President's Report

The President of a large club like Ebell holds very much the same position as the Captain of a large ocean liner and the duties are much the same.

The Captain must keep in close touch with every officer on the ship, must be thoroughly conversant with the work of each man, must know whether that work is well or poorly done, must be ready with counsel and sympathy at any time and must have initiative for new plans and methods of work.

He must take his place on the bridge and guide the vessel through fog and sunshine, though calm or stormy waters and bring it safely into port.

Just so the President of Ebell! She must keep in close touch with the work of the officers, the curators and the chairmen of committees, with the house manager, the office manager, the theater manager. She must have faith that each one is capable of doing his or her work efficiently but she must also keep close watch to see that the work is properly performed and must have sympathy and understanding for the difficulties of situations as they arise.

As chairman of the Board of Directors she must be conversant with all the details of the business affairs of the club and must know at any given time its financial status. She must preside at the business meetings of the Board of Directors and of the Executive Committee, at the large Monday membership meetings of the club, also at most of the luncheons and must always be ready to introduce distinguished guests.

She must keep informed on all public questions—municipal, state and national—in which the club may be interested and must exercise as keen judgment as is possible in the selection of those that are presented to the Board or the membership at large.

She must be hostess at the various social affairs and is supposed to have a ready tongue and to make many speeches, prepared and unprepared. She must represent the club at gatherings of importance in the community life.

She must keep the policies, traditions and ideals of the club before the members and do everything in her power to guide the Ebell ship through smooth or troubled waters into a safe harbor at the close of her administration.

All this and much more does Ebell require of the President. All this and much more has your President endeavored to do during the past year,—thirty-six Monday meetings, fifty-two Directors meetings, forty Executive Committee meetings and twenty-nine luncheons, together with one hundred and ninety-two department meetings, making a quota of three hundred and forty-nine formal meetings during that period. Then there were many informal ones with committees and many appointments with the various business and professional men and women of the City who wished to consult the President of Ebell on matters of their own. Conferences over the telephone are another heavy item and many speeches (one hundred and forty-three during the year) still another.

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

Figures mean little, the strain of responsibility means much.

In looking back over events the Charter Members' Tea was outstanding for its beauty and charm, the Chinese Princess der Ling, one-time lady in waiting to the Empress dowager, giving a colorful program.

The influenza epidemic in November and December made the attendance fall off to a discouraging degree but when it was remembered that during a similar epidemic eight years ago the club house was closed for two months, the work was carried on with renewed courage and reward came after the holidays when the attendance came back to normal and the luncheons, department meetings and benefit parties were unusually brilliant.

At the luncheons and Monday afternoon teas were guests from almost every large club in the United States and from innumerable small clubs and all were enthusiastic in their praise of Ebell's beautiful club home. Men and women from China and Japan, from England and the Continent brought interesting messages of one kind and another from their countries and carried back expressions of good will from Ebell. Some of these were Mr. James Yen, originator and organizer of the mass education movement in China, Dr. W. B. Pettus, head of the School of Languages in Peking, which furnishes a medium for conveying a knowledge of Chinese culture to the English-speaking world, Dr. Erickson from Albania, former Mayor Flower of Stratford-on-Avon, Senator Pile, former Minister to Colombia, Hamlin Garland, dean of American letters.

The Solarium teas were an innovation which has proven popular. A hostess committee with Mrs. George Mosher as chairman, was on duty in the Solarium twenty-six Wednesday afternoons, at which time Ebell was At Home to its members, who had the privilege of bringing their friends for a game of bridge and a cup of tea. These will be continued next year.

The Benefits parties arranged by Mrs. William J. Wilson and her committee have been brilliant affairs at which members have been proud to entertain their friends. From these parties together with the interest on endowments has been raised the sum of $19,500.00, which has been expended on our philanthropies—Rest Cottage, Scholarships and Practical Relief.

Twenty thousand dollars has been paid on the mortgage loan, which has reduced the indebtedness to $510,000.00. The latter sum should be greatly reduced when a suitable sale arises for our Figueroa Street property.

