Report of President

The time has come to consider the work of the past year, to be happy over our successful steps, and to look for mistakes so that we may use them for stepping stones of experience to greater accomplishments.

While deeply regretting that our President, Mrs. George Harris Cook, found it necessary to tender her resignation, it was with sincere appreciation of the honor that I assumed the office of President in January. As the work for the entire year was so well planned, it was not at all hard to step in and "carry on." Mrs. Cook has asked me to give you a report of the year as a whole.

The club year officially begins on July first, and it was soon after last July first that work was begun on the new Solarium Terrace, which has been facetiously referred to as the "flood control." To celebrate the completion of this work a pre-season luncheon was held in September. Tickets were $10.00 each, and because of the large attendance at this "Loyalty Luncheon," and generous donations from members, only about half of the expense of the Solarium Terrace was borne by the Club treasury.

All Chairmen and Department Curators have been able to keep well within their budgets, with the exception of the House Chairman, who has had some large and unforeseen house repair expense. But we must remember that our Club building is now eleven years old and that some repairs and replacements are not unusual.

The rentals, both theater and house, have far exceeded any previous year. The Finance Committee refinanced our mortgage with a different arrangement for making payments, which will result in a considerable saving. While taxes were increased, the interest was decreased. Something is paid on the mortgage each month now, but the total amount will average the same as in previous years, with the exception of those years in which large bequests were received.

It is not surprising that all Clubs reflect the business condition of the country, and find their incomes and membership slightly decreased. But be it "depression" or "recession," Ebell has weathered the storms with her head held high and flags flying.

An increase in attendance and purchase of guest tickets at the Monday meetings is indicative of approval of the programs presented.

REPORT OF PRESIDENT

At Department luncheons, the President's luncheons and Thursday Assembly dinners members have been privileged to meet and enjoy talks by many prominent citizens, local educators, and visitors in the city.

Our educational and philanthropic work has been efficiently carried on by competent chairmen, and with four Benefit parties the budget for this fine work was assured.

Under the amended by-laws it is the duty of the Chairman of Public Relations to keep in touch with and report the condition of organizations in which Ebell holds membership, and she is Ebell's representative on various civic committees. The Chairman, Mrs. Ilot Johnson, attended the Triennial Convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs in Kansas City, Missouri, in May. She attended the laying of the cornerstone of the Los Angeles Postoffice.

An important work of the Chairman is the investigation of requests for Ebell's support of activities of various organizations and groups of persons.

Invitations were extended to the President and one representative of each of forty-six neighboring Clubs to attend a Reciprocity Program and Tea on Monday, May sixth. Many Clubs have extended invitations to your President, or a representative, for Reciprocity programs, luncheons, and teas, and many times have honored Ebell by making your President their guest of honor.

The Ebell Juniors, the Art Salon, Solarium Teas, and all Departments are flourishing and completing a year of satisfactory and successful work, of which we may well be proud. The growth of the Departments and expressed appreciation of their fine programs, and the opportunity for study they offer, reveal a desire for a broadened knowledge along many lines.

For the fine spirit of helpful cooperation existing in Ebell I want to thank every member, and also all of the Staff—in the Office, House and Theater.

Each year brings its successes, its responsibilities, and its disappointments, but it is only through individual interest expressed through some service, great or small, that the foundation is laid for the continued success and growth of our Club.

MRS. HARRY QUINE

Report of General Curator

During the year 1937-1938, the curators of the nineteen departments have put forth every effort to maintain the high standard of Ebell.

A total attendance of 28,391 proves they have been successful. The curators, indeed, deserve praise for the high type of programs they have presented. Many talented members of Ebell appeared on the programs, as well as outside speakers.

There was no great change in the general plans for the past year. However, many members have requested that the departments return to the original plan of more study and less entertainment.

Attention is called to the fact that the meeting days of some of the departments have been changed for next year.

The new department of Cinematography, which was organized at the beginning of the year, has been very successful, proving that the women of Ebell are interested in keeping up with the times.

The General Curator called two meetings of the curators during the year. One was a luncheon, before the Club opened, to discuss plans for the year. The other was a meeting to plan the program for the Assembly Dinner, presented by the curators in January.

The General Curator wishes to express her appreciation of the fine work done by all who assisted in making this year a success.

MRS. HAYES H. HALVERSON

Report of Scholarship Chairman

Ebell's program of scholarships for college students is an investment in the cultural and economic future of the community. It is an activity of which the Club may well be proud.

