Report of the President

Ebell has turned a year of depression into one of expression. Expressions of faith in and love for the club comprise your president's report.

First in importance has been the expression of confidence in the worthwhileness of the club by the addition of 631 new members. This is the largest gain in membership in one year the club has ever experienced.

The members of the club have expressed their interest in the Monday programs and department meetings by attending in increasing numbers over previous years.

Our belief in the importance of sharing our blessings with others found expression in giving almost one-fifth of our income for philanthropic activities.

The financial security of the club is shown in our auditor's report, which shows that we have met all of our obligations and paid $22,700 on our mortgage; that the net income for the year is $1,407.21; the cash in the bank shows an increase of $2,239.78 over last year; the current assets are increased $4,864.13 and there was a decrease in current liabilities amounting to $2,672.92. Certainly this is a showing of which the club is proud.

We were very happy to have the assistance of two of our large colleges and one of our oldest men's clubs for our Monday programs. The Music Department of the University of Southern California opened the year with a beautiful musical interpretation of the Rubaiyat. Our closing program consisted of a classic pantomime by the Art Department of the University of California and an Olympic program furnished by the Los Angeles Athletic Club. Among other highlights of our Monday programs were lectures by Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, past president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, Tony Sarg, internationally known as the originator of marionettes, as well as illustrator and designer, and Kathleen Norris, distinguished author, who brought us a valuable message in her talk, "New Fashions in Old Loyalties." Capacity audiences welcomed many of our Monday afternoon speakers and seats on the stage were necessary at times to accommodate the overflow.

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

Our program chairman, Mrs. Albert H. Purdue, anticipated the popularity of the Grand Duchess Marie of Russia and prepared for the large audience which assembled on that day. In addition to the seats on the stage, chairs were placed in the lounge and Salon of Art where loud speakers were installed and more than twenty-three hundred women were able to hear this noted exponent of hundreds of years of royalty.

On Armistice Day the Public Affairs Department, Mrs. William Read, Curator, presented an inspiring patriotic program in the Auditorium, to which the public was invited. Several hundred persons attended, including many club husbands.

Charter Day was of especial interest this year for on that day the club received the gift of the portrait of our first president, Mrs. Harriet W. R. Strong, from her daughters, Mrs. Dean Mason, Miss Harriet P. Strong and Miss Nelle de Luce Strong. With appropriate ceremony the picture was unveiled and it hangs in a prominent place in our lounge.

The club's acceptance of its civic responsibilities was expressed in many ways; first in the opening of our clubhouse to the Community Chest for headquarters and during the drive for funds in November. The committee reported an increase in donations which they said was due, in part, to the courtesy extended to them by our club. Our Salon of Art was thrown open to the public on Wednesday afternoons, that lovers of art might enjoy our exhibitions. The response to the appeal from the Committee for the Unemployed was expressed in the gift of $1,216.00; for the Parent-Teachers Association Food Fund, $836.92 was given by our membership; 1,844 cans of milk were given to the Food Conservation Committee.

Outstanding Thursday evening events of the year were two Law Observance dinners sponsored by the Former Officers' Round Table and the Public Affairs Department. Speakers included such noted men as Dr. Chester Rowell, author and publicist, and Dr. Rufus von KleinSmid, president of the University of Southern California. Other evening meetings were the Old Times Party given by the Ways and Means Committee, when four hundred men and women enjoyed old time costumes, old time food, music and dancing; and the complimentary dinner to the artists who have exhibited in our gallery, which was given by the members of the Art Patrons'

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

Committee, at which time the art prizes for the year were awarded.

Our Monday luncheons have become very popular with our members and the diningroom was filled many times during the past year. A special luncheon in the spring was in honor of members of our club who were serving as state hostesses for the Olympic Games. Every state in the Union was represented, as well as several foreign countries. Old acquaintanceships were renewed while plans were made for the entertainment of the visitors from the home states.

The club's profit from the diningroom this year was $1,469.77.

The demands upon Rest Cottage and Practical Relief have been unusually great. However, the members of the club have been so generous that Mrs. William R. Wherry and Mrs. T. J. Fletcher have expressed satisfaction in the results attained.

In addition to being grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Flint for their splendid gift to Ebells for the Scholarship Fund, the club is indebted to them for the wisdom they showed in selecting the securities in which this gift was invested. In this time of omitting payments of dividends, our Scholarship Fund has not been deprived of a single payment.

The gift of the elevator from Mrs. Nicholas Rice and Mrs. Reuben Shettler and the beautiful hangings and Oriental rug from the Art Patrons have added greatly to the comfort and beauty of our club home.

Among erudite speakers on our Department platforms have been Dr. E. C. Moore, Dr. William Munro, Dr. Fredric P. Woellner, Dr. Charles F. Aked, Dr. Carl Sumner Knopf, Hon. Joseph Scott, Mr. Millard Sheets and Mr. Arthur Millier.

The new Garden Department held three meetings and the enthusiastic interest of the members predicts a flourishing department for the new year.

Our Juniors, Miss Winifred Huntington, president, and the other members have been most helpful. In addition to their own definite work they have produced two fine plays for a Monday afternoon program, presented a gift of $100.00 to the Practical Relief Committee and have assisted with our benefits, Thursday night programs and the new members' tea.