As far as our business affairs are concerned the year has been one of conservation. Several seemingly alluring propositions for participating in theatrical ventures have been declined, though on the face they promised large profits. As they went elsewhere and were not financial successes, the Board of Directors is to be congratulated on the keen business judgment displayed. We have made no big income from our theater but neither have we had any losses. Our leases have all been for cash and for the rest we have had the use of our theater for our own purposes. The income from our Wilshire property during the year was $13,028.00, from the Figueroa street property $5,695.00. The Auditor's report says $83,230.00 has been spent during the past year on club maintenance, of which only $53,000.00 is met by the dues of members. The rest must be made up from other sources. The per capita cost for running the club is about $26.00 per member.

The three big divisions of the club house are office, theater and house. Miss Lower has been office manager during the past year and under her guidance with the able assistance of Miss Murray, our efficient bookkeeper, and Miss Shultz the office has functioned smoothly and without friction.

The theater in so far as regards stage technic and management has been in charge of Mr. Lass, who has also represented Ebells with our lessees at the time of their occupancy of the theater.

The house is ably managed by our house manager, Mrs. Stribling, who controls a capable force of men and women filling various capacities. All of the employees take great pride in their work and of the fact that they are a part of Ebells.

Heretofore the house has been the only one of these divisions to be represented on the Executive Board. This was done through the Third Vice President, who is the house chairman.

An innovation was made this year by appointing the Treasurer as office chairman and the rentals chairman—a Director—as theater chairman. These together with the house chairman working directly with the office, theater and house managers have made closer contacts with the Executive Board. The result has been quite satisfactory.

I cannot refrain from giving Mrs. Frank Howell Stanbery, Third Vice President and house chairman, special mention for the smooth running of the very complicated machinery of this large house. Her careful attention to the many details involved in such an establishment and her tactful management of the hundreds of women on her committees prove her a practical and able executive. Mrs. Charles S. Crail should also have special commendation for the very competent way in which she has handled the business of our magazine, making it a source of income instead of an expense as such publications usually are. It would be most desirable to mention by name the loyal, hard-working members of the Executive Board who so unselfishly give of their time and strength to the consideration of the welfare, business and current affairs of the club and on whose wise decisions so much depends, also the curators of departments and chairmen of committees, giving each the meed of praise that is her due but space does not permit. No club in the world has a greater force of trained volunteer workers than has Ebells—women who give, each of her own special talents, toward the making of this great organization. Counting the committee members also, fully a thousand women each year give of their time and talents and each one deserves special commendation, for it is the team work that counts and the aggregate result that makes the greater Ebells. You will see from the reports that follow that the past year has been a successful one from a social, educational, philanthropic and financial standpoint.

Ebells has grown with the growth of Los Angeles. The steady rise of property values has enabled the club to move from restricted quarters on Main Street to more commodious ones on Flower and later to move from Flower to Broadway, from Broadway to two separate locations on Figueroa and from Figueroa to Wilshire Boulevard. In that time Los Angeles has grown from a pueblo with the Plaza for the center of its civic life to a city of skyscrapers and beautiful homes, a city of schools with a nation wide reputation, a city of artistic achievements that are known throughout the world. And Ebell has grown in that time from a neighborhood club of one hundred members to a great metropolitan club of more than three thousand, from quarters of one or two rooms to a magnificent, million dollar building which is pronounced to be one of the most beautiful and completely equipped in the world.

To be President of such a club is no sinecure. I have enjoyed working with the many fine women who constitute this great organization and I thank each and every one of them heartily and sincerely for the efficient and enthusiastic way in which she has carried on her work and for the willing and cheerful co-operation they have all rendered their President.

It has been said that if ever the time shall come when all the women shall work together for the public good there shall be such a release of power for good as the world has never seen.

That time has not yet arrived but such clubs as Ebell make it loom large on the horizon.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. A. BENNETT COOKE,
President.

Report of Recording Secretary

The Recording Secretary of the Ebell of Los Angeles has recorded the minutes of the meetings of the Board of Directors, Executive Committee and the regular Monday afternoon meetings. These minutes have been read and after approval were written into the permanent record books of the club.

