooled their assets and resources, planning, delivering, receiving, segregating, cutting, basting, stitching, ripping, packing and storing, each according to her several ability and choice, service found ample reward in interchange of human interest.

The following totals taken from the annual report of the Custodian of the Rest Cottage and Social Service cupboards are most interesting: July 19, 1919, to June 19, 1920, garments distributed: men's, 1805; women's, 2503; boys', 2476; girls', 2325; infants', 2022; total, 11,131. Miscellaneous: household furnishings, 838 articles; pieces of furniture, 121; packages of food, 237; quarts of fruit, 190; glasses of jam and jelly, 230; Christmas gifts, 1309. We submit without comment the eloquent epitome of Mrs. William Irving Hollingsworth's report of the Rest Cottage benefit card party: "Delivered to the Treasurer of the Ebell Club, $1047.25."

In addition to five meetings of Rest Cottage Association with the Social Science Department, thirteen business meetings of the Rest Cottage Association Executive Committee have been held. Lack of space forbids chronicling interesting details.

The objective sought in this work is a foundation of friendship and mutual understanding and the energizing force, Faith that accepts no defeat and Love that never faileth.

Respectfully submitted,

MATTIE H. WILSON, Secretary.

Treasurer's Report

Resolutions

Establishing Ebell Rest Cottage Association

Whereas, There has been conveyed by Deed of Gift to The Ebell of Los Angeles certain property described as Lot 206 of Olivito Heights Tract, as per map recorded in Book 8, Page 47, of Maps in the office of Recorder of Los Angeles County, State of California, which property is known as and hereinafter referred to as Ebell Rest Cottage; and

Whereas, The terms and conditions on which said property was so conveyed required that it should be made a place of rest for women who, because of their physical condition, need rest and quiet for a period of time to enable them to resume their former occupation, and that it shall be maintained as such by The Ebell of Los Angeles; and

Whereas, It is unnecessary to adopt rules and regulations governing said property and to provide for its maintenance and to secure the funds necessary therefor by endowments, annuities, devises, bequests, memorials, gifts and contributions and to protect the donors thereof in accordance with such endowments, annuities, devises, bequests, memorials, gifts and contributions; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Board of Directors of The Ebell of Los Angeles, at a regular meeting on December 26th, 1918, that to carry out and make effective the terms and conditions of said gift, there is hereby organized from the membership of The Ebell of Los Angeles an association to be known as Ebell Rest Cottage Association.

Any member of The Ebell of Los Angeles who contributes $1.00 per month shall be a sustaining member of Ebell Rest Cottage Association and any member who contributes $1.00 per year shall be an associate member. Any person who contributes the sum of $100.00 may be made a life member of said association.

The officers of Ebell Rest Cottage Association shall consist of a Chairman, appointed by the Board of Directors of The Ebell of Los Angeles, a Secretary and a Treasurer elected by the Association. These officers with five Directors (two of whom shall be the President and the Chairman of Philanthropy of The Ebell of Los Angeles) shall constitute the Executive Committee. At the first annual business meeting of the Association three Directors shall be elected, the one receiving the highest number of votes shall serve for three years, the one receiving the next highest number of votes shall serve for two years and the third Director shall serve for one year. Thereafter at each annual election one Director shall be elected who shall serve for three years.

That said Ebell Rest Cottage Association, when organized as aforesaid, shall have full power and authority to adopt rules and regulations governing the management, maintenance and control of Ebell Rest Cottage and of any endowments, annuities, devises, bequests, memorials, gifts and contributions therefor, provided, however, that such rules and regulations shall not become effective or be changed or modified in any manner whatever unless approved by the Executive Committee of The Ebell of Los Angeles and the Board of Directors thereof.

[ The EBELL of Los Angeles ]

That Ebell Rest Cottage Association shall provide forms to be published in the Year Book showing what manner endowments, annuities, devises, bequests and memorials for the benefit of Ebell Rest Cottage shall be made and shall provide that in every instance The Ebell of Los Angeles shall be named therein as trustee of any fund so created for the benefit of said Ebell Rest Cottage.

That Ebell Rest Cottage Association shall be charged with the following funds:

a. All endowments, annuities, devises, bequests, memorials, gifts and contributions given for the benefit of Ebell Rest Cottage.

b. All membership fees received from sustaining, associate and life members of Ebell Rest Cottage Association.

c. Such monthly sum from the treasury of The Ebell of Los Angeles as the Board of Directors deems necessary to make effective the purpose of said association.

d. The Executive Committee of Ebell Rest Cottage Association may raise such other funds as in its judgment are necessary in any way which the Executive Committee of The Ebell of Los Angeles shall approve.

That all funds becoming available for the support and maintenance of Ebell Rest Cottage shall be paid immediately by the Treasurer of The Ebell of Los Angeles to the Treasurer of said Ebell Rest Cottage Association, who shall give her receipt therefor.

That the Treasurer of Ebell Rest Cottage Association shall give a bond in the sum to be determined by the Executive Committee of The Ebell of Los Angeles, which bond shall not become effective until approved either by the Board of Directors of The Ebell of Los Angeles or by the presiding Judge of the Superior Court in and for the County of Los Angeles.

That said bond shall provide that the Treasurer giving the same shall faithfully perform all the duties of her office as provided by the laws of the State of California and the rules and regulations of said Association, and shall also provide that she shall keep true and faithful books of account showing the amount of money in her hands and the accounts to which it is charged.

That the Auditor of The Ebell of Los Angeles shall be the Auditor of Ebell Rest Cottage Association.

That monthly reports shall be made by the Chairman of Ebell Rest Cottage Association to the Executive Committee of The Ebell of Los Angeles.

That the books of Ebell Rest Cottage Association shall be open at all times to the Executive Committee of The Ebell of Los Angeles; and be it further

Resolved, That this resolution shall be printed in each edition of the Ebell Year Book together with the forms before mentioned and such other matter pertaining to Ebell Rest Cottage as may be deemed necessary.

Form of Bequest or Devise for Benefit of Ebell Rest Cottage

It is suggested that one of the following forms be used when money or real estate is to be left to The Ebell for the benefit of Rest Cottage.

If money, use the following form: "I hereby give and bequeath to The Ebell of Los Angeles for the maintenance of Rest Cottage.....dollars."

If real estate, use: "I hereby give and devise to The Ebell of Los Angeles that real property described as follows....."

If the desire is to leave money or real estate with the intention that only the interest or income therefrom shall be used for the maintenance of Rest Cottage, then add to the above forms as follows: to the first, "and I direct that said sum of money be safely invested and the interest or other proceeds arising therefrom shall be used for said purpose."

To the second form add, "and I direct that the income from said property shall be used for the support of said Rest Cottage and in the event that it is deemed advisable to sell the said property so devised, that the moneys derived therefrom shall be invested and the proceeds used for said purpose."

At the suggestion of the donor such bequest or devise may be left as a memorial to erect a building or endow a room to be known by the name of the person designated.

You may make your own will without any witnesses being present. To do so it must be wholly dated, written and signed in your own hand writing.

In the event that it is written by other persons it must be signed by you and by two witnesses, who must sign at your request after you have declared to them that the instrument is your last will and testament. They must sign in your presence and in the presence of each other.