Mrs. Edward L. Wright has been a busy woman with the distribution of 25,000 Law Observance stickers. She has made [39] many contacts in the city and nation which will prove profitable to the furtherance of law observance.

And the Theatre,—it is very gratifying to note that in such a trying year for most theatres our rentals have exceeded those of last year. The rental by Mrs. James Andrew Rogers of our auditorium to the Thirty-second Church of Christ, Scientist, in December, 1931, for a period of three years, provides a splendid regular income to which incidental rentals may be added.

Members of the Ways and Means Committee, Mrs. Howard R. Miner, Chairman, have given some delightful entertainments. Their quota was reached in May, but they assisted the Board of Directors in the presentation of the final event of the club, our Festival of All Nations. The program, provided through the courtesy of the foreign consuls and their friends, was given late in the afternoon and evening. A buffet supper of home-cooked foods donated by our members will long be remembered. The proceeds, $674.00, were applied on the mortgage.

Ebell is unique, I think, in the large number of members who actually perform some service to the club and in the individual interest in club business taken by the members at large. And in this very distinct characteristic lies the secret of her continued growth and usefulness. Each committee from the Information Committee and Credentials Committee, which greet you at the door, to the Board of Directors, which supervises the whole club machinery, is an important spoke in the wheel of progress of Ebell's work.

To each member of each committee the president wishes to express her appreciation and gratitude for the faithful, constructive service which you have given your club. The period of association with you was one of the busiest but one of the happiest experiences of her lifetime.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. CHARLES S. CRAIL,
President.

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

Report of the Recording Secretary

The records of the Recording Secretary of the Ebell of Los Angeles show that minutes have been taken this year for thirty-five Monday afternoon meetings, forty-one regular and ten called meetings of the Board of Directors.

During the President's hour, preceding the Monday program, prominent speakers have addressed the club on subjects of city, state and national problems, the versatility of which is shown in the following subjects of interest: The Pacific Fleet, Growth of Famous Wedgwood Ware, Law Observance in Traffic, The Community Chest, Occupational Therapy at Sawtelle Soldiers' Home, South Africa, Outdoor Christmas Trees, Present Problems of India, Conservation of Food, Feeding the Hungry in Los Angeles, Need of Our Schools for Temperance Education, Present Financial Conditions, Work of Seaman Church Institute at San Pedro, Relief Work for Unemployed Women in Los Angeles, Philharmonic Orchestra, Abraham Lincoln, Women's Civic Conference at U. S. C., Women Today as Intelligent Thinkers, Better Music Among Children, Associated Women's Committee of Unemployment Relief, Condition of China, 1000 Homes for 1000 Unemployed Women, The Olympic Pins, Entertainment Planned for Olympic Guests, and Summer Feeding of School Children by P. T. A.

Following the presentation of those subjects which called for the immediate relief, an appeal was made from the platform for assistance. As a result, the following responses were made: 1,844 cans of milk were donated to the Food Conservation Committee; $1,216.00 given for the relief of Unemployed Women and Girls; $836.92 to feeding of school children this summer; $437.19 was given as a special collection to needy, through Practical Relief Committee.

Aside from this tangible evidence of interest in outside activities by the club members, upon the request of the Chairman of Resolutions, the following action was taken and confirmed by vote of the club:

A Resolution that we give public support to better law observance in traffic, by constituting ourselves a part of the Citizens Safety Committee of the Los Angeles Traffic Association.

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

In matters of public interest, the Board of Directors has acted upon recommendation, and confirmed by vote, the following:

Endorsement of the action of Citizens Community Welfare Committee in borrowing $100,000 to meet the immediate necessity for welfare in community, said sum to be included in Community Chest budget this fall.

Requested letters be sent each councilman expressing the willingness of Ebell Club to cooperate on any proposed plan for the opening of Eighth Street.

Endorsed the Colorado River Bonds.

Sent request to Governor Rolph that a woman, preferably from Southern California, be placed on State Industrial Commission.

Sent letters to each councilman protesting proposed additional stop signals, and requesting instead additional motorcycle police.

Granted use of clubhouse for District No. 1 headquarters during campaign of Community Chest.

Opened Salon of Art one Sunday evening and one Wednesday afternoon a month, that public might be privileged to view pictures on exhibition.

Adopted resolution requesting Frank T. Hines of Washington, D. C., to allocate $500,000 for building a National Home at Sawtelle for exclusive use of the disabled United States Service Women.

Reaffirmed Ebell's endorsement to Board of Regents of University of California requesting required work for teachers be offered at U. C. L. A. as well as at Berkeley.

In dealing with club policies of importance, the Board of Directors sent a letter to every member of the club inviting suggestions as to how best to retain members. As a result of this consensus of club opinion, the Board took action, and made a temporary special arrangement for reinstatements and new members.

A permanent change was made by a vote of the club at the annual business meeting in June by the following amendment to the Ebell By-Laws:

Article VIII, Section 1, was amended by striking out the words "One Hundred Dollars" and substituting the words

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

"Fifty Dollars," to read, "The registration fee shall be Fifty Dollars ($50.00)."