The Board of Directors, with a membership of seven, including the President, held fifty-two called, adjourned and regular meetings. The First Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary sat with the Directors but had no vote. At these meetings all of the financial investments, contracts, leases, apportionment of the budget, such disbursements as insurance, taxes, and assessments and all permanent matters of the club were considered and decided.

Each Director had certain specific duties which were reported upon at each meeting. Mrs. S. M. Browne was Chairman of Rentals until her resignation when that duty was assigned to Mrs. Grantland S. Long, with Mrs. Browne acting as her assistant. This work included certain rentals of the theater, the various rooms in the club house, the Figueroa Street property and the house on Eighteenth Street, and general supervision of the Figueroa Street properties. Mrs. Long was also Chairman of Theater Interests. Mrs. Charles E. Crary, as Chairman of Social Welfare had general oversight of our three special club philanthropies and through her work Ebell has contacted and assisted twenty-two outside organizations. Mrs. William Read was Chairman of Finance and Auditor until the appointment as Director of Mrs. Julian Garnsey, who then took over the duties of Auditor. As Finance Chairman Mrs. Read had charge of all contracts, mortgages, investments, property sales and other business interests of the club. She was also Chairman of the Juniors' Advisory Committee. Mrs. Charles D. Burt acted as Chairman of International Relations, General Federation Secretary and had charge of the garden.

Miss deLaguna, as Chairman of Resolutions and Public Relations, brought to the Board thirteen resolutions and recommendations which were acted upon. They were as follows:

1. Expressing joy in the great world movement expressed by the Kellogg Treaty to Renounce War.
2. Expressing appreciation and gratitude for the work done by Mrs. Susan Dorsey while Superintendent of the Los Angeles schools.

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

3. Pledging ourselves to go to the polls on November 6th and cast our votes with the high intent to conserve the sacred bulwark of the Constitution.
4. Expressing approval of the projected plans for the beautifying of our city by the preservation and planting of trees along our boulevards and in our parks.
5. Endorsing the project of the Luther Burbank Foundation.
6. Protesting against printing unsavory details of crime on the front pages of the newspapers.
7. Requesting the appointment of a City Forester.
8. Endorsing Senate Bill 827, which deals with further protection of children in the Juvenile Court.
9. Endorsing the national origins provision in the immigration restriction law and urging its enforcement on July 1, 1929.
10. Endorsing the request of the Chief of Police for a larger police force.
11. Urging adequate legislation for the prevention of the sale of narcotics and for placing veronal on the list of regulated drugs.
12. Urging law enforcement, particularly of the 18th Amendment.
13. Protesting against secret fraternities in the high schools.

The Executive Committee, with seventeen members, held forty meetings when all of the current affairs of the club were given consideration and were adjusted. Reports of the work of the members of the Executive Committee, with the exception of the First and Third Vice Presidents, will be found elsewhere. The First Vice President, Mrs. Charles S. Crail, has been Chairman of Printing with the tasks of preparing the Year Book for publication and of editing the Ebell Magazine. In December, when the publisher found it impossible to continue with his contract, a new printer was secured and a contract signed which gave Ebell the ownership of the magazine, the printing company agreeing to pay $200 a month for the advertising space. Under the new arrangement the magazine not only brings to the club an income but will be published each month throughout the year instead of for the ten club months.

Under the Third Vice President, Mrs. Frank Howell Stanbery, who has been Chairman of the House, a committee of over three hundred women have cared for the comfort and pleasure of the club members. Every Monday tea was served to the members and their guests who attended the afternoon program, thirty thousand being served during the year; thirty-three Wednesday and special luncheons were supervised and twenty-six Wednesday teas were given in the Solarium. To improve the club house Venetian blinds and shades were installed, the stairs were carpeted, a platform for the piano built in the Fine Arts Room, new china and linen purchased and glass doors installed at the office entrance. The stage and dining room were made more beautiful for all occasions by the three decorating committees.

One change was made in the personnel of the Executive Committee. Upon the resignation of Mrs. James Catlett Ernst, Mrs. Patrick Campbell was appointed by the Board of Directors to fill the office of Treasurer.