Each student seeking a scholarship is judged by five significant indicia: scholastic progress in high school, individual intelligence tests, recommendation of the principal and teachers of the school last attended, interviews with the Scholarship Committee and the reason of the applicant for wishing to attend college. The basic factors determining the granting of a scholarship are measured in terms of character, intelligence, natural ability, ambition, and need for financial assistance.

Dr. Conant, President of Harvard University, recently said that twenty-five per cent of college students should be supplanted by more talented youths who cannot now afford to go to college; that the only way to provide education for poor but promising students is by generous subsidy or by scholarships. He observed that sixty-three per cent of the youngsters between fourteen and seventeen years of age attend high schools, but only eleven per cent of those between eighteen and twenty-one attend colleges or universities.

Each holder of a scholarship in Ebell receives $200.00 per year, payable in monthly installments of $20.00. The Club maintained nineteen scholarships during the past year, eighteen full time and one part time. Of these the Ebell Juniors paid half of two scholarships each month. Twelve of the students were registered at the University of California at Los Angeles; four at the University of Southern California; one at Occidental College; one at the California Institute of Technology at Pasadena; and for the first time in ten years, a scholarship was exchanged between the University of Heidelberg in Germany and the University of Southern California. One of our students, Virginia Cassel, who was awarded this scholarship, was graduated last year with an "A" record from the University of Southern California, and last month received an advanced degree, with high honors, at Heidelberg. She was chosen as one of four to participate in an extensive tour of Germany, provided by Carl Schurz, the founder of the exchange scholarships.

Last June five of our students were graduated from college. Ebell wishes them God-speed.

REPORT OF SCHOLARSHIP CHAIRMAN

On March 20, the Scholarship Committee had the pleasure of entertaining the students at a tea given at the home of the Chairman. Over fifty guests were present to honor the holders of the scholarships. These social gatherings are happy times, both for the students and the Committee, and afford an opportunity to develop a closer personal relationship with these young people.

The funds which support these scholarships are derived from interest on the Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Flint Scholarship Endowment Fund, the Ebell Scholarship Endowment Fund, and gifts from members. In this connection the Committee acknowledges with gratitude the generous gifts received during the past year, as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Flint	-	-	-	$2,000.00
Mrs. Samuel Wesley Garretson	-	-	-	1,000.00
Mrs. Irene Chapman Williams, in memory of her mother	-	-	-	100.00
Mrs. Edward Opel, in memory of her husband				100.00
Mrs. William Clark Brown	-	-	-	50.00

Mrs. Garretson's contribution was given to support five scholarships during the coming year and was inspired by her desire to provide scholarships for worthy and qualified students who could not otherwise be granted scholarships, due to the limited funds available for this work.

We are very proud of our young people and feel that they are worthy intellectual investments, and from the many letters of thanks received, we know they are thoroughly appreciative of the opportunity for advancement afforded them by Ebell Scholarships.

Report of Chairman of Welfare Activities

Through your Chairman of Practical Relief, 173 garments and 35 pairs of shoes have been distributed since June, 1937, thereby assisting 70 families. In addition to the above we gave out 73 Christmas baskets, many of which contained clothing as well as food enough for several days.

The employees of Bullock's Wilshire supplied five of our most needy families with food and clothing for the entire family.

All investigations were reported to the City Department of Social Service.

Some 300 garments were collected and purchased for the Needlework Guild by your Chairman. Ebell Club may feel grateful for the privilege of assisting many deserving people who do not want charity, only a chance to help themselves.

Following is a full financial report of the Welfare activities of the past club year:

Report of Ebell Rest Cottage Association

Outstanding work has been accomplished by the committees of the Association, which will be gratefully reflected in the lives of our guests.

We keenly miss our loyal friend, Mrs. Louise Helen Kramer, who was a member of the Executive Committee at the time of her death. She had served Rest Cottage in many capacities, and left a bequest in her will to the Cottage.

Ebell's social welfare is known beyond the limits of our community, as is evidenced by continued financial gifts from those outside our state. The recognition in our own city is an "open sesame" when help is needed from physicians, clinics, hospitals, and many organizations.

Mrs. William M. Kinney, secretary, reports cards made and filed for all new convalescents, invitations issued for the Christmas party, letters written, and records kept of all meetings.

Mrs. Frederick Wording Pitcher, chairman of finance, has guided our finances through troublesome years. After prolonged conferences with the finance committee, it was decided to sell, exchange, and purchase several bonds.

Mrs. E. Everett Sherrard, retiring treasurer, was a valued guardian of expenditures.

