Report of President

The duties very definitely set forth in the printed laws of The Ebell of Los Angeles, for the presiding officer, are many and varied, among them being a chronicle of events and happenings of the Club and of her own special activities. The members of the Board of Directors have detailed the outstanding results of their year's work, and all will be found interesting reading in the ensuing pages. Each curator has faithfully "kept books," and the chairmen of committees have their own story to tell of the important work directed by them. Our year book of two hundred pages, therefore, forms a carefully and correctly told history of this great Club of which we are each an integral and concerned part.

There have been few weeks when your President has not been in attendance at three or four meetings: Monday programs, department meetings, committees, and Board of Directors' meetings. The busy "first Wednesdays," when the Club seems a veritable "beehive" of interested women, the Assembly dinners, which have been brilliant social and intellectual events, the President's luncheons, which have sometimes taxed the capacity of the dining room, are all happy memories. One luncheon which we must mention in particular was given in honor of the "First Decade" members of Ebell, those entering the Club during the first ten years of its existence, the reinstated members, and the new members of the current year. It was a day of reminiscence for those looking back into the years, and a forward-looking one to those who know not so much of blessed remembrance.

Charter Day, which is, and always will be, set apart to do honor to the Founders of our Club, was celebrated with a beautiful program, and the presentation of the Charter Members from the platform and later in the receiving line. The day was made memorable by two events: the gift to the Club of the Charter Members Plaque from the Former Officers' Round Table, a plan conceived the preceding year and completed on that twenty-sixth day of October, and the presentation to our dearly beloved Past President, Mrs. William Read, of an Honorary Life Membership in the Club which she has so long and devotedly served.

The beautiful and gracious memorial to our departed members, with its impressive stage setting, will not soon be forgotten.

There were many notable evenings at the Thursday Assemblies which we shall always recall with pleasure, among them the Family Christmas party, sponsored by the Board of Directors, when the Club was aglow with the holiday spirit. In January came "A Night in Hawaii," with its charming music, dancing, and lecture. Later came a dinner dance directed by the Ebell Juniors; and the evening when the men of our families took over the clubhouse and made a gala time for the "women folk."

The Monday programs have upheld the standard set by Ebell, providing instruction, entertainment, and culture. A new feature has been the open forum on "Today's Topics," presented almost entirely by our own members during the President's half hour.

The departments have had an interesting and prosperous year. We pay tribute to the curators, who all seem to possess that trait of character which must belong to successful persons—persistence, and the ability to forget self in their work.

One of our greatest inspirations is the contemplation of the enthusiasm and accomplishments of the Ebell Juniors. Their study of world affairs, their philanthropies, their interest in child welfare, all presage a happy future for Ebell.

Again Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Flint have added to their already generous endowment fund for the maintenance of Scholarships. Rest Cottage has received two gifts from unexpected sources: one from the estate of Mrs. Fannie B. Look, of five thousand dollars, and the same amount from an anonymous donor, a visitor from the East, who, learning of the splendid work done by Rest Cottage, wished to add to its resources. There has perhaps been less demand on the Practical Relief than in former years, but they have never failed to respond when the call came. Ebell received marked praise for her response to the summons from the Red Cross for Flood Relief last spring, her contribution amounting to almost as much as the combined donations of the other women's clubs of the city. Other agencies that have received assistance from our treasury for years past have been remembered.

Four charmingly planned and executed benefit parties have brought the budget for the philanthropies and mortgage fund well "over the top." They were unique affairs, and deserve more than a casual mention. The first, given by the Welfare Committees' Chairmen, Mrs. Robert S. Hardy, Mrs. Charles R. Smurr, and Mrs. Harry Quine, was a luncheon and bridge party, and netted $629. The second, by the Former Officers' Round Table, Mrs. Samuel Cary Dunlap, chairman, a benefit in the Theatre, presented a vaudeville and minstrel show, and cleared $840. The third, a successful "Springtime in Paris," with Mrs. William J. Chichester and the Curators as directing heads, amounted to $1,002. The last, the goodbye party of the season, with Mrs.

[illegible] assisted by Mrs. Charles Ashworth [illegible] Concert Committee, added $713. This last [illegible], which will live with us through the [illegible].

[illegible] have also been bright spots in Ebell's [illegible] financial relaxation and financial aid.