The Secretary's record shows that thirty-four Monday afternoon programs were presented. In the half hour preceeding the scheduled program announcements of club activities and reports of committees were made and speakers from other organizations gave brief messages. These were as follows: the Community Chest, the American Green Cross, Stratford Players, Council of International Federation of University Women, National Association for Constitutional Government, Philharmonic Orchestra, Narcotic Research Association, Air Mail Service, Automobile Club of Southern California. Mr. McGroarty spoke on his new play, the Chief of Police spoke of crime and traffic problems, Dean Matthewson of the University of California at Los Angeles expressed appreciation for Ebells' scholarships and told of the problems of the self supporting girls in college.

Under the leadership of its President, Mrs. A. Bennett Cooke, who has discharged the manifold duties of her office with grace and efficiency and who has never lost sight of the goal of achievement and service, the Ebells of Los Angeles has completed its thirty-fifth year of growth and success.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. EDWARD A. TUFTS,

Recording Secretary.

Report of the General Federation Secretary

The General Federation of Women's Clubs has considered many matters of national and international interest during the past year, and in some instances the influence of united womanhood has had a telling effect.

The endorsement of the Kellogg Peace Pact was of international importance and every federated club was asked to communicate with its senators and ask them to endorse the Pact when it was brought before Congress during the early part of the year. Ebell replied promptly by passing a resolution endorsing the measure and copies of this resolution were sent to the two California senators, both of whom notified us that they were in favor of it.

Of vital interest to the women of America was the resolution asking for recognition of women as homemakers in the 1930 census, thus giving them their true evaluation. This resolution also asked that data be collected relative to basic equipment essential to home efficiency.

The question of the ever-increasing billboards on the highways and their detrimental effect on otherwise beautiful scenery was brought to the attention of advertisers with the result that more than two hundred forty national advertisers and agencies agreed to restrict their signs to commercial districts.

Ebell had previously endorsed law enforcement but its members were happy to go on record again as standing behind the Eighteenth Amendment and all other laws which make for good government.

At the Biennial Council which met in Swampscott, Massachusetts, in May, Ebell was entitled to one delegate but the President, Mrs. A. Bennett Cooke, could not leave her post of duty here at home. At this meeting the present status of the World Court was discussed and the Federation was asked to muster its forces for work during the next session of Congress when the question of the entrance of the United States into the Court will probably be presented.

The club was honored by having an article in the June number of the Federation News. This was a very brief résumé of its three big philanthropies and with the article was a picture of Ebell's President and also one of the Rest Cottage.

This privilege of co-operation with the General Federation in matters of intrinsic value to mankind is simply another avenue for the fulfillment of the Club's ideals.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. CHARLES D. BURT.

Fourth Vice-President

Report of the Corresponding Secretary

The Corresponding Secretary has written five hundred letters during the year beginning July 1, 1928 and ending June 30, 1929. More than one-fourth of these were business communications, about one-half were letters of sympathy or cheer and the others were cards of congratulation or appreciation. An exact classification shows that there have been written one hundred fifty-seven letters of business, two hundred sixty-five of sympathy or cheer and one hundred twenty-eight of congratulation or appreciation.

Letters have been sent to England, to France, and to Germany, as well as to all parts of the United States. Ebell members travel widely and the Club has contacts with other organizations in many cities.

Often someone asks how the Corresponding Secretary knows to whom to write. The answer is that the information is obtained through the Club Survey Committee, of which Mrs. William Dellamore is chairman. She and the other members of the committee have scanned papers for news, they have attended Club meetings regularly and have tried to learn by word of mouth what was happening. Their zeal was made manifest and many important items were passed on to them. Thus not only have the names for personal letters been supplied, but additional facts have been given, so that the letters could be written with understanding and with loving interest.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. ALBERT HOMER PURDUE,
Corresponding Secretary.

The Former Officers' Round Table

MRS. HARRY A. FORD, Chairman

MISS CHARLOTTE M. ROCKWELL, Vice-Chairman

MRS. EDWARD A. TUFTS, Secretary

The Round Table, entering upon its third year, can look back upon two years of usefulness to Ebell. The results of its first year, devoted to practical work, appear in the financial reports of the Club. This last year we have held but the four scheduled meetings and it might appear to the casual observer as though interest in it were waning among its members. The contrary is true.