Mrs. Herman C. Moore, assistant chairman, reports that two hundred fifty-one women have convalesced in the Cottage this year.

Mrs. Neil C. Needham, house chairman, has had new linoleum laid in the kitchen, and the walls freshened with a coat of paint.

Mrs. John Rollin French invited the Executive Committee to meet her in the garden, where a new fence and removal of several trees were approved.

Mrs. E. Linn Christopher, with the Field Survey Committee, made eight excursions, visiting the welfare activities of the city. They brought written reports to the Association which stirred the interest of all listeners.

Mrs. William Bertram Burns and her assistants served a buffet luncheon to eighty persons at the Cottage, where our October meeting was held.

EBELL REST COTTAGE

REPORT OF EBELL REST COTTAGE ASSOCIATION

Two hundred thirty-four guests came to the Christmas dinner; there were also six honor guests and fifty-three committee members in attendance.

The Hospitality Committee took charge of the candy sale at the Ebell luncheon benefit, and planned and served the picnic luncheon at our June meeting in Griffith Park.

The report of the membership chairman, Mrs. William Harrison Smith, is included in the treasurer's report, but your attention is called to the response of Ebell members to our In Memoriam, as on this sacred page in the year book is recorded a number of new names, and thus eight hundred dollars have been added to our endowment fund.

Mrs. Mabel C. Chappellet, Follow-up Chairman, and her assistants have made fifty calls upon former guests, continuing a friendly and helpful relationship.

Mrs. Ernest C. Carman, Transportation Chairman, reports fifty-one calls and drives. The drives have proved helpful in recuperation.

We are grateful to our physicians, Dr. Charlotte M. Brown and Dr. J. Margaret Roberts, who have rendered valuable service, making two hundred thirty-three investigations.

Mrs. A. Bartlett Ross, who provided our Christmas program, secured our Ebell member, Mrs. Grace E. Bush, to entertain our guests.

Mrs. Bertha M. Ross, our matron-house-mother, has met the emergencies that come day or night to a convalescent home, with cheerfulness and fortitude.

The committees of the Association deem it a privilege to serve Rest Cottage, and appreciate the cooperation and hearty support they receive from the Board of Directors of Ebell.

Report of Former Officers' Round Table

It is always gratifying to the former officers of Ebell to participate in the activities of our beloved club, thus expressing our continued interest in every department and in everything that concerns our position in the community. We want the Board of Directors to feel that we are an understanding group, strong for cooperation that is helpful.

We have had three meetings: a luncheon at the club; a tea at the home of Miss Ada A. Dryden, given in honor of Mrs. S. Merritt Partridge, director of the two benefit performances of the past two years, and the members of the club who assisted her and made our parties a success; and a last luncheon at the clubhouse.

Our major achievement of the year was the Benefit Card Party, given last November, when we cleared $800.59 for Ebell.

Since the dues are only twenty-five cents, we do not try to leave much in the treasury. However, there is a balance of $13.23 for the first post cards to be sent out by the new officers.

MRS. E. T. BOWEN

Report of Chairman Salon of Art

The Salon of Art was organized to stimulate a greater interest in art on the part of Ebell members and to be of service to artists. Each month of the club year an exhibition in oils, water colors, prints, pastels, sculpture, and minatures has been shown. Because of the great number of local artists, a one-man's show is rarely permitted.

Under the very efficient chairmanship of Mrs. Frank Viault and Mrs. Charles E. Ward many social events were a delightful part of the year's program. An evening reception on Friday, October eighth, was held at Ebell Club, honoring the members of the California Art Club, the exhibitors for the month of October. On the first Wednesday of each month, the exhibiting artists and their friends were received, following a meeting of the Art Salon committee. Guest speakers during the year were: Roscoe Shrader, T. Nicolai Lukits, Arthur Beaumont, Cora Ferris Swam, Hilda Van Zandt, Elberta Mohleer Jones, and Dr. William Mathews Hekking, the new curator of art at the Los Angeles Museum.

Art excursions to Laguna Beach, Padua Hills, Scripps College, Pomona College, and the Huntington Library were made during the year.

The December show of all-snow scenes was the outstanding show of the year. The work of many well-known artists was enjoyed and appreciated. Among the number showing were the following: Benjamin C. Brown, William Wendt, Nicolai Fechin, and Jean Manheim. Also shown were canvases of the late Guy Rose and Gardner Symons.