The records for the year show that much of the time and discussion of the Board of Directors has been spent in making every effort to retain the membership through this time of economic stress. The wisdom of this deliberation is shown in the potent results of concessions made, which has enabled the club not only to pay all current expenses, but to reduce materially her indebtedness and to increase the membership roll.

Another year has been written in the history of Ebell—a year of test, from which she has emerged a stronger factor for service than ever before, to her members and to this community, whose best interests she promotes.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. JESS E. WILSON, Recording Secretary.

The figures above indicate the economy of administration in the conduct of Ebell's office under the business management of Miss Grace L. Van Tilburgh, financial secretary, and Miss Leola I. Talbott, assistant secretary and bookkeeper.

The item of postage and stationery was increased this year by the new membership drive, which entailed much additional correspondence. It is an interesting fact to note that it cost the club $125.20 from postage and stationery expense fund to write each member the one time when asking for suggestions how best to retain our members. This indicates how much Ebell's magazine saves the club every month in contacting its membership.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. JESS E. WILSON, Office Chairman.

Report of the General Curator

More than ever the adult education in our Ebell University has appealed to our membership. It is gratifying to note that there has been a total attendance of twenty-one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (21,921).

All the curators of our eighteen departments deserve praise for the high type of programs which their efforts have presented. It has been their aim to use our own talented women along with the outside speakers. A new Garden Department was organized in April, with over fifty in attendance.

Throughout the year there have been meetings for the curators to discuss departmental business.

Six departments had professional instructors and conscientious work was carried on. It is through the courtesy of Dr. E. C. Moore of the University of California, Los Angeles, that the instructors may be had for our language classes. Miss Florence M. Bischoff, Court Commissioner in the Probate Department, has generously given a series of lectures for several years in Ebell's Law Department.

Mrs. Frank McQuoid and Mrs. Herbert Chesshire Stone, Assistant General Curators, each assumed a responsibility, keeping in touch with the needs and comforts of the large audiences. They also helped to arrange the programs presented at the Thursday night dinners. Mrs. William P. Traynor, General Credentials Chairman, kept systematic records of attendance, which are useful in organizing work and selecting department officers for the following year.

Our President, Mrs. Charles S. Crail, attended the departments regularly, encouraging and supporting the work. Her interest was a stimulus to the curators and officers.

Club members often expressed their appreciation of the many privileges afforded them in the various fine departments. The new elevator made it possible for some of our members to attend meetings who otherwise were unable to do so. The daily luncheons continued to be a convenience and a source of friendly contact for those present at the morning sessions.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. W. L. McLEOD,
General Curator.

Report of Ebell Rest Cottage Association

We are happy to again acknowledge our indebtedness to the Social Welfare pioneers in our club who, with dauntless spirit, inspired by prophetic vision and foresight, founded our convalescent home, which has been an "oasis" to hundreds, yes thousands, of women in our community. The black economic cloud that oppresses us all has a silver lining. We have caught glimpses of it through rifts in the cloud, in unselfishness and self sacrifice that heartens the committees in their endeavors.

Mrs. Jack Armstrong Jevne, Assistant Chairman, reports that the food is excellent at the Cottage. The daily menu is recorded in a book for ready reference. Gifts of a hammock for the garden and scales for the bathroom have been received. All the holidays are celebrated, with specially planned table decorations provided by the House Mother.

Our garden is beautiful, under the care of our Garden Chairman, Mrs. Frank P. Ewins, assisted by Mrs. Hunter.

Mrs. George H. Mosher, House Chairman, reports the purchase of a new hall carpet, and that the kitchen and one bedroom have been freshly painted. She invites your attention to the immaculately kept cottage.

The Executive Committee of Rest Cottage recommended to the Board of Directors of Ebell, that the customary fifteen hundred dollars allocated to Rest Cottage from the fund contributed by the Ways and Means Committee be applied this year on our club indebtedness. It was so ordered.

Mrs. James Andrew Rogers, Finance Chairman, reports the purchase by the committee of a one thousand dollar government bond, to be added to our Endowment Fund.

We call attention to the report of Mrs. Edward Everett Sherrard, Membership Chairman, with a record of four new life members and six added to our In Memoriam. Total membership seven hundred fifty-nine; total receipts two thousand six hundred thirty-two dollars and forty cents. We have had gifts of two hundred dollars for Endowment Fund. Mrs. F. W. Pitcher's cash on hand last year, July 1st, was $1,340.18; this year on July 1st the cash balance is $1,529.17.

Mrs. W. H. Fine, Chairman of Investigating Committee, reports ninety-two investigations made. Two hundred fifty women applied to the chairman for admission. Some were recognized at once as not eligible, while others came with direct recommendations from hospitals and physicians. One hundred sixty-five received our hospitality.

Mrs. Louise Helen Kramer, Transportation Chairman, and her committee fulfilled their required duties, brought guests from hospital and home to Cottage, and extended their service as occasion demanded. On their own initiative they planned drives to beach and country.