Never has the Round Table done more worthwhile work than during the last twelve months. It has been the means of renewing an interest in Ebell among members who had grown indifferent, who felt that they had no more to offer the Club in service. It has brought many of the past officers again into active work.

If the Round Table never did any other work, as a body, in Ebell, this stimulation of interest and the addition to Ebell's active workers from the ranks of the experienced, would alone justify its existence. The Round Table can well feel it is not a liability to Ebell but an asset, and one which will increase in value as time goes on.

Respectfully submitted,

MISS CHARLOTTE M. ROCKWELL.

It has become necessary for women to have some knowledge of the fundamentals of law. In the matter of estates, of wills and trusts, and in the common affairs of business, such as sales, leases, mortgages and transfers of property, any woman, for her own safety, should know enough of legal principles and procedure to protect herself. This department will seek to explain and discuss the legal problems of business, inheritance and domestic relations.

Report of the General Curator

During the past year our eighteen departments have again unquestionably met the high standard expected in Ebell, officers and members of the departments alike priding themselves in arranging and presenting programs of excellent quality. When possible programs have been given by our own members, but when, by reason of the subject treated, it seemed advisable to invite a friend from outside the club to give the program, our visitors have responded generously and gladly. Many of the leading musicians, artists, dramatists, attorneys and public officials of the community have appeared in the departments and at the luncheons following.

Contests in the writing of essays and biographical sketches have been held, and substantial prizes were earned and awarded.

During the year the Applied Design Department presented to the club a handsome silk flag for the Auditorium platform, and, in addition, four silver trays for use under the tea urns. Mrs. H. Kenyon Burch presented a smaller silk flag for use on the stage in the Fine Arts Room. Several departments have given artistic and useful books to our Library.

The French and Spanish departments were not only again self-supporting, but each department has a substantial credit with which to begin next year's work.

The Art Exhibits Committee has arranged monthly exhibitions of paintings, engravings and miniatures in the Galeria and Fine Arts Room.

Mrs. Robert H. Hunstock and Mrs. Dick Smith ably assisted in the departments throughout the year.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. ELBERT HARSHMAN,

Report of the Art Exhibits Committee

During the Club year this committee has tried to bring before Ebell a varied exhibition of art; varied in subject, different in school, medium and mode, canvases in oil by old and modern masters, delicate water colors, miniatures, portraits in bronze bas-relief, portraits in oil, in sepia, scissor cuts in black and white, etchings and prints, designs and reproductions in commercial art, and gilt carvings from Japan. In this we have been graciously assisted by the galleries of Los Angeles, Hollywood and Pasadena and the artists themselves.

In October twenty-four canvases by the ultra modernist Charles Reiffel, were shown in the Galeria and Fine Arts room.

November brought us nine masterpieces from outstanding American and European masters. These were exhibited in the Fine Arts room. This same month the Galeria held, first, fourteen oils by Harvey Coleman and later the initial showing of Marion Wachtel's oils.

December found in the Galeria a wonderfully complete collection of old and new etchings and prints.

January, in the Fine Arts room, were nine oils by Leland S. Curtis while in the Galeria were fourteen oil portraits by James H. Gardner Soper, together with bronze portraits and studies of animals by Agnes Campbell.

February. During this month twenty-four canvases were displayed in the Galeria and Fine Arts room—the work of George Demont Otis. Also in the Galeria were shown fifteen scissor cuts of trees and landscapes by Mary Louise Fitch.

In March the Galeria and Fine Arts room contained a splendid showing of scenes of Italy by Genarro Favai.

During April a large collection of antique paintings, colored engravings and gilt temple pieces, dating back to the seventeenth century, were shown in the Galeria and the Fine Arts room. In the Galeria was also a collection of water colors by Isabel Schneider.

In May nine canvases by Evelyn Nunn Miller and three by Otto H. Schneider were shown in the Fine Arts room and in the Galeria. At this time the Galeria also held an extensive display of designs and reproductions in commercial art, as well as eight oils, by Orpha Klinker. Two sepia portraits and a painting of the Cristo by Harrison Henrich were also hung this month.