The Assembly dinner was the crowning social event of the year, when we had the pleasure of entertaining one hundred artists as our guests. It was the occasion of the presentation of four hundred twenty-five dollars in cash prizes to the artists in the May competitive show. Members of the jury of awards were Frank Tenny Johnson, Roscoe Shrader, Kathryn Leighton, Genevieve Beecher and Charles Bensco. The members of the Salon committee who assisted in making these prizes possible were Mrs. Daniel Beecher, Mrs. William Clark Brown, Mrs. George Harris Cook, Mrs. Samuel Cary Dunlap, Mrs. Frank Paige Fay, Mrs. Walter Harrison Fisher, Mrs. John Wesley Harris, Mrs. Charles

Howe, Mrs. Willitts J. Hole, Mrs. Charles E. Love, Mrs. Marcius Curtis Smith and Mrs. Cyrus B. Sweet.

The year closes with a membership of one hundred ten, an increase of seventeen members. The year has been a very successful one as an added interest has been noted among the members of Ebell in the exhibits of the Salon.

Mrs. Alfred Ernest Burns, sales chairman, reports the sale of one hundred twenty-seven small intaglios by Roger Noble Burnham, one oil by Milliard, one pastel by Harry Muir Kurtzworth, and one etching by Mildred Bryant Brooks. Mrs. Louis C. Fix, treasurer, reports a balance on hand, June 30, 1938, of $293.91.

The loyal cooperation of those serving on the various committees has made the work a real pleasure. As chairman, I wish to express my great appreciation to the members of the Salon of Art Committees for their excellent work.

MRS. CHARLES HOWE

Report of President of Ebell Juniors

The Ebell Juniors have achieved many fine practical things this year in the Welfare, Drama, Book Chamber, and other departments, but above these things there has been achieved a friendly cooperative spirit within the ranks, which is far more than such items as are represented in the chairmen's reports and the bookkeeper's columns.

The Athletic Committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. Robert Burmeister Hope arranged meetings during July, August, and September at the Santa Monica Athletic Club for those interested in swimming and badminton. Beginning in October those interested in tennis met every Friday at the home of Miss Gracia L. Johnson. These activities were closed with an annual Sports Day at the Uplifters Club.

The Benefits Committee under the able chairmanship of Mrs. Charles G. Clarke gave five very successful benefits. Mrs. Clarke had a Barbecue Steak Supper at her home. Miss Elizabeth Lloyd gave the use of her home for a bridge luncheon at which there was an attendance of four hundred. The next benefit was a Punch and Judy Show for children at the home of Mrs. Warren F. McGrath. This was particularly interesting as it was a French production that had been brought over on the liner Normandie. But our pride and joy was the Circus Carnival and Dance at which we made over six hundred dollars. The last benefit was a formal Buffet Supper Dance held at the Bel-Air Bay Club. These five benefits netted $838.05.

The chairman of Social Welfare was Miss Dorothy Kilgore, under whose leadership many worth-while activities were carried out. Help was given to seven worthy families which included thirty boys and girls. These children were clothed completely three times during the year (September, Christmas, and Easter). Assistance was given whenever possible to the parents in the event of sickness, and during the holiday season baskets of food and toys for the children were given. Other activities of the Welfare group have been to supply shoes for five children at the Fremont school. These children would not have been able to attend school had it not been for these donations. Two fortunate young girls will attend camp this summer through the purchase of two Girl Scout Camperships. Two hundred dollars were also given toward two Ebell Scholarships, a life membership in the Ebell Rest Cottage was bought, one hundred dollars were donated to the Red Cross Flood Relief, and an unfortunate girl was sent to Rest Haven. Many of the clothes donated were made by members of the Social Welfare group. To assist these girls in their sewing activities a new sewing machine was purchased.

Well-known speakers representing some branch of the theater have told latest developments of stage and cinema. The guest speakers for the meetings have been: Mrs. Jack Hubbard, Mr. Beels, Mr. Calchnich, and Professor Hart. REPORT OF PRESIDENT OF EBELL JUNIORS

The Ebell Juniors wish to express their appreciation to their advisers, Mrs. William C. Warmington, Mrs. Lynn Wightman, and Mrs. Lawrence H. Daingerfield, for their advice and guidance through the year.

It is with feelings of regret that the year has ended, for we have enjoyed every moment of our associations together. The officers, the committee chairmen, and all those connected with the work of the Club, have displayed the finest kind of co-operation, and it is to each of them that we express our appreciation for their splendid support.

We are confident the same support will be given the incoming officers, which will insure a most successful year for Ebell Juniors for 1938 and 1939.