Through the findings of conditions in homes of former guests by Mrs. Gilbert Osborne Miller and the Follow-up Committee, many things have been done; to give a brief and varied synopsis: A tubercular child was placed in Olive View Sanitarium; a woman received a pension for the blind; a bed-ridden invalid was loaned a radio; families in dire need received emergency aid, while hurried contacts were made with Social Welfare Agencies; clothing supplied many times by Mrs. T. J. Fletcher and Practical Relief Committee, also by gifts of clothing to committee and supplies received from Needle Work Guild; admittance to hospital arranged.

Miss Laura Paxton, Press and Program Chairman, gave full reports of our meetings to our club magazine, arranged our Christmas program and gave us interesting programs at our meetings when time permitted.

Mrs. Frank Howell Stanbery, Hospitality Chairman, commenced the year's duties October second with a buffet luncheon honoring Mr. Charles E. Crary, who was represented by his daughter, Mrs. Roy Aldrich Pearson, who presided at the beautiful table, part of the memorial gift for Mrs. Crary.

On December the nineteenth, the annual Christmas dinner was given at the club house to guests and former guests. The hostesses were the officers, former chairmen and committees of Rest Cottage and the Board of Directors of Ebell. The hospitality was keenly appreciated. Hospitality and membership committees gave a tea at the Cottage on March the fourth to all Ebell members.

The Christmas dinner entailed special work for the Secretary, Mrs. Harry J. Brown,—the sending out of three hundred forty-three invitations, checking acceptances and regrets, besides the regular routine. The cheer and beauty that was brought into the lives of our guests for one glad day was ample compensation to everyone assisting.

We have gratifying cooperation from our house mother, Mrs. Hunter, with her years of hospital service, as graduate nurse and her sympathetic understanding which has been invaluable to the guests and the Chairman. This year in our work each emergency has been met with a response commensurate to the need.

In closing, the officers and committees of Rest Cottage thank the Board of Directors, the Practical Relief Committee and the club at large for their support, which has made our service possible.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. WILLIAM R. WHERRY,
Chairman of Ebell Rest Cottage Association.

GARDEN AT REST COTTAGE, 135 North Park View Street

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

Report of the Scholarship Committee

The Scholarship Committee of the Ebell Club is pleased to make the following report for the year 1931-1932:

Assistance in full or part scholarships was given to thirty students during the year. Twenty-seven students received the full amount of the Scholarship throughout the school year. Twenty-six young women and four young men have been on our Scholarship roll.

This has been made possible from income derived from four sources.

1st. Income from the Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Flint Scholarship Fund,

2nd. Income from the Ebell Scholarship Fund,

3rd. Monthly appropriations from the Ebell Treasury,

4th. Gifts from interested friends.

At the close of the first semester, Miss Gladys Brown, student at Chouinard School of Art, was discontinued from the roll as she was able to finance herself. Miss Brown was awarded an Ebell scholarship in February, 1928. An exhibit of her work was hung in our club, in December, and received much praise from visiting artists. Many of her beautiful etchings were sold and many orders taken.

At the close of the second semester eight students graduated. Six from the University of California at Los Angeles; one from Los Angeles Junior College; one from the School of Optometry at University of Southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Flint for the fourth time sponsored a Prize Essay Contest, offering one hundred and fifty dollars, in four prizes, for the best essays written on the subject, "The Larger Education." Twenty-two students competed. The four winners were presented their prizes at the Public Affairs Department, by Mrs. Ilot Johnson, a former chairman of the Scholarship Committee.

Excellent work has been done by all our students. The honor of Phi Beta Kappa was given to Maysie F. Johnson, Junior at U. S. C.

This has been an extremely difficult year for students to earn money and several of our students would not have been able to finish the school year had they not been holders of an Ebell Scholarship. Letters of sincere gratitude and appreciation from our students show very clearly how greatly they prize the honor of an Ebell scholarship. Scholarships are honor awards, recipients chosen with regard to their scholastic attainments and character, as well as their financial need.

Report of the Former Officers' Round Table

The Former Officers' Round Table held three meetings during the past year with an average attendance of more than half their number.

On January seventh, co-operating with the Public Affairs Department and Women's Law Observance Association, the Round Table sponsored a dinner with Mrs. William Read presiding, assisted by Miss Frederica de Laguna. The importance of the observance of the law was presented from different angles by three convincing speakers, Mr. S. Earl Taylor, Mr. Lehman Hisey and Dr. Rufus Von KleinSmid. On April twenty-first these groups again sponsored the dinner, when the speaker was one in demand throughout the state and recognized as an authority, the Honorable Chester Rowell, whose subject was The Eighteenth Amendment. The dining room was filled with an attentive audience at each of these evenings and a genuine interest in the messages was evident.

Money was given to Mrs. Edward Loomis Wright which she used to purchase the Law Observance stickers to be placed on automobiles.

At each meeting, these women who have Ebell's welfare so dear to their hearts, have considered together the policies and workings of the club. At the June meeting the motion was made that the chairman appoint a committee to bring a recommendation for revision of the By-Laws to the Round Table which will later be sent to the Board of Directors.

Rejoicing in the past and looking forward to the glorious possibilities of the future, the years' work ended.

Respectfully submitted,

LAURA PAXTON, Chairman.

MRS. ALFRED W. REA, Secretary.