During June were hung, in the Fine Arts room, nine canvases of Carmel, by Mary De Neale Morgan. The walls of the Galeria held the annual exhibit from the department of Applied Design and pictures by some of Ebell's artist members including Mrs. Leora W. Burlingame, Mrs. Will E. Francis, Mrs. George C. Litchfield, Mrs. Katherine Patterson and Mrs. Thomas Spaulding.

Interspersed, have been eight charming exhibits of miniatures by members of The California Society of Miniature Painters.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. MILTON EPHRAIM HAMMOND,
Chairman Art Exhibits 1928-29.

Fourteen girls have been assisted over times of stress.

On December 8th a jam and jelly shower was given for the Helen Matthewson Club which filled the preserve closet and added to the great pleasure of the girls. A three pound plum pudding was among the gifts at this shower.

Our Christmas activities included the County Farm, Barlowe's Tubercular Sanitarium, Children's Hospital and Disabled Veterans and families. Heretofore we have filled fifty baskets (Christmas dinners) for our ex-service men and their families. This year sixty-five names of soldiers who requested Christmas dinners were given us and after our Mrs. Davis had purchased the groceries, chickens and vegetables the names of seven more families were given us which we could not supply. One of our generous club women hearing that these seven

Report of the Ebell Rest Cottage Association

Someone has said, "It is as we give, that we live." This truth is fully exemplified in Rest Cottage, a treasure house full to overflowing with gratitude from more than twelve hundred women, who, since its inception have received the kindly hospitality always extended to those who come for rest and convalescence.

In the first year twenty-five women were entertained while this year two hundred one women have received care and encouragement. About eighty-five per cent of these guests have returned later to their homes or employment with renewed health and good spirits. It is interesting to note that more and more our guests are recommended by Ebell members.

At the beginning of the year the Chairman of the Association set the goal for the Endowment Fund at thirty thousand dollars. When in May it appeared that this coveted goal was not to be achieved a personal appeal made by her to a small group of Ebell friends brought the following response: Seven Life Members, six Memorial Memberships, and a gift of one hundred dollars, or a total of fourteen hundred dollars, thereby attaining the end desired.

The Finance Committee, diligently searching for reliable investments, report the purchase of ten thousand nine hundred dollars ($10,900) in securities; of this amount three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500) were called bonds, making the net investment for this year seven thousand four hundred dollars ($7,400). This brought the Endowment Fund total to thirty-one thousand three hundred ten dollars and fifty cents ($31,310.50).

Faithfully and earnestly the Membership Committee have enrolled eleven hundred eighty-four (1,184) members. There were eight hundred twenty-three associate; two hundred sixty-four contributing; sixty-nine sustaining; sixteen life; and twelve memorial memberships which made a total of five thousand and sixteen dollars received in this way.

The Investigating and Transportation Committees are worthy of commendation in their eagerness to take guests to and from the Cottage, hospitals, home, or often for a drive. The Follow-up Committee carries sunshine and happiness in their calls upon former guests in their homes, assuring them of continued interest in their welfare. The Program and Entertainment Committee is responsible for the enjoyable entertainments held at the Cottage. Last year they planned a tea and two luncheons which brought many members and friends in closer contact with the Cottage.

The Assistant Chairman faithfully performed all duties assigned to her. Many are they who have received words of cheer or condolence from our Secretary.

Two hundred ninety-five invitations were sent to former guests for the Christmas party. On December fifteenth the Cottage was radiant with Christmas cheer, a lighted tree in the garden, and holly abounding everywhere in anticipation of the annual Christmas party. One hundred guests enjoyed a turkey dinner followed by community singing and a delightful musical program by Ebell members. Each guest received a gift of stationery. Many of the guests availed themselves of the invitation from the Ebell Juniors to attend the play given by them at the Windsor Square Theatre, making it a day that lives in the memories of those privileged to participate.

Through the decision of the courts Rest Cottage lost the legacy left by Mrs. Cora Morse Royal who made her will only two weeks prior to her death. Miss Mary Elizabeth Orvis bequeathed her furnishings; and since her death a Memorial Membership was given by her brother.