[illegible] of the accomplishments of the [illegible] Patrons, who carry on the work of [illegible] but also all members of the Club [illegible] a privilege to wander about our lovely [illegible] choice collections of art which are always [illegible]. The first Wednesday receptions and [illegible] to recognize the artists, have brought ever increasing [illegible] brilliant dinner honoring more than one hundred [illegible] whose creative work graced the galleries during the [illegible] testimonials of admiration and loyalty to [illegible] who participated. One well known Californian [illegible] Ebell's sustained interest in art contributes greatly [illegible] cultural development in Los Angeles, which we all desire [illegible]. "There is no other woman's club in America [illegible] to recognize and encourage local talent, as does The Ebell of Los Angeles."

[illegible] of the financial affairs of such an organization as Ebell is a large undertaking. The coordination of the [illegible] the Chairman of Finance, and the Budget Committee [illegible] of consideration by the entire Board of [illegible] all necessary to obtain the best results. So carefully [illegible] handled that sometimes we feel almost "penny-wise." It is a matter of pride to this administration that twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) has been paid on the mortgage. This [illegible] possible principally from the increased rentals the [illegible] and one of the best years of its existence. Despite the increased rates, and larger sums for insurance and repairs, [illegible] improvements. The latter are all important [illegible] and pleasure of our members, adding to their pride in the possession of our palatial home and the continued prestige of the Club. The microphones in the auditorium and the dining room, the hearing aids, the electric signals, and the railings on the stairs, have been of inestimable value, as has also been the electric beam at the Wilshire door, the gift of two of our generous members. Now a committee is concentrating on the elimination of that vexing problem, the leaky roof, and by the time of the arrival of the fall rains, we are hoping to have completed a

"Flood Control." This latter improvement will be largely financed by gifts from members.

We cannot refrain from a word of appreciation of the members of the Board of Directors. Each has her own special duty to perform, and in so doing has given of her best. Their loyalty to their President will always be to her a golden memory.

It is a great privilege to work for Ebell, in that we may demonstrate our belief in its ideals and exemplify its motto. Perhaps no one of us may bear the torch that lights the Universe, but we may each carry our own little light. There was a time in pioneer days when people came to the meeting house, every one carrying her own tallow candle. The first one, perhaps, did not make much impression in the darkness, but when a number arrived the light began to shine. Then when all the candles were lighted and held aloft, there was a grand illumination. When we all bring our lights to shine in this lighthouse which we call The Ebell of Los Angeles, it will be a place of splendid achievement.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. GEORGE HARRIS COOK, President.

Report of General Curator

The membership of the Club greatly appreciated the outstanding programs presented by the curators of the nineteen departments of Ebell during the year 1936-37. Although there were twenty-one fewer meetings than usual this year, the total attendance was 31,164.

The General Curator called four special meetings of the curators during the year, a meeting at the clubhouse, two teas, and a luncheon, to exchange ideas for the improvement of the various departments, and to discuss plans for the benefit, "Spring Time in Paris," which was sponsored by the curators, under the chairmanship of Mrs. William J. Chichester, a charter member.

The Public Affairs Department and the Law Department were combined, and will continue to meet on the third Monday of each month.

At the request of many members, a department of Cinematography will be established in October, and will meet on the first Tuesday of each month.

In behalf of the club, the General Curator wishes to express appreciation to all those who assisted in maintaining the high standard of the departments of Ebell.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. HAYES H. HALVERSON, General Curator.

Report of Public Relations

Because The Ebell of Los Angeles is the holder of valuable real estate other than the property which the Club occupies, it was found advantageous to have a membership in The All Year Club's Public Relations Council. Your chairman or other representative attended the monthly meetings of the Council, at which questions concerning the welfare and the growth of our city were discussed.

The Santa Monica Mountains Fire Prevention Association is devoted to the protection and preservation of these beautiful mountains and contiguous territory from fire and flood. The Ebell as a part of its service to the community holds a membership in this association.

On February fifteenth, the Club voted to urge our senators and congressional representatives to oppose the President's proposal for a change in the personnel of the Supreme Court without adhering to the procedure laid down in the Constitution. Accordingly, telegrams were sent to Senators Johnson and McAdoo and to Representative McGroarty. Letters were sent to the other representatives from Los Angeles County.

From time to time bills are introduced in the State Legislature that have for their purpose the weakening of the safeguards thrown around the adoption of children. In the opinion of the Board of Directors, Senate Bill 584 and Assembly Bill 2352 were of this character. The Board of Directors instructed the Chairman of Public Relations to write to the Chairman of the Judiciary Committee of the Senate and to Judge Ben Lindsay, who was an active proponent of these bills, protesting their passage.