Report on Law Observance Car Stickers:

25,000 law observance stickers have been distributed for use this year. They are adopted and used by two transportation companies, three large utilities, one department and two furniture stores, the delivery service of six of the large dry goods stores, the Railway Express, some motor coach companies, nine ice cream companies and creameries, five water refrigerating companies and several dairies.

These stickers have been given out at many women's meetings, D. A. R., temperance, Y. W. C. A. city and county, and there have been speakers at the larger groups of church women. Advance notices have been given out by the Church Federation and the ministers of all large churches in Los Angeles and Hollywood presented them this year as was done last year. They have been used at U. S. C. and U. C. L. A. at student and Christian associations. They have been adopted and used at conventions of the Southern California Christian Endeavor, Epworth League and Baptist Young People, and were announced and given out at Allied Prohibition meetings last fall.

Although about one hundred a week are picked up at information desks of the Public Library, the Chamber of Commerce and Automobile Club, yet many people write and telephone for them. Four hundred of them have been mailed out with an eastern magazine. One thousand were sent for and used by the W. C. T. U. of New Jersey. The California Federation of Women's Clubs will formally present a resolution endorsing them, at their summer conference.

I wish you could see the earnestness with which some of these men in high executive positions take hold of this project, and more especially, that you could hear the sincere words of appreciation and approval of Ebell's public declaration and leadership for Law Observance.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. EDWARD LOOMIS WRIGHT,

Chairman.

Report of the Practical Relief Committee

Our year began with so many appeals not only for clothing but for work, money and food that we planned for a more strenuous season than we had ever experienced. While we have given out more than ever before, we have also received more.

We are indebted to the Needlework Guild for two hundred sixty garments.

We have sent one hundred fifteen garments to Good Will Industries. We have dressed forty college girls. Eight Helen Matthewson girls graduated this June. Material for seven dresses was given and we made a graduating dress for one girl who was unable to make hers. We have made seven graduating dresses and have dressed twenty-seven high school girls. Thirty-three Rest Cottage women have come to us for assistance and eight women from Hollenbeck Home. Clothing has been sent to Breed Street School and shirts and comforters to Boys Community Lodge. Fifteen layettes have been given out, including two for twins.

The Community Laundry has cleaned twenty-three dresses and three coats free of charge. We feel indebted to the management for its generosity.

Ebell has knitted for the Red Cross from June 1, 1931, to June 1, 1932, twenty-six sweaters for adults, twenty sweaters for children, eight pairs of socks.

Not to leave any warm clothing on our shelves during the holidays, we sent four suits of men's clothing, four pairs of golf trousers, three coats, four odd vests and one woman's coat to Mrs. Snider, organizer of a Women's Service League of the Hollywood Congregational Church. This clothing was very old.

We enjoyed a vacation during July but have met every Friday since with the exception of Christmas and we met Thursday, December thirty-first, instead of New Years. The average attendance has been small, fourteen; this due to the very small attendance during August and September.

Our Christmas activities included thirty-nine nightingales and thirteen hoods sent to the Woman's Infirmary at the County Farm. We sent out one hundred twenty-eight Christmas baskets at an expense of $2.90 a basket. As our baskets were very full, most of them being bushel baskets, we could not have been able to do this if it were not for the generous donations of food—jelly, jam, candy, nuts and many canned vegetables and fruits. Two Ebell members brought us eighteen large boxes beautifully wrapped, of home made cookies cut in animal shapes. These were distributed among the families with the largest number of children. Every cent of money donated for Christmas baskets was spent for food with the exception of $8.75 spent for baskets. We were enabled to do this because Ebell members distributed the baskets, and never before was this work of distribution done so well and so expeditiously. We are indebted to Bullocks for two hundred twenty-four articles. These were distributed among the baskets with the exception of twelve pairs of shoes and twenty hats. The gift included toys, candy, toilet articles, shopping bags and clothing, mostly for children, but our green rubber rain coat made a young girl very happy. She would have had very little for Christmas if we had not taken care of her.

As so many hungry people had appealed to the Practical Relief for food, it was decided by the Board of Directors to allow this committee to make an appeal for money and food. Since the first appeal made in January, one hundred six baskets have been sent out and $129.29 has been received. Only a few times did we get any great amount of food. Once a crate of eggs was received. Two cases (at different times) of canned tomatoes and one case of mixed canned vegetables were donated. For a month we received very little food and not much money, but since the third appeal in May, we have received over $40.00, nearly one-half as much as we had received in three and a half months before, but practically no food. Fridays we have given four or five cans to anyone coming to us in great need. This was followed by a big basket later.

The donations from members for this work amounted to $62.30; with the $127.29 donated for baskets and other donations mentioned, a total of $223.00 was spent for the hungry and unemployed.

The past year has been a most strenuous one. Never have we given out so many garments; never have we received so many. The accomplishment would not have been possible if it were not for the cooperation of every member of our department. We have heard many curators tell of what fine workers they have but I know there are none finer, and I believe none as hard working, as the members of Practical Relief.

Our thanks are due to our President, Mrs. Charles S. Crail, to the Social Welfare chairman, Mrs. Harry A. Ford, and to the remaining members of the Board of Directors. Neither do we forget many kindnesses extended by Mrs. Stribling, the office force, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn, Max and Will. To the members of the Ebell Club as a whole and to the Ebell Juniors, who with their generous gift have made it possible for us to carry on this summer, we extend our sincere thanks and appreciation.