Kind friends have remembered the Cottage with fresh and canned fruit, flowers, books, and gifts too numerous to record. The Committee members spent several days making draperies and cushions for the house and garden. A radio, settee, and garden swings were purchased, all adding to the comfort of the guests.

Through the kindness of Miss Fulmer's school thirty-one families were recipients of generous Thanksgiving baskets.

Again we thank the Benefits and Entertainments Committee, the Needlework Guild, the Practical Relief Committee, and many others who by their interest have helped carry on this work.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. SAMUEL EMERSON FAROAT,
Chairman Ebell Rest Cottage Association.

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

Resolutions

Establishing Ebell Rest Cottage Association

Whereas, There has been conveyed by Deed of Gift to The Ebell of Los Angeles certain property described as Lot 206 of Olivito Heights Tract, as per map recorded in Book 8, Page 47, of Maps in the office of Recorder of Los Angeles County, State of California, which property is known as and hereinafter referred to as Ebell Rest Cottage and

Form of Bequest or Devise

For Benefit of Ebell Rest Cottage

It is suggested that one of the following forms be used when money or real estate is to be left to The Ebell for the benefit of Rest Cottage.

If money, use the following form: "I hereby give and bequeath to The Ebell of Los Angeles for the maintenance of Rest Cottage .....dollars."

If real estate, use: "I hereby give and devise to The Ebell of Los Angeles that real property described as follows:....."

If the desire is to leave money or real estate with the intention that only the interest or income therefrom shall be used for the maintenance of Rest Cottage, then add to the above forms as follows: to the first, "and I direct that said sum of money be safely invested and the interest or other proceeds arising therefrom shall be used for said purpose."

To the second form add, "And I direct that the income from said property shall be used for the support of said Rest Cottage and in the event that it is deemed advisable to sell the said property so devised, that the money derived therefrom shall be invested and the proceeds used for said purpose."

At the suggestion of the donor such bequest or devise may be left as a memorial to erect a building or endow a room to be known by the name of the person designated.

You may make your own will without any witnesses being present. To do so it must be wholly dated, written and signed in your own handwriting.

In the event that it is written by other persons it must be signed by you and by two witnesses, who must sign at your request after you have declared to them that the instrument is your last will and testament. They must sign in your presence and in the presence of each other.

Report of the Scholarship Committee

The Scholarship Fund has assisted twenty-one students this year. We have been able to help a greater number than in any previous year. This has been done through the magnificent generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Flint and the monthly contributions of other interested members. While the Flint Endowment was formally announced more than a year ago, we have, during the year just ended, begun to realize in a concrete way just what it means to the Scholarship Fund.

Nineteen young women and two young men have been on our scholarship roll. All of these, with one exception, have been in our local schools. This one student, a graduate scholarship student of the University of California at Los Angeles, has just finished her fifth year in the Library School of the University of California at Berkeley. All of the local students are in college, except one girl, who is a senior at the Manual Arts High School.

One successful experiment was tried out this year with very commendable results. Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Flint offered one hundred dollars in three prizes for the best essay upon the subject, Values in Education, open to all scholarship students. A number of excellent papers were received. The three prize essays were read by their authors at the April meeting of the Better American Speech Department.

Two of the scholarship students have been the recipients of signal honors during the past year; one of the girls having been made a Phi Beta Kappa. Another was elected to membership in the Sigma Alpha Iota, an honor musical sorority.

We desire to acknowledge the assistance of the Practical Relief Department of Ebells. They have been ready at all times to provide the necessary clothing for our students.

To the President, Mrs. Cooke, and to the members of Ebells, we also express our sincere gratitude for their ever ready assistance and approval of the work that has been done.

Report of the President of the Ebell Juniors

As the year draws to a close and we look back over the various activities, with sincere pleasure we realize that we were able to do our part to help further the growth of Ebell Juniors.

The first meeting was held on the appointed day, the second Wednesday in October, when the members of the various committees earnestly assumed their responsibilities.

On Wednesday, October 31st, a special Junior luncheon was given for the purpose of presenting to Ebell our gift, a portrait of Mrs. William Read. This occasion was an eventful one because it was a pleasure to give to the club, the portrait of one very dear to us and to Ebell.