On July first a letter was sent to the Honorable Frank F. Merriam, Governor of the Commonwealth of California, requesting that he use his influence with the State Parole Board in an effort to bring about the denial of the parole privilege to those convicted of crimes of sex. Such persons being mentally irresponsible and moral perverts, are a menace to any community. It was also requested that if parole of this class of criminal is granted, that scientific measures be taken to make a repetition of such crime biologically impossible.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. ILOT JOHNSON, Chairman

Report of Scholarship Committee

Twenty-one students have been on the Ebell Scholarship Roll the past year, nine young men and twelve young women. Sixteen received the full year scholarship, and five received one semester. It is interesting to note the different universities chosen by the students. This year, four registered at the University of Southern California, ten at the University of California at Los Angeles, one at the University of California at Berkeley, three at the California Institute of Technology at Pasadena, one at the Los Angeles Junior College, one at Occidental College, and one at the University of Southern California for the extension course.

We had two graduates this June, Holly Dickinson and Virginia Cassell. Holly, who had the honor of receiving a fellowship at the California Institute of Technology last September, received his Master of Science degree at that institute. Virginia, who was graduated with a straight "A" average from the University of Southern California, was awarded a year's scholarship at the University of Heidelberg. This is the first exchange student the University of Southern California has had with Heidelberg for ten years, and we feel very proud that our scholarship student received this distinguished award. The University of Heidelberg is sending a young man to the University of Southern California. All our other students have done good work also. The many letters of thanks and appreciation received during the year show how an Ebell scholarship is prized, and make us realize what a truly great work we are doing in assisting young people through a university course. We feel certain we are accomplishing our high aim, to help young people develop qualities which will create good citizens, so they may be better fitted to take their places in the world.

The scholarship finances are in a healthy state. Revenue for the work is derived from interest on the Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Flint Scholarship Endowment Fund, the Ebell Club Scholarship Endowment Fund, a monthly check from the Ebell Club treasury, and gifts from members. This year we have received one hundred fifty dollars ($150) to be added to the Ebell Endowment Fund, and one thousand dollars ($1000) from Mr. and Mrs. Flint to be added to their endowment fund. We are grateful for these generous gifts.

Each year, as our seniors are graduated, Ebell rejoices in them and their work, and watches with deep interest what they make of their opportunities and of their lives. Other young men and young women take their places, and the good work goes on. Our hearts are filled with gratitude that this has been made possible, and we take up the torch so graciously lighted for us and go on, carrying light to many in the service of Ebell.

Report of Welfare Activities

There have been fewer calls for clothing this year than in many previous years. However, those who have been assisted were very needy, and all requests have been met after investigation.

The Children's Protective Association has called on us many times for clothing for children. At Christmas all requests were not only investigated by the committee, but were also checked through the City Department of Social Service, a clearing house which brings together generous donors and needy people, insuring that no one is neglected and that each applicant received only one basket.

Dues were paid to ten organizations in which Ebell holds membership, and special collections were taken for Christmas baskets amounting to $200.65, and for the Red Cross Flood Relief to which the contributions amounted to $962.56.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. ROBERT S. HARDY, Chairman of Welfare.

Report of Ebell Rest Cottage Association

A spirit of unselfish service and generosity has been exemplified in the affairs of Rest Cottage this past year. The scope of appeal has been widened to points outside of our community, reflected by two outstanding gifts of $5,000 each, one from Mr. George H. Burr, in memory of his sister, Mrs. Fannie B. Look, and one from a donor who wishes to be anonymous. There was also a gift of $100 from the Louis D. Beaumont Trust Fund, which will be increased to $250 in the future, and will be an annual contribution to our work.

We are grateful for the bequests from the estates of Miss Kizzie Lewis and Mrs. Glen M. Hammon, as well as numerous gifts from many of our club members.

Through our membership chairman, Mrs. William Harrison Smith, and her committee, a total of $1,688 in membership dues has been secured. Life memberships secured: Chi Omega, Mrs. Nellie S. Meigs, Mrs. Charles R. Smurr. Memorials given: Mrs. Edwin G. Howard, one in memory of her mother, Mrs. Thomas Griffith; and one in memory of her husband, Dr. Edwin G. Howard; Mrs. William M. Weller, in memory of her aunt, Miss Florence A. Carpenter; Mrs. J. W. Musselman, in memory of her husband, Mr. J. W. Musselman; Mrs. Landon Horton, in memory of her father, Dr. Joseph Kurtz. These generous donations and memberships have been helpful in making some of the necessary improvements for the welfare and comfort of the Cottage.

The duty of recording the histories of guests has been performed by Mrs. Mabel C. Chappellet, our vice-chairman. One hundred seventy-seven guests have been admitted.

The efforts of Mrs. Frederick Wording Pitcher, our financial chairman, to make sound investments of the available fund, have assisted Rest Cottage toward a firm financial foundation.

The balance on hand of $3,402.66 is shown by our treasurer, Mrs. Edward Everett Sherrard.