Salon of Art

Turning a retrospective eye over the past year, we believe the Salon of Art may feel that something has been accomplished, something done toward that for which it was organized: a stimulated interest within our club toward all things artistic, a friendliness and helping hand extended toward the artists in our midst, and a fostering of that subtle, refining influence of Art in our community.

It has been the effort of the committee to bring to Ebell the best art available in paintings, prints and sculpture, in the nine varied exhibitions of the year. Distinguished among these was the one-man show of Dean Cornwell, whose murals soon to be installed in our Public Library will make of him a world renowned name, and that of Colin Campbell Cooper, A. N. A., whose architect pictures were among those most enjoyed. One of the outstanding months was the "Religious Art" exhibition in December when our beautiful gallery was aglow with the old world pictures of the past centuries. Other exhibitors were the Wachtels (Marion and Elmer), two of California's much loved artists; Aron Kilpatrick, best painter of eucalyptus trees; Hansen Puthuff, gentle nature poet of the Sierras; Karoly Fulop, the gifted Hungarian artist; Gordon Coutts, world-wide painter, now of Palm Springs, and Willy Pogany, whose illustrations of The Rubaiyat were admired by all.

Two interesting print collections have occupied the Galeria, one by well known men who are doing work in that line, the other by the eminent art critic and etcher, Arthur Millier, and his students. Artists of note have occupied the space with water colors, such as H. Neville-Smith, Harold Gaze, and Elsie Palmer Payne.

In May the Annual Exhibition of California Painters was held, together with a splendid showing of the California Sculptors. Three prizes came from individual members of the Art Patrons' Committee and a fourth from the committee at large. The Jury of Awards, composed of representative artists of Los Angeles, voted the first painter's prize, the "Elizabeth Holmes Fisher Prize," to Edward Bruce, of California; the second, the "Jean C. Cook Prize," to Maynard Dixon of San Francisco. To Claribel Gaffney, young Los Angeles woman, was given the first sculptor's prize, and the second, the "Mrs. William Clark Brown Prize," went to Eugenia Everett. In June, the California Water Color Society exhibition was hung in the Galeria, representing most of our best water colorists. Two prizes were given for this, the committee giving the first to Lee Blair, and "An Art Patron," the second, awarded to Lola C. Lewis.

It is hoped by many of the committee that next year we may add to our dignity by having a "Jury of Selection."

The social side of the committee, under the direction of Miss Ada A. Dryden and her excellent committee, gave a number of brilliant parties, outstanding among them, perhaps, the December dinner, when our club was gay with the Christmas spirit, and made especially lovely by the background of the Gallery, hung with the pictures of faces and figures which created our Christmas time. There were two Sunday teas, one honoring the students of the art departments of our colleges, the other, in June, having as special guests the members of the California Water Color Society and California Art Club. One long-to-be-remembered day was when the group made a "Little Journey" to Palm Springs in April, visiting the desert studios of the Village.

In January the committee members were entertained, through the courtesy of Mrs. von KleinSmid, by the Art Department of U. S. C., and on another occasion by the Art Department of U. C. L. A. An innovation of this season has been the "Open House Day" which we hope in time may become a feature of the Gallery. The closing event of importance was the May dinner when more than one hundred artists who had exhibited during the past year were entertained at a dinner and musical. The program was provided by the Zoellner Quartette, in honor of Mrs. Walter Harrison Fisher, who had just returned from a world tour.

In the early part of the year the Salon was hung with velvet, purchased with funds accumulated from the two years' chairmanship of Mrs. Sydney A. Temple, and in May the beauty of the Salon seemed completed by the addition of an oriental rug, the gift to the club by the Art Patrons' Committee.

More than thirty new members have been added to the list of names forming the Art Patrons' Committee, and an added interest has been shown by the ever increasing numbers always in attendance in the galleries.

The chairman cannot relinquish this work without expressing a word of the gratitude she feels toward the President of Ebell and her Board of Directors for their support at all times, and to the women of the active committee whose cheerful and able assistance has made of this arduous task, a real joy.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. GEORGE HARRIS COOK,
Chairman of Art Patrons' Committee.

Report of the President of the Ebell Juniors

The co-ordination of its many parts and the co-operation of its members are indispensable essentials in any successful organization, and the achievements of the Ebell Juniors this past year have been based on, and due to, a continuous application of these two factors. Success of one kind is measured only by deeds accomplished—both the kind of a deed and the number of deeds. Another type of success is much more difficult to measure, for it is an intangible something—the growth of Aims, Ideals, and the spirit of Friendliness and Companionship. One type of success without the other would indicate a poorly balanced organization, and yet it is impossible to fully incorporate an expression of the advancement made in this intangible line in a report of this kind. Suffice it to say that it has been a predominating influence over the more concrete deeds.

The Ebell Junior sections have been enthusiastically supported, and there has been an increase in the amount of work completed, as the following reports will indicate.

