The Ebell

Dr. Adrian Ebell, a distinguished German scholar, realizing woman's limited opportunity for mental development and the necessity of fitting her to cope more effectively with the strenuous and complex forms of modern life, conceived the idea of establishing an international Academy with head-quarters at Berlin and tributary chapters in all parts of the world, for the object of developing feminine mentality along serious and scientific lines.

The first of the several chapters on the Pacific Coast bearing his name was the Oakland Ebell organized in 1876. The Los Angeles Ebell established in 1894, with its central organization and various study departments was modeled upon the same lines as this admirably planned Mother Club.

Music is a universal language, the language of the brotherhood of man. It is the only speech which all souls can understand even though their tongues differ; therefore as we study this year the music of different nations, Italy, France, Germany, England, the Netherlands, Norway, Denmark, Bohemia, Poland, Russia and America, we shall feel that we are studying the music of our own people.

At each meeting there will be a program, music, vocal and instrumental, characteristic of the different nations contributed by members of the department.

Annual Report

The thirteenth year of Ebell, contrary to ancient omen, has been one of particular prosperity. Though the admission fee has been more than doubled, eighty-eight new members have joined the Club. We now count twenty-five Life Members, and to the list of Honorary members has been added the name of Lieutenant General Adna R. Chaffee. During the year the Ebell has secured 163 additional shares of stock in the Club Building, and now owns 1365 shares representing $13,650.00. A payment of $500.00 has been made in reduction of our indebtedness and about $1,000.00 expended on furniture and permanent improvements. Ebell was the first Club to take a Life Membership of $100.00 in the Fine Arts League.

Contributions have been made to the Club Loan Fund at Berkeley, Barlow Sanitarium, Young Woman's Christian Association, Miss Ina Coolbrith, Juvenile Court Association and many other worthy causes. The Club has received from its members, gifts of pictures, books, furnishings and stock.

It is with a sense of deep sorrow that the Club records the loss of six valued members upon whom the Seal of Silence has been set: Mrs. J. J. Fay, Mrs. Edward A. Lynd, Mrs. J. E. Marsh, Mrs. L. M. Powers, Mrs. W. S. Vineyard, Mrs. Lewis Williams.

It is impossible, in a brief report, to do justice to the work of the Departments which has been earnest, enthusiastic and of great value to the large number of members attending the classes. On each Monday preceding the regular meeting of the Club, weekly drills under the direction of the Curator, Mrs. J. A. Clark, followed the monthly lecture of the instructor, Mrs. J. A. Osgood.

In the Department of Civics Mrs. Augustus Hine, the Curator, has introduced many able speakers. The Civic Association, Humane Society, Scholarship Fund, Owens River Bonds and many other matters of general interest have been carefully considered, and resolutions pertaining to the enforcement of important city ordinances have been adopted and copies sent to the Mayor and others in authority.

In the Department of Music—Mrs. Katherine Kimball Forest, Curator—an ensemble program was rendered on the fourth Tuesday of the month in charge of some member of the section. The second Tuesday was devoted to a lecture by Mrs. Edwin G. Voigt on the History of the Opera and Oratorio, the Music of the 17th, 18th and 19th Centuries and a course of interpretive lectures on the Symphonies. The members provided an excellent program and furnished many musical numbers for the open meetings of the Club.

The Department of Science in charge of Mrs. E. T. Pettigrew and Mrs. Jay B. Millard has met once a month for the discussion of problems of scientific and ethical import. The attendance was particular regular and enthusiastic.

The Department of French with Mrs. W. E. Reed as Curator, has been ably instructed by Prof. Gabriel Durnerin. Two classes were held each Wednesday morning and great earnestness has marked the study of the language. On April the eighth, at the open meeting of the Club, the section presented the charming French comedy "La Cigale Chez les Fourmis."

In the Department of Current Thought, in charge of Mrs. Florence Collins Porter and a corps of capable assistants, questions of Sociology, foreign and domestic politics and literature were discussed at the open session of the Club the third Monday of the month.

The Department of Books and Conversation under the leadership of Mrs. Sumner P. Hunt has covered a wide and diversified field. Books have been reviewed with the earnest purpose of studying the inner forces and motives that make character. The attendance was large and the members have entered with spirit into the discussions. Delightful luncheons in charge of Mrs. T. T. Knight followed the meetings.

In the Department of Art and Travel with Mrs. O. O. Witherbee as Curator and Miss Alice Mitton, Instructor, the Venetian Painters, Modern Italian and early French Art have been carefully studied. The lessons have been illustrated by pictures from Miss Mitton's valuable collection. The Club is indebted to this Department for a most delightful and unique Monday program.

The Shakespeare Department under the instruction of Mrs. Edward North has studied Henry WVIII," "Macbeth" and "Taming of the Shrew." The study has led the class into fields that seem limitless, history of Church and State, biographical character study involving ethics and sociology. The Department furnished a very enjoyable program at the last open meeting of the Society, including two acts from "The Taming of the Shrew."

The Monday programs of the year have been uniformly excellent and varied, giving us Art, Travel, Literature, Music, Drama and Ethics. Early in the year Mr. E. S. Curtis lectured on the "Vanishing Types of the North American Indian," exhibiting remarkably artistic pictures of the Indians in their home atmosphere on the desert and in the mountain passes of our great southwest.

With Mrs. Adams-Fisher we traveled to Quaint Nuremburg the Ancient; and Mr. B. R. Baumgardt delivered a lecture on modern St. Petersburg and Moscow illustrated with beautiful views taken by the lecturer during his travels in 1906. Mrs. Eleanor Bingham of Chicago, in a fascinating manner related the Legends of Famous Paintings in the Art Galleries of the Old World, exhibiting fine photographs of the beautiful Madonnas as depicted by the great Masters; and later Mr. Hector Alliot B. A. University of France, gave an illustrated lecture on "Childhood in Art" from its incipiency to the present day.