Mrs. George Addington Eastman has been our secretary.

Chairman Dr. J. Margaret Roberts and her committee on investigation have handled two hundred fifteen applications. Their work has been invaluable through their knowledge and tireless efforts.

The work of Mrs. Herman C. Moore and her committee in transporting guests to and from the Cottage has been most helpful. They responded to eighty-three calls.

The upkeep, supervision, and improvements have been directed by Mrs. Neil C. Needham, house chairman. Outstanding improvements include a new furnace, book shelves, interior decorating, and repairs. Gifts of silverware, pictures, and many other items of use and beauty were received.

Supervision of the Cottage garden has been directed by Mrs. Jess E. Wilson, garden chairman.

Through friendly visits, the follow-up work of Mrs. Adrian R. Moylan and her committee has kept us in close touch with one hundred ten former guests.

The social program, including the annual Christmas dinner for former Rest Cottage guests, the October luncheon following the business meeting at the Cottage, the Open House in April, and the closing picnic in Griffith Park, has been carried on by Mrs. Bruce H. Grigsby and members of her committee.

In addition to preparing the Rest Cottage announcements for the club bulletin, Mrs. Vincent S. Kerans and her committee on press and programs gave full cooperation to the performance of "The Shadow of the Manger" for the Christmas dinner.

The efforts of Mrs. E. Linn Christopher, chairman of field survey, and her committee, in bringing to us the activities of the various philanthropies of this community, have been of great comparative value.

We are grateful for the cooperation of the Needlework Guild, Practical Relief, Art Patrons, Drama Guild, Grace Fulmer School, and our own Ebell Board of Directors.

The capable and understanding efforts of our matron, Mrs. Bertha N. Ross, have inspired complete harmony in our Cottage.

Believing a history of Rest Cottage would be an asset to the Ebell Club, Mrs. William Read, Chairman Emeritus, was appointed historian.

The full cooperative efforts of our members have placed Rest Cottage among the outstanding philanthropies of our community. This fact is emphasized by the reaction of a father and a son from a visit to Rest Cottage. As a result of this visit a similar philanthropy will be established by them in their own community, in memory of the wife and mother.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. CHARLES R. SMURR,
Chairman, Rest Cottage Association.

The major achievement of the year was the presentation, on February 17, of a Theatre Benefit Minstrels which added $845.91 to the fund for Ebell philanthropies.

At the final meeting on June 1, Mrs. William Read, past president, gave an interesting résumé of the work of former officers who had served with her, and stressed the joys of loyal service.

Report of Salon of Art

The Salon of Art Committee, with a membership of one hundred, has endeavored during the past year to show to Ebell Club about five hundred paintings and prints, and eighty pieces of sculpture, with the idea of bringing about a closer understanding and knowledge of our California artists.

The first Wednesday of each month the Art Salon has been filled to capacity to meet the artists and hear them talk about their work. A tea in October for the California Art Club, was followed by one in January for the Women Painters. In November, following a luncheon at the Hollywood Riviera Beach Club, visits were paid to the studio of G. Milner Hawkins, the Palos Verdes Library, and La Venta Inn, where paintings by Ralph Holmes, the luncheon speaker, were being exhibited.

In December, a luncheon preceded the Open House in the Art Salon, where paintings with a religious theme were exhibited. Mrs. Dick Smith gave a book review of "Heads and Tales," by Malvina Hoffman.

A talk on "The Art Idea" was given in February by Mrs. Hector Geiger, and in March a program of Spanish music was presented by Hernando G. Villa and his sisters.

Madame De Verley entertained the committee at tea in her studio in January. In February, following a visit to the studio of Orrin A. White, tea was served at the home of Mrs. Louise Ward Watkins. In February, a tea was given for the Portrait Painters.

In May, the Annual Dinner was given, when the committee was hostess to one hundred eight honor guests. Prizes amounting to $425 were awarded, these prizes being made possible by the regular fund of the Salon of Art Committee and the individual gifts from Mesdames William Clark Brown, Daniel Beecher, George Harris Cook, Samuel Cary Dunlap, Frank Paige Fay, Walter Harrison Fisher, Hector Geiger, Jake Lieb, Frank Viault, and Louise Ward Watkins.

Through the courtesy of Nuncie Bittman, a program of music was presented by Eric Lauring, baritone, and Laura Voshell, lyric soprano; and by John H. Patrick, American basso, guest of Miss Alice Driggs, accompanied by Mrs. Grace E. Bush. Mrs. Bush gave a reading.