The expansion of the Drama Department was so rapid in its first year that it was thought advisable to hold the meetings this year at Ebell instead of at the homes of members. The two meetings a month were held on the second and fourth Tuesdays, and the programs included not only entertainment, but also study and instruction in the various phases of Dramatic Art. Included in the latter subjects were Play Reviewing and Reading, Pantomime, Make-up for the stage, Theater Ethics, and Delsarte.

Outstanding in the other activities of the Drama Department was the production of four one-act plays. Two of these, "Love is Like That," by Florence Ryerson and Colin Clements, and "The Imp," by Erastus Osgood, were presented as a Monday afternoon program for Ebell. These two plays were given in place of our customary three-act play. The second performance of one of the other plays constituted the entertainment for a Thursday night dinner, and was directed, as were the others, by Mrs. Charles Edward Futch.

Mrs. Cameron Livingston Thom and her assistant, Mrs. William Molony, Jr., have been responsible for a most interesting year for the Junior Book Chamber. The meetings have been held at the homes of members, and have had a spirit of informality that has encouraged even the most timid to take courage and review a book. Approximately eighty books were reviewed, and current events were presented at most of the meetings. The average attendance was twenty-five. Our largest meeting was the one with an attendance of forty-five, and our most unusual one was the combined Book Chamber and Swimming Party at the beach.

The Third Vice-President of the Ebell Juniors is chairman of the Social Welfare Committee. This office was held by Miss Elizabeth Lloyd, and great credit is due to her for the work carried on in answering the many calls increased by the stress and strain of present economic conditions. Starting with the first Monday in October, regular meetings were held at the homes of the various members. Due to the faithful efforts of the girls who attended these meetings, forty-four dresses and five rompers were completed. These garments helped in the clothing of the nineteen children of the five families supported by the Ebell Juniors. All other clothes were purchased from our Welfare Fund or were donated by our many friends, as were also milk and food. One Thanksgiving basket and nine large Christmas baskets, containing a well-balanced dinner and candy and toys for each child, were distributed during the holidays.

Two scholarships—one for the entire year, and the other for half of the year—were given to students at the University of California at Los Angeles. As this work is really a part of the Junior Welfare work, the two funds, the Scholarship fund and the Child Welfare fund, have been combined into one fund known as the Ebell Junior Welfare fund. In so doing, it is felt that the scope of activity will be increased, and that greater benefit will be derived from the one large fund.

Under the direction of Mrs. Robert Silas Redington, chairman of the Work and Play Committee, and her assistants, Mrs. Frank Copple and Mrs. Paul Robinson, the monthly bridge parties were carried on with great success both from the social as well as from the financial point of view. The parties were given on the fourth Friday of each month, with the exception of December, in the Solarium, with an average attendance of forty-five. In addition to these seven parties, a Contract Bridge Party was given on April the eighth, with an attendance of seventy-two. The proceeds from this party amounted to twenty-two dollars and ten cents, and the proceeds from the other parties came to thirty dollars and sixty cents, totalling fifty-two dollars and seventy cents. This sum was added to the Welfare fund.

The first benefit of the year was a supper-dance at Ebell on December eighth. The dining room of the clubhouse was transformed into a Hawaiian scene, and our guests were given the opportunity to enjoy "A Night at Waikiki." The net profit from this party was forty-four dollars and twenty-six cents, the whole of which was used for the Christmas work of the Social Welfare Committee.

Two hundred thirty dollars and sixty-nine cents were also added to the Welfare fund as the profit from the Bridge Tea and Fashion Show given at Ebell on May twenty-first. Bullock's generously presented the fashion show, with fifteen of our own Junior girls modeling the clothes. This party, as well as the supper dance, was in charge of the Benefits Chairman, Mrs. Thomas Mahl, and Miss Ruth Kennedy, Chairman of Tickets.

The amount of money raised from these activities and added to the Ebell Junior Welfare fund totaled three hundred twenty-seven dollars and sixty-five cents.

The expenses for the year were as follows:

For the two scholarships—one hundred fifty dollars. For the Social Welfare dress and sewing materials—one hundred nineteen dollars and fifty-two cents. For Christmas baskets—forty-one dollars and sixty-four cents. The total expense amounted to three hundred nineteen dollars and sixteen cents.

One hundred dollars was presented to the Practical Relief Committee of Ebell for summer work carried on by them.

The Thursday Night dinners at Ebell were well attended and greatly enjoyed by our members. On the evening of October twenty-ninth, the Ebell Juniors acted as co-hostesses and decorated the dining room in true Hallowe'en fashion. Witches, pumpkins, and ghost stories added gaiety to the atmosphere.

One hundred six new members were admitted to membership in the Ebell Juniors this year, and it has been the pleasure of the Membership Chairman and Second Vice President, Mrs.

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

Lawrence Hauge, and of the other officers and members of long standing to extend a cordial welcome to these girls.

Three years ago the Juniors were honored by being made representatives of Ebell on the Los Angeles Girls' Council, and have continued as such since that time. This past year, the added honor of being a member of the Executive Board of the Council was bestowed upon us. The President of the Juniors has served in this capacity. The members of our organization served as ushers at two conferences held by the Council, and the Executive Board representative assisted on the Program committee for the annual Spring Conference, March fourth and fifth. The theme for the program was "The Philosophy of Today's Girl."