Our annual three-act play entitled "Only Me," under the very able direction of the Drama Director, Mrs. Juan Martino, was presented Saturday night, Dec. 15th. The production was a huge success and through the generous efforts of all who participated, the new scholarship fund was increased to the amount of $321.50. The profit from the Benefit dinner dance, which amounted to $70.00, was added to this fund, also several generous individual contributions.

The scholarship committee, a plan of the last regime, commenced its work this year under the capable chairmanship of Mrs. Harold Draper. Our plan has been to organize and adjust the committee and build it financially. The first person to whom schooling is to be given, is the mother of three of our children. She is to take some courses in school this summer. This fund is now ready to allow a scholarship to be given this next year to one whom the committee finds worthy.

Our child welfare committee, to which have been added seven children this last eight months, has continued to progress with the same enthusiasm as ever. Throughout the year thoughtful care has been taken by our efficient chairman, Mrs. J. Ellsworth Ross, and her committee. They have supplied any need for clothing or milk or any desire to add to the comfort of the children.

At Christmas time seven baskets were filled, including fruit, vegetables, bread, cookies, candy, soup meat, turkey or chicken, a Christmas tree and toys for the little ones. We tried to supply enough provisions to last throughout the holidays.

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

The Welfare Fund was increased this year by the Rummage Sale, which netted $80.50, and by the Annual Bridge Benefit and Fashion Show, which netted $376.00. Heretofore this party has been a bridge luncheon but this year a bridge tea was given instead.

The chairman of our successful benefits this year has been Mrs. Frank Wilkinson. To her and her willing and worthy committee a great deal of praise and credit is due.

The total receipts for the year from the above benefits amount to $848.00.

Members of Ebell Juniors become better acquainted through the friendships formed at our monthly Social Meetings. These have been held at the homes of our members and only the members are eligible to attend. Mrs. Harold Carig was the gracious hostess and chairman of this committee, which this year was christened "Work and Play."

We look forward during the year to the Invitational Dance. For the enjoyable evening of this last time, Miss Alva Woodhouse deserves the credit. Each member and escort are expected to invite one couple. In this way friends of Juniors may have the pleasure and privilege of enjoying the club and other members with us.

A new and instructive feature adopted this year was the ten minute talk at the beginning of each meeting on "Famous Women," women either of this generation or a generation past. Their experience and lives proved most interesting and enlightened us with a few more facts about the capabilities of women.

The monthly programs have been delightful and have been very carefully arranged by Mrs. Ligon Ard, who succeeded Mrs. James Donlin.

They were as follows:

October—Group of Songs, Miss Frances Warren Haynes; Dances, Betty Marie Maentzer; Reading, Mrs. Edith Neff.

November—Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, Mrs. Raymond Tremaine; Group of Songs, Mrs. Paul Robinson; Interpretive Dancing, Miss Margaret Eichelberger; One-Act Play entitled "Mansions" by Hildegard Flanner.

December—Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, Miss Adah KleinSmid; Readings, Mrs. Nell Baldwin; Songs, Clara Robbins.

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

January—Jane Addams, Mrs. Reginald Height; Illustrated Lecture, The History of Chinaware, Mr. H. B. Tuttle.

February—Edna St. Vincent Millay, Mrs. Daniel Gains Hon; Readings, Claire Cox; Dances, Miss Jane Spencer; Readings, Miss Jane Scott.

March—Mrs. Herbert Hoover, Mrs. J. D. Fredericks; Original Sketches, Members of Lives and Times Department.

April—Children's Program and Party; Vaudeville Skit, Mrs. Leslie Bowden and Mrs. Chas. Chamberlain; Dances, Tiny Pupils of Misses Selma and Velma Lytell.

May—Eva LeGalliene, Mrs. Ligon Ard; Group of Songs, Miss Marguerite Bayer; Piano Numbers, Miss Cecelia Zobelein; Violin Numbers, Miss Cecile Schubert.

June—Annual Luncheon and Installation of Officers.

The co-operation among the Juniors was responsible for the work done this year. The friendships and associations together with the knowledge gained have been invaluable.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH WHEAT,