And so the year 1936-1937 is closed and, as the outgoing president of the Ebell Juniors, I look back with one last longing glance at the very pleasant and happy hours spent with each one of you. The little problems and worries have faded, and only the memories of joy and achievement remain. The friendships go on, and we turn our eyes to the coming year, a year full of promise and hope, a year full of greater activities to come. My heartfelt thanks to all of you for such splendid cooperation. May we continue on with untiring loyalty in the new year.

Respectfully submitted,

Browning Study

Subject for the year, "Browning's Poems on Women."

Miss Frederica de Laguna introduced the year's study with a paper that revealed philosophic insight and interpretation of Browning's women characters. This scholarly paper in typewritten form is in the Ebell Library and accessible to club members.

Scenes from "Pippa Passes" were presented in costume with stage settings. Miss Katherine Horschel, Mrs. Blanche Williams Urick, Mr. Gregory Woodruff, Mrs. Eleanor Waring Burnham, and Mr. Mansfield Catterlin, represented respectively Pippa, Ottima, Sebald, Luigi's mother, and Luigi. Mrs. Mary E. Bartlett, Mrs. Ilot Johnson, and others spoke of the value of the study of Browning.

Mrs. Charles N. Ballreich read a paper on "Browning's Romantic Love Poems," several of which were read and afterward illustrated by a living picture. The readers were Mrs. Ballreich, Mrs. Francis D. Blakeslee, Mrs. Michael F. Shannon, Miss Ada A. McClelland, and Mrs. Aida C. Hanst. The poems pictured were: "Rudel to the Lady of Tripoli," "Cristina," "The Flower's Name," "Evelyn Hope," "The Laboratory," and "Cristina and Monaldeschi." Other poems read were: "Youth and Art," "A Lovers' Quarrel," and "Dis Aliter Visum." The members who posed in the large gilt frame were: Mrs. Marc L. Germain, Mrs. Wendell C. Cole, Jr., Mrs. Pace W. Bartlett, Miss Katherine Horschel, and Mrs. Lee C. Porter.

Mrs. Louise Ward Watkins gave an address on "Husbands and Wives in Browning's Poems." Contrasting the Victorian era with the present in the matter of self-discipline, Mrs. Watkins illustrated her observations by quoting from "Beatrice Signorni," "A Forgiveness," and "James Lee's Wife," their humor, tragedy, and pathetic futility lending effect to her several arguments. Browning songs were sung by Mrs. Belva A. Murrell.

"Some Great Ladies of Browning's Poems" was the subject presented by Mrs. Eleanor Waring Burnham, who read "My Last Duchess," and connected the House of Ferrare in Italy with the present reigning House of Windsor in England. Mrs. Burnham also read "The Flight of the Duchess," introducing for background a brief history of the Gypsies.

Mrs. Edwin H. Shields recounted her experiences at Baylor University, Waco, Texas, where she visited Dr. A. J. Armstrong and his famous collections of Browningiana. She also exhibited some newly-acquired autographed Browning letters.

Browning's play, "In a Balcony," was presented in costume, with moonlit balcony stage setting, by students of the School of Drama at U.C.L.A., trained by Miss Evelyn C. Thomas. The characters of Constance, Norbert, and the stately Queen were impersonated by Miss Harriet Abrams, Mr. Robert Onthank, and Miss Muriel Beveridge. Mr. Richard Hanna from the same university recited "Fra Lippo Lippi." The Roy Beights Octette sang "My Heart is a Silent Violin," by Oscar J. Fox, and "Cradle Song," by Martha Cook Hulett. Two songs based on poems by Mrs. Browning with musical setting by Mrs. Hulett, a Los Angeles composer, were sung by the Octette. Mrs. Hulett accompanied all the songs, with Mr. Beights directing.

French

Le département, sous l'instruction de Mme. Brouillet, a eu une année de bon succès. On a fait des innovations dans la méthode d'étude et nous sommes surtout fières de notre classe élémentaire.

On a délaissé un livre qui fut employé pendant beaucoup d'années dans le cours moyen, et on prendra un autre livre qui s'appelle "Sans Famille."

Le cours intermédiare a lu un classique français, "Le Grand Meaulnes."

Le cours supérieur a lu "Vue de la Terre Promise."

La dictée est un événement très populaire dans les classes avancées. La rapidité de la conversation change le son des mots et it faut que l'on puisse les distinguer.

Il y eu l'année passée, trente réunions du département. Soixante membres et visiteuses y assistaient regulièrement. Il y a en caisse aujord'hui, soixante dollars et soixante-quinze sous.

Le Salon Français, organisé en Novembre 1935, a été reçu avec beaucoup de faveur. Il se réunissait une fois per mois, chex les membres de la classe.