The latter part of the club year presented an opportunity unique and possible only in the year Nineteen Hundred Thirty-two. This was the opportunity of combining with all of the other Junior Club organizations in and about Los Angeles to form the Junior Olympic Hospitality Group. The purpose in organizing this group was to have an organization of young women co-operating with and under the direction of The Hostesses of the Tenth Olympic Games. The Ebell Juniors have taken a prominent part in this work through the individual ardor and faithfulness of many members, and we are happy to have been privileged to participate in any work pertaining to the Olympic Games.

The programs for the regular monthly meetings were under the direction of the Program Chairman, Mrs. Brodie Ahlport, and her assistant chairmen, Mrs. Harold Craig, Miss Therese Joannes, and Miss Elizabeth Scattergood. These excellent and worthwhile programs were as follows:

OCTOBER: "Timely Modes," a fashion show by our members wearing their own clothes. The groups of styles were separated and interpreted through the hours of the day by the means of a large clock made by the Poster Committee.

NOVEMBER: Two one-act plays presented by our own members: "Cats' Claws," by Gertrude E. Jennings, and "Tea and Conversation," by Colin Campbell Clements. These plays were directed by Mrs. Charles Edward Futch.

JANUARY: An informal lecture on Contract Bridge by Mrs. Walter Kaufmann.

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

FEBRUARY: Musicales: Miss Emily Korstad, Violiniste, accompanied by Miss Lucile Mahaffery; Miss Arlene Washburn, Reader; and Miss Mary Elizabeth Waldorf, Soprano.

MARCH: The Honorable Lewis R. Works. Subject: "The History of Dueling."

APRIL: Program under the auspices of Book Chamber: Mrs. Edward A. Tufts presented a delightful program of book reviews.

MAY: Annual children's party at the home of Miss Elizabeth Scattergood.

JUNE: Installation Luncheon.

It has been a privilege and a pleasure to serve as President of the Ebell Juniors, and this has been true largely due to the loyalty, faithfulness, and co-operation of the Junior Board and the entire Junior membership; to the assistance and wise counsel of Mrs. Charles S. Crail, President of Ebell, and Mrs. Harry A. Ford, Chairman of the Junior Advisory Committee; and to the Ebell Board of Directors for their generosity and interest in the Ebell Juniors. I hope that the same spirit of friendliness and harmony will continue under each new President for many years in the future, and the Ebell Juniors will "Carry On" to even greater heights than we, in this year, can possibly anticipate.

Respectfully submitted,

WINIFRED HUNTINGTON,
President of the Ebell Juniors.

Standing Rules

Admission to all meetings shall be by card of current term only.

Regular members may bring three guests to all open Monday afternoon programs by paying fifty cents each.

Junior members shall be privileged to attend one Monday program each month and may bring three guests to such meetings, by paying fifty cents each.

No person eligible to membership shall be admitted as a guest to more than two Monday afternoon meetings in one year.

Auditorium guest tickets are sold by the Guest Ticket Committee at the Lucerne Boulevard and Eighth Street entrances. Regular members will receive ten guest cards for departments; one-half to be issued October first and one-half March first.

Calling cards may be used for guests in the Bible and Public Affairs Departments.

Any member of an out-of-town federated club may, on presentation of credentials, receive a complimentary guest card good for ten days.

Current membership cards will serve as cards of introduction to federated clubs of other cities.

New members notified of their election during February or June shall pay dues from March first and October first, respectively.

Applications for non-resident rates will not be granted after October first for the ensuing year, or after March first for the last half of the year.

Endorsers of temporary membership applicants must state length of time applicants have been in Los Angeles and probable length of stay. All applications must be made in writing each year and the membership must be continuous from the date upon which it is granted.

Canvassing for funds to provide gifts for curators, instructors or officers is definitely against the policy of the Club.

No appeals for financial aid shall be made from the platform or in the club rooms except by permission of the President and Board of Directors; nor shall there be any personal canvass for funds, but a table may be so placed that voluntary contributions may be received.

Curators, committee chairmen and others arranging for called meetings in the club house shall notify the office stating the time and place of meeting.

Ebell seeks information on legislative measures, but does not endorse partisan political measures or persons.

A member may not represent Ebell on any outside committee unless so appointed by the President or Board of Directors.

No refreshments are to be served at any time in the Reception Room except to the Reception Committee.

Luncheon tickets will be on sale in the Galeria every club day from one-half hour before the departments meet to 1:00 P. M. At other times they may be procured at the office.

To insure efficient service, reservations should be made for the Wednesday luncheons and the Thursday night dinners by 5:00 P. M. of the day preceding.

For the convenience of members, checks mailed to the office will be accepted for reservations, but no reservations may be made over the telephone.

Reservations are not obligatory for the Monday, Tuesday and Thursday luncheons.

Tables may be reserved for Departments and other groups. It is a rule of the Club that there shall be no tipping.

Notices

Office open daily from 8:30 A.M. to 5 P.M.; Saturday, 8:30 A.M. to 12:00 M.

Official Club pins may be purchased at the office.

Departments are open to all members of Ebell.

The Bulletin Board will note any change in date of meetings.

The Charter Day reception will be held on the last Monday in October.