The Club has enjoyed some rare musical treats during the year, beginning with the first open meeting when that charming and talented violinist Miss Otie Chew, assisted by Peje Storck, gave a most enjoyable recital. In commemoration of the Larger and Photos and States in the Art Collection

Beethoven's birthday a delightful program was presented by our own members with the assistance of Mr. Frederick Gunster. An Illustrated Opera Recital by Dr. Bruce Gordon Kingsley on the "Myth and Music of the Grail" was unique in treatment and of surpassing excellence. Pictures from the operas of Parsifal were thrown upon a screen and the accompanying music played by Dr. Kingsley. Three young local artists, Miss Olga Steeb, pianist, Miss Bettina Boffa, violinist, and Carol Brunger, soprano, presented a most pleasing program. Miss Margaret Goetz was heard in a charming recital embracing songs of different nations. One of the very delightful musical afternoons was given by two of our own members, Mrs. Celeste Nellis Ryus, pianist, and Mrs. Maude Reese Wankowski, soprano, both artists of wide reputation. Mis sBessie Bartlett was heard in song and reading; and Signor Russo, assisted by Signor Schembri, presented a program of selections from Italian operas at the close of the annual business meeting.

The Club has been fortunate in securing such speakers as Senator Flint, Judge Wilbur, Prof. E. C. Moore, Dr. Burt Estes Howard, Mr. Wm. R. George who gave a graphic picture of the Junior Republic, Mr. W. A. Spaulding on Civil Service, Mr. J. M. Elliott who explained the advantages and disadvantages of the Owens River Bonds, and Prof. N. Hill Nesbit who gave an ethical and psychological study of the Influences of the Child Mind in Civilization. One of the gems of the year was the lecture on "Literature and the Community" by Prof. S. H. Clark of Chicago University. An address on "Thought Power in Home and School" by Miss Jane Brownlee of Toledo, the wellknown educator, was deeply interesting.

As usual at Christmas time the children of Ebell members made merry with a brightly decked Christmas tree, dancing, games and a sprightly program under the supervision of Mrs. William S. Cross. Toys in large quantities were brought by the little ones and sent to the Day Nursery, Dana Bartlett Mission and the Church of the Neighborhood.

Many informal luncheons and teas have been enjoyed during the year, serving to unite the members more strongly, fostering and strengthening that spirit of kindliness and cordiality which has always been characteristic of Ebell.

About 2,000 guests have been entertained during the year. The Club closed with the annual luncheon June the 22nd.

TUESDAY, DECEMBE

Gluckiche Weihnachten.

The German Christmas Eve given by the Ebell Club yesterday afternoon proved to be one of the quaintest conceptions seen for many a day. The costumes and the customs were taken from the Fatherland of fairy tales and legends, the homeland of good Kris Kringle, who goes about on his pleasant errands when folk are asleep.

Mrs. Hubert, the president of the club, made a charming little speech, apropos of the Christmas season, after which the curtains were drawn—and applause broke forth. A noble fir tree stood in one corner of the stage, shining with tapers and tinsel, and gold and silver stars. A real German cradle, a spinning wheel and otner homely appointments made a realistic scene. A lovely fair-haired German maiden (Mrs. Harmon D. Ryus) was at the piano, and the soft, sweet notes of the "Traumerei" were heard.

Frau Johanna Shallert was the

mother of the German family represented on the stage. She was a refreshing figure in the gay garb and the fascinating cap. She was putting the baby to sleep, and sang the sweetest of German cradle songs. Frau Katrina Dieter was the serving maid, who clattered about in her noisy sabots. She supplied the real comedy of the afternoon, and pervaded the atmosphere generally.

Tante Maria and Tante Louisa, represented by Frau Baumgardt and Frau Welsh, were the Christmas Eve visitors, and they brought with them Frau Wonkowski, who personated the talented niece.

Tante Louisa was asked to sing, and she sang a song she had learned in America, "Jamie;" sang it to the time of her crochet needles as she took stitches in her work. The song was an immense success, and then the niece fascinated every one with her selection from another land, "Coming Through the Rye." The blooming face of Tante Maria (Frau Baumgardt) looked out from a wondrous lace cap, such as one sees in German portraits of fine ladies. She sang a merry German song, and accompanied it with dainty dancing steps. All the famliy plied their knitting needles industriously, and looked as though they really knew how to knit. The two dancers, who arrived in the midst of the festivities, were Fraulein Dorchen Stearns and Fraulein Hulda Morgan. They had the real Dutch swing to their shoulders, and the sabots clicked merrily to the tune of "Lieber August-ine."

The carol singers created the greatest fun. They were heard without. and came tramping in as though it were real snow on their shoulders and real cold nipping their noses. Of course, there were steins and then the "Stein Song" rang out with the swelling chorus of the four male voices. The singers were Herr Jack Gregg, Herr Clarence Reynolds, Herr Johan Walker and Herr Fred McComus. Old Kris Kringle appeared after the lights were out and filled the stockings that hung in a row from the chimney place. After all the stage merriment was over, the players and the audience enjoyed the aftermath of a koffee klatsch.

A plan of sweet Christmas intent from the Ebell Club was revealed by Mrs. Hubert yesterday. The club has undertaken to furnish the music-room for the new Young Women's Christian Association, and already they have $100 toward the fund. There will be no meeting of the Ebell next Monday, and December 30 is the date for the children's costume party, one of Ebell's annual joys.
